

A TERRIBLE CATASTROPHE.

Over Fifty People Buried Under Tons of Rock at Quebec.

AGONIZING CRIES FOR HELP.

Thirteen Corpses and Sixteen Wounded Have Been Taken From Under the Debris—Six Hundred Men at Work.

Under Tons of Rocks.

Quebec, Sept. 19.—To-night several thousand tons of rock slid from Cape Diamond, at the end of Dufferin terrace, to Champlain street, 300 feet below, demolishing in its course seven dwellings. Up to midnight six bodies have been taken from the ruins.

GENERAL FAULKNER'S TRIAL.

The Alleged Wrecker of the Danville National Bank in Court.

BRATTLE, Sept. 19.—The special trial of George Lester B. Faulkner, charged with wrecking the Danville National bank, was begun in the United States district court before Judge Cox this morning.

LONG LIVE THE REPUBLIC.

A Change in the Tactics of its Assault.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.)—Since the electoral campaign the conservative candidates and the newspapers which support them seem to have undergone a veritable metamorphosis.

ANOTHER CRONIN SUSPECT.

John Roddy, of Chicago, Under Suspicion.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Times to-morrow will report that John Roddy, who was mentioned in the evening papers as a possible Cronin suspect, and said to be in the Bradwell, was at home to-night, just returned from a trip to Ireland.

SUICIDED BY HANGING.

A Chicago Man Who Got Tired of Living.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—John G. Kimball, a well known citizen living on Twenty-fourth street, committed suicide this morning by hanging.

Arrested for Burglary.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 19.—Some time between 10 and 11 o'clock Tuesday night, the clothing store of M. J. J. was entered by burglars. Eight or ten suits of clothes and a number of overcoats were carried off valued at $150.

The Weather Forecast.

Nebraska and Iowa—Fair, variable winds; warmer in low; stationary temperature in Nebraska.

The Cigarmakers' Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—In the cigarmakers' convention to-day a proposition to reduce the price of the union label was defeated.

FREMONT CAPTURES THE CUP.

Her Company the Best Drilled of the National Guard.

THE IRRIGATION COMMITTEE.

Its Good Work at Ogallala—The North Nebraska Methodists—Political Potpourri—A Provident Grocer.

A Famous Victory.

HEATON, Sept. 19.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The judges of the competitive drill for the governor's challenge cup gave in their decision unexpectedly at noon to-day, awarding the prize to Company E, First regiment, of Fremont. The defeat of the Fairbury company, D, Second regiment, is in no way a discredit to it.

GENERAL FAULKNER'S TRIAL.

The Alleged Wrecker of the Danville National Bank in Court.

BRATTLE, Sept. 19.—The special trial of George Lester B. Faulkner, charged with wrecking the Danville National bank, was begun in the United States district court before Judge Cox this morning.

LONG LIVE THE REPUBLIC.

A Change in the Tactics of its Assault.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.)—Since the electoral campaign the conservative candidates and the newspapers which support them seem to have undergone a veritable metamorphosis.

ANOTHER CRONIN SUSPECT.

John Roddy, of Chicago, Under Suspicion.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Times to-morrow will report that John Roddy, who was mentioned in the evening papers as a possible Cronin suspect, and said to be in the Bradwell, was at home to-night, just returned from a trip to Ireland.

SUICIDED BY HANGING.

A Chicago Man Who Got Tired of Living.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—John G. Kimball, a well known citizen living on Twenty-fourth street, committed suicide this morning by hanging.

Arrested for Burglary.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 19.—Some time between 10 and 11 o'clock Tuesday night, the clothing store of M. J. J. was entered by burglars. Eight or ten suits of clothes and a number of overcoats were carried off valued at $150.

The Weather Forecast.

Nebraska and Iowa—Fair, variable winds; warmer in low; stationary temperature in Nebraska.

The Cigarmakers' Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—In the cigarmakers' convention to-day a proposition to reduce the price of the union label was defeated.

FREMONT CAPTURES THE CUP.

Her Company the Best Drilled of the National Guard.

THE IRRIGATION COMMITTEE.

Its Good Work at Ogallala—The North Nebraska Methodists—Political Potpourri—A Provident Grocer.

A Famous Victory.

HEATON, Sept. 19.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The judges of the competitive drill for the governor's challenge cup gave in their decision unexpectedly at noon to-day, awarding the prize to Company E, First regiment, of Fremont. The defeat of the Fairbury company, D, Second regiment, is in no way a discredit to it.

GENERAL FAULKNER'S TRIAL.

The Alleged Wrecker of the Danville National Bank in Court.

BRATTLE, Sept. 19.—The special trial of George Lester B. Faulkner, charged with wrecking the Danville National bank, was begun in the United States district court before Judge Cox this morning.

LONG LIVE THE REPUBLIC.

A Change in the Tactics of its Assault.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.)—Since the electoral campaign the conservative candidates and the newspapers which support them seem to have undergone a veritable metamorphosis.

ANOTHER CRONIN SUSPECT.

John Roddy, of Chicago, Under Suspicion.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Times to-morrow will report that John Roddy, who was mentioned in the evening papers as a possible Cronin suspect, and said to be in the Bradwell, was at home to-night, just returned from a trip to Ireland.

SUICIDED BY HANGING.

A Chicago Man Who Got Tired of Living.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—John G. Kimball, a well known citizen living on Twenty-fourth street, committed suicide this morning by hanging.

Arrested for Burglary.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 19.—Some time between 10 and 11 o'clock Tuesday night, the clothing store of M. J. J. was entered by burglars. Eight or ten suits of clothes and a number of overcoats were carried off valued at $150.

The Weather Forecast.

Nebraska and Iowa—Fair, variable winds; warmer in low; stationary temperature in Nebraska.

The Cigarmakers' Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—In the cigarmakers' convention to-day a proposition to reduce the price of the union label was defeated.

FREMONT CAPTURES THE CUP.

Her Company the Best Drilled of the National Guard.

THE IRRIGATION COMMITTEE.

Its Good Work at Ogallala—The North Nebraska Methodists—Political Potpourri—A Provident Grocer.

A Famous Victory.

HEATON, Sept. 19.—(Special to THE BEE.)—The judges of the competitive drill for the governor's challenge cup gave in their decision unexpectedly at noon to-day, awarding the prize to Company E, First regiment, of Fremont. The defeat of the Fairbury company, D, Second regiment, is in no way a discredit to it.

GENERAL FAULKNER'S TRIAL.

The Alleged Wrecker of the Danville National Bank in Court.

BRATTLE, Sept. 19.—The special trial of George Lester B. Faulkner, charged with wrecking the Danville National bank, was begun in the United States district court before Judge Cox this morning.

LONG LIVE THE REPUBLIC.

A Change in the Tactics of its Assault.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—(New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE.)—Since the electoral campaign the conservative candidates and the newspapers which support them seem to have undergone a veritable metamorphosis.

ANOTHER CRONIN SUSPECT.

John Roddy, of Chicago, Under Suspicion.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—The Times to-morrow will report that John Roddy, who was mentioned in the evening papers as a possible Cronin suspect, and said to be in the Bradwell, was at home to-night, just returned from a trip to Ireland.

SUICIDED BY HANGING.

A Chicago Man Who Got Tired of Living.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—John G. Kimball, a well known citizen living on Twenty-fourth street, committed suicide this morning by hanging.

Arrested for Burglary.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 19.—Some time between 10 and 11 o'clock Tuesday night, the clothing store of M. J. J. was entered by burglars. Eight or ten suits of clothes and a number of overcoats were carried off valued at $150.

The Weather Forecast.

Nebraska and Iowa—Fair, variable winds; warmer in low; stationary temperature in Nebraska.

The Cigarmakers' Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—In the cigarmakers' convention to-day a proposition to reduce the price of the union label was defeated.

TANNER MUCH CAST DOWN.

The Corporal Will Not Take Part in the Ohio Campaign.

THE FUTURE PENSION POLICY.

Grand Army Men B-lieve There Will Be No Material Change—Misapprehensions About the American Congress.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

WASHINGTON HERALD, THE OMAHA BEE, 613 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.

Mr. Tanner is not agitating what might be called his grievances. He is very much cut up by what has transpired, and his friends have been doing all the work in the direction of securing for him the position of recorder of deeds. In fact Mr. Tanner has never been away from his own residence since the day he closed up his affairs at the pension office. He has not been long since he has visited every day and evening by Grand Army friends and those who want to see him squared before the public. It is not likely that the retiring commissioner will accept the invitation of Governor Forsaker to come out and stump Ohio during the present campaign.

THE LAND OFFICE REPORT.

Acting Commissioner Stone Submits the Annual Showing.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE.

A Cedar Falls Man Burns His House and Suicides.

DOMESTIC TROUBLE THE CAUSE.

Forepaugh's Circus Train Meets With an Accident on the Iowa Central—Political Correspondence Made Public.

Burned His House and Suicided.

Cedar Falls, Ia., Sept. 19.—After setting fire to his house, and having last night, William Peels, of this city, committed suicide by shooting himself through the lower part of the bowels. Domestic trouble was the cause of his rash act.

Forepaugh's Circus Wrecked.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Early this morning the train carrying Forepaugh's circus from Marshalltown to Oskaloosa came apart on a down grade between the two places on the Iowa Central. The engineer waited at the bottom of the grade, hoping that the brakeman on the second half could control his end of the train, but he did not, and it came crashing down the grade. The circus train was completely telegraphed, and the animals were saved. The circus train was completely telegraphed, and the animals were saved. The circus train was completely telegraphed, and the animals were saved.

Iowa's Railroad Law.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 19.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Some very important correspondence was made public to-day. It includes the replies of the republican candidates for governor, and the republican governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points:

The Enforcement of the entire law in both letter and spirit.

Each reply at some length, giving for the most part assent to the propositions suggested. The republican candidates for governor, Messrs. Hutchinson and Poyner, to inquiries made by the State Farmers' Alliance. Each was asked to give his views on the following points: