Des Moines 7, Omaha 6.

Omaha and Des Moines played again yesterday afternoon, and the prohibitionists won the game.

Nobody cares, however, for the White Sox, the real work for the season being over.

The weather was moist and disagreeable, and there was only a baker's dozen or two who witnessed the game.

Like the meteorological condition, the contest was soggy and uninteresting.

Young Freeman, released by Milwaukee early in the season, was given a trial in the box for Omaha and did fairly well.

For the champions Messitt made a safe drive to right after Walsh and Andrews had gone out. Cody's inexcusable maul of Canavan's fly in Jack home and Jimmy to third, but he was left, Freeman striking out.

Old man Phelan made a nice put for his side after two hands were out and Abbey and Kennedy following with two-sackers in quick succession, the two first runners scored. Booth flew out on Brooks.

In the fifth inning there were two more runs, while the Prohibits made three. Again there were two out when Freeman drove the ball against left field fence for two bases. Then Cooney smashed out a resonant homer way out to the middle field fence, earning both runs. Cleveland flew out to third.

For the visitors Abbey got to first on a hit by Canavan. Kennedy went out to left. Andrews and Roach struck out. Cleveland's short throw gave Patton his base, and Maskrey made a home run. Connell followed with a safe one, but Cody ended the fun by fouling out to Messitt.

The sixth was a blank for Omaha, but again Des Moines scored twice.

Crosby pitched a life, and he came home on Phelan's two-bagger. A wild pitch led Dick to third, and he crossed the plate in Abbey's out to Canavan.

That ended the prohibitionists' run getting, but they had enough to give them the game.

Omaha pulled up to within one run of a tie in the seventh and eighth. In the seventh, after Andrews' only home run, Walsh and Andrews knuckled out batters, Walsh into the cowpen in the northwest corner and Wally over the right field fence.

The ninth was a blank, and thus the game went to Des Moines.

Minnesota, St. Paul and Milwaukee.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 21.—Minnesota continued their slugging to-day and lapped Burdick's delivery as they played. Hudson was five times at bat and made five hits for a total of ten bases. Mitchell twirled in grand form, and both clubs fielded excellently. Score:

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 21.—One of the best and most interesting games of the season was played to-day. Both pitchers were remarkably steady. The hitting was very smart except on the part of Daily. Hurk's play at short was excellent. Meekin struck out twice and was hit safely but four times and only gave one man his base on balls. Score:

THEY SAID GOOD-BYE AND GO

An Elegant Banquet Tendered Land Commissioner Groff.

FELLOW ATTORNEYS' FAREWELL.

The Douglas County Bar Wins and Dine in Honor of the Eminent Jurist's Promotion—The Banquet and Speeches.

An Elegant Banquet.

It was a happy farewell that tendered Judge Lewis A. Groff, the recently appointed commissioner of the general land office, at the banquet given by the Douglas County bar at the rooms of the Omaha club last night. Sparkling wine flowed like water, the merry jest went round and the usually staid and earnest men who day by day either plead before the courts or sit in judgment upon the difficult problems presented, gave themselves up to an evening of enjoyment, among the chief features of which was the congratulatory of him who has been honored by the chief executive in being called to one of the most important positions in the national government.

It was about 8 o'clock when the guest of the evening, attired in the conventional dress suit, his handsome face flushed with the excitement of the occasion, arrived and took his place in the drawing room, where he received each successive visitor and responded to the hearty congratulations bestowed.

The club rooms had been especially prepared for the occasion, and every chair and seat in judgment upon the difficult problems presented, gave themselves up to an evening of enjoyment, among the chief features of which was the congratulatory of him who has been honored by the chief executive in being called to one of the most important positions in the national government.
