An Unreasonable Drive

Justice Kroeger is engaged in hearing the case of A. Murray against L. H. Bradley Murray claims that Bradley hired a team and buggy from him on July 4 to drive six miles into the country. He drove thirty miles instead, damaged the buggy to the extent of $29.75, and overheated the team so badly that one of the horses died. Murray accordingly sues for $150, the value of the horse and the damage to the buggy.

There has been thousands of men pouring into Omaha of late and all have readily secured work, and the cry is still for more. A bright-eyed and bright-baired lad about ten years of age was found asleep in a dry goods box Monday night and taken to the police station. He got tired of the farmer's abuse and ran away with Forepaugh's circus when it passed through the town. He was put off at Boone and has been nearly a month in working his way to Omaha. He was released from jail and supplied with funds sufficient to enable him to go into the boot blacking industry.

THE COLORADO QUARANTINE.

The Stock Yards People Approve the Governor's Action.

The quarantine proclamation of Governor Thayer prohibiting the importation of cattle from Logan and Weld counties, Colorado, into the state of Nebraska, gives quite general satisfaction among the Union stock yards officials and commission men at South Omaha.

The general opinion among the commission firms is, that the quarantine will scarcely affect South Omaha. The fact that only two counties are included in the proclamation cuts such a small figure in Colorado shipments that it will never be Acting President W. N. Babcock is outspoken in his approbation of the proclama tion, and says it will be of immense benefit to the yards. It will let every Iowa and Nebraska farmer, stock raiser and dealer know that the yards are kept perfectly free from diseased stock. "Why," with emphasis, added Mr. Babcock, "I would not have a single head of diseased stock go out of these yards for $500. If it be possible our yards shall be kept absolutely clear and free from diseases.

"As soon as I learned of Texas fever I had Veterinary Surgeon Ramocciotti go and in-vestigate the matter and Governor Thayer has acted on his report. It is the best thing possible for our yards. The people have confidence in our yards now, as being the cleanest in the country and the only ones all the year free from fevered stock, and we shall keep things in just that excel-lent condition."

Examination of the books show that on August 20, Gail Bros. shipped cattle from Harding, Weld county, Colo., to this market, but only 225 head were sold here the rest being consigned to Chicago.

MARCH OF MICKLE'S MEN.

Brickmasons on the Hall Building Lay Down Their Trawels. The brickmasons employed by Lee Mickle on the Hall building, near the corner of Sixteenth and Jones streets, struck yesterday morning on account of their objections to the superintendent on the building, George, the nineteen-year-old brother of the con-

The men claim that young Mickle was very arbitrary in his display of authority, and was totally unfit for the position. They stated that he would not allow them to take a glass of beer during the noon hour. After consultation with the contractor it was agreed he should withdraw the young man, and the work should go on. While this agreement was being reached the laborers scattered and the brickmasons could not work this afternoon. Several of them said they would go to work for other contractors in the morning. This is the gang of men which is to be transferred to the new Methodist church, at the corner of Davenport and

Mr. Mickle was seen and stated that there had been some little trouble, but everything had been satisfactorily adjusted and work would be resumed in the morning. He also stated that there would be no delay in the work on the Methodist church, as the men would complete the work on the Hall build-ing to-day, and would be at once trans-ferred to the church, where he already has two or three men at work.

BALL PARK TAXES.

A Justice Defines What Part the Owners Must Pay.

Justice Anderson gave his decision vesterday morning in the case of Martin Ittner as guardian for the heirs of Benjamin Ittner against William Robinson and John J. Hardin, in which the question of special taxes on the baseball grounds was involved-whether or not the owners or lessees should pay them. The decision was in favor of defendants and if sustained by the higher courts will settle a matter that has occasioned in the past a great deal of litigation.

Ittner claimed that the lease provided for the payment by its holders of all taxes, but Justice Anderson thinks different. His interpretation of the language of said lease regarding the tax feature was that it only provided for the payment by Robinson and Hardin, of such taxes as the property may be assessed at for municipal, state and government support. An assessment for curbing, guttering, paving and sewerage must be paid by the owners of the land.

AN ELECTRIC HOME,

The New Lightning Home of the Street Railway Company.

The new power house of the Omaha Street Railway company on the corner of Nineteenth and Nicholas is practically completed, as all the brickwork is done, the roof is on, the pits and rails in the car room are ready, and the boilers are ready for the fires to be kindled under them. All that remains to be done is to put up the engines and dynamos, and if they were here it would probably not take over a week to have the new electric cars running. The dyna-mos and other machinery are now due, the foundations on which they will stand are ready for them, and in fifteen days at the fartnest, the old style system of mule power will have become a elic of the past in the central streets of the

The new motor house covers more ground than any other of its kind in the city or the west. It is 132x198 feet, lacking only one lot of covering an entire half block. It consists of three rooms, all mammoth in their pro-portions. The car room occupies the east side of the establishment, is 132x134 feet and 32 feet high. It will contain twelve pits for the workmen to get at the disabled cars and s in every way complete.

The boiler room is 64x67 feet and thirty-two feet high. It is pronounced the finest engine room in the west both in equipments and for the comfort of the firemen. At present there are mammoth boilers, but anticipating the possible future needs of a growing city like Omana, room has been left for seven more which will more than dcuble the present capacity of the concern.

The boiler foundations of concrete, on which rests a bed of brick, and above this is a plate of steel contiguous to the boilers. Inspector Standeven, who is authority on such spector Standeven, who is authority on such matters, pronounces the boilers among the best and the setting of them better than any he has ever seen. of 350-horse power.

A number of the motor cars are now here and are being set up, and by the last of this month twenty will be ready for service.

Motor Notes. Cars on South Sixteenth street are making regular trips to Vinton street. Yesterday morn-ing, during recess, the passage of one of the flyers in front of Hartman school was witnessed by a host of children with many evi-dences of delight.

Workmen are still engaged in perfecting the Eleventh street line. The track is laid to Sixteenth and Vinton with the exception of the spot which was so badly washed out three weeks ago. Poles and wires are being erected and strung and it is expected that cars will be run over the route in about four weeks. They will run around the loop in the same manner as do the South Sixteenth street cars, namely on Howard to Four-teenth, thence to Douglas, Twelfth and thence to Howard street again.

"How many trains pass around the loop daily?" was asked of Dr. Mercer. "From 6 o'clock in the morning until 9 at every three minutes. That would be twenty in an hour. In fifteen hours that would be 300. After 9 o'clock they do not run so frequently.'

There Are No Happy Days For those who continue to rise unrefreshed after nights of unrest, Nervousness, insomnia, idigestion—these constitute a triple alliance that perpetually wars against man's comfort, and robs both brain and body of tranquility. Combat the trio for a time with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and it will give ground and eventually fly the field. The basis of reform is the rectifica-tion of digestion, for the brain and nerve trouble is simply a reflex of the disturbance of that all important function. A wineglass-ful before each meal of the national stomachie insures facile digestion, and a repetimotes nerve and muscle invigorating steep. Associated with indigestion we usually flud billiousness and constinution. But together or independent of each other, these maladies are subjugated by the bitters, which also remedies kidney trouble, rn numatism, neuralgia and malaria.

WILL NOT CELEBRATE.

Omaha Germans Will Not Jubilate on October 6

The enthusiasm with which a number of Germans of this city hailed the prospect of a general celebration by their countrymen of October 6, the anniversary of the landing of the first Germans on these shores, has not been sufficient to encourage the undertaking. For that reason the anniversary will be un-observed. In other cities in the east, however, the arrival of the first settlers from the fatherland, and their later settlement at Germantown, near Philadelphia, will be celebrated in a most befitting manner. Even Nebraska City will take a hand in the business and promises to make a success of the undertaking. Various reasons are assigned for the lack of spirit on the part of the Germans of this city, some alleging want of time, others paucity of numbers, and others still aversion to public displays of all kinds. What is more attractive than a pretty face with a fresh, bright complexion! For it use
