

WON'T COMBINE WITH BOVD

What Magenth Says About His Plan of Campaign.

BERLIN TAKES ANOTHER TURN.

A Batch of Ramors Picked Up on the Street—The Wrangle Over Judge Groff's Place Grows Apace.

Local Politics.

"There is no doubt," remarked Jeff Magenth, "that the hottest fight will be made on sheriff, and I am glad of it. That will make it easier for the balance of us. The report has gone abroad that John Boyd and I have made a deal, and that we are to run on my own party. Why should I make enemies by favoring any one of a dozen who are seeking some other office?"

The district judgeship fight has not changed materially since Tuesday, though there seems to be a prevailing impression that the contest will be narrowed down by Saturday, when the bar association meets, to three candidates, Clark, Davis and Snyder.

Adam Snyder has finally come out and is among the democratic entries in the race for county treasurer. Previous to last night he had treated the matter indifferently but his friends urged him to enter and make a bold fight for the nomination.

John F. Davis is making a desperate effort to counteract the movement in Clark's favor. It is quietly hinted that a concentration of the various forces, those favoring Estelle, Beckenroed, Ambrose and others, on Davis will give him a majority of the lawyers, and this is what his friends are trying to bring about.

There is another candidate for the judgeship in the field. A. C. Troup has yielded to the solicitation of friends and entered the race in earnest. The friends of Mr. Clark claim to have the signatures of 150 members of the association to a petition asking Governor Thayer to appoint him to the position.

The supporters of Clark, Davis and Snyder deny that any such strength has gone to Mr. Clark, and each faction feels confident that its favorite will be elected by the association at the meeting on Saturday night.

Money Kings at Kansas City. A number of the leading bankers of this city left Tuesday evening for Kansas City to attend the national convention of bankers that meets there to-morrow. The following were in the party:

Henry W. Yates, president Nebraska National bank; J. C. Cook, president Omaha National bank and the South Omaha National bank; Milton T. Barlow, cashier United States National bank; Fred H. Ebersole, cashier First National; J. H. Millard, president Omaha National; Ed E. Hatch, assistant cashier Omaha National; Thomas J. McGee, cashier American National; Owen T. Griffith, Commercial National bank; Luther Drake, assistant cashier Merchants National, all of Omaha; also E. B. Branch, Union Stock Yard bank, and William Fleming, of the Union National bank of the South Omaha.

Laundry Theives. "I'm guilty all right, Judge. But I was driven to the theft from hunger." This is what Stephen Barnes said when information was read to him by Judge Berka accusing him of petty larceny. Barnes and his red-faced pal, J. J. Cook, stole about $5 worth of laundry from George Medlock's place at Sixteenth and Iard streets. Barnes went inside and stole the bundle, while Cook stood watch on the outside. Medlock discovered them down the alley and called the police, and an hour later the police had the thieves behind the bars. Barnes got thirty days and Cook twenty.

Marriage Licenses. The following licenses were issued by Judge Shields yesterday: John A. Johnson, Omaha, 19; Tina Lindquist, Omaha, 19; Ernest G. Smith, Omaha, 19; Bell McKeith, Omaha, 17; Dennis Rose (colored), Omaha, 13; Orelia Preston (colored), Omaha, 13.

WANT A CHANGE.

The Gas Company Don't Like the Omaha Style of Justice.

The attorney for the Omaha Gas Manufacturing company filed a petition in Judge Wakeley's court yesterday, asking for a change of venue in the case of the Gas company suit against the city of Omaha.

The motion was supported by a number of affidavits of citizens, alleging that in their belief a fair trial of the case can not be had, and is based on the known fact that he drove out to Bennington last Sunday with Boyd. Little things of this character, having suspicious outward appearance, have marred the campaign lately just now. Seeing these two state outsiders together naturally led Judge Wakeley to conclude that they were conspiring against the city.

Since discovering that his cap into the collection box failed to close that important opening as he expected it would, Richard Berlin has concluded to get back in the race for mayor, and keep company with Joe Southard. When Dickey bird learned that Senator Manderson had sent a letter to Washington asking for Alexander's appointment, it made him very sad and his friends gave out a report to the effect that he proposed to renew his candidacy in the county struggle.

ANOTHER LINE TO THE BLUFFS

It Will Connect With the Consolidated Road.

THE TEXAS AND FORT WORTH.

Further Indications That it Will be Purchased by the Union Pacific—Special Trains for the Knights Templar.

Over the Union Pacific Bridge. Another electric motor line will be in operation between Omaha and Council Bluffs in the near future, unless something entirely unexpected turns up. Several eastern capitalists are connected with the project, but the bulk of the financial backing will come from Omaha. The projectors are Hon. John A. McShane, Hon. W. A. Paxton, the consolidated company of this city, and Judge James, a well-known capitalist of Council Bluffs. The plan is to procure a right-of-way across the Union Pacific bridge, using that part for a roadway now used for vehicle traffic.

After leaving the bridge the line will be constructed on the grade of the present roadway leading from the bridge to Council Bluffs. In Omaha it will connect with the horse car line, adjacent to the Union Pacific tracks, and will be a portion of the present electric system to be operated by the consolidated company. Judge James, on behalf of the projectors, held a long conference with Vice President Holcomb, of the Union Pacific, Tuesday afternoon. When asked concerning the nature of the conference, Mr. Holcomb said: "Judge James desired to know if the Union Pacific would grant a motor company the franchise of its bridge to be used in crossing the river and to operate a system of operation between Council Bluffs and Omaha. We talked the matter over and I informed him that I had no objections, provided a fair rental was paid for the use of the bridge. I did not give him any definite answer, but requested that the matter be taken up again for a second time. I am sure that the projectors are sincere, I can see no objection in their way, as far as crossing the bridge is concerned."

DODGE AND DILLON CONING.

Further Proof of a Fort Worth-Union Pacific Deal.

Hon. Sidney Dillon, a heavy owner of Union Pacific stock, and a director of the company, will arrive from the west this afternoon, and will remain in Omaha several days. He will be joined here by General G. M. Dodge, president of the Denver, Texas & Fort Worth, and who is also a director and heavy stockholder in the Union Pacific. Now comes the report, and from a reliable source, that matters are gradually being settled, and that nothing else than the purchase, outright, of the Denver, Texas & Fort Worth road by the Union Pacific. The Fort Worth road is 500 miles long, and with the exception of a small section of road leading out from Fort Worth, the entire system Grande over which the Fort Worth road has a trackage right, it forms a direct outlet from Denver to the coast.

Vice President Holcomb when questioned about the Fort Worth deal said: "Nothing definite has as yet been arranged. It is true that a trip was made over the road in view of ascertaining just what the lay of the land was. President Adams is favorable toward the Fort Worth road, and is continuing to try to absorb it as far as he can consummate."

"It will not be this matter come up before the directors of the Union Pacific at their October meeting?" "I cannot say as to that. General Dodge, as I have said, is to be present at the meeting, but this signifies nothing, as he is a member of the directorate. I can say this, that up to the present time Adams and Dodge have had no conversation on the subject."

Notwithstanding the effort to keep the fact that a deal has been made between the officials, the report that the deal will be consummated at the October meeting, comes from a reliable source.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR CONCLAVE.

Three Special Trains Required to Convey the Californians. The California contingent that will attend the Knights Templar conclave at Washington is preparing to make a trip across the country in royal style. California will send two commanderies, the Golden Gate and the California. Each will have a special train, consisting of six Pullman sleepers, two baggage cars and one day coach. The train will run solid from Oakland, Cal., to Washington, D. C., and return on the same route. The train bearing the Golden Gate commandery will reach the Union Pacific at Omaha at 3 a. m., Wednesday, October 2, and the same day will arrive at the following: Lincoln, 8:05 p. m.; Cheyenne, 10:45 p. m.; Thursday, reach Sidney at 1:50 a. m.; North Platte, 7:30 a. m.; Grand Island, 12:10 p. m.; and Omaha at 1:30 p. m. The train carrying the California commandery will reach Omaha at 11:30 p. m., October 2; Green River, 6:50 a. m., the following day; Rawlins, 12:10 p. m.; Laramie, 5:30 p. m.; Cheyenne, 8:10 p. m.; Sidney, 10:45 p. m.; and Omaha at 1 p. m., October 4.

C. L. Hanna, traveling passenger agent of the Union Pacific, will charge upon the Golden Gate while J. P. Kirkland, agent of the California, will be in charge of the California. A special train will be turned over to the Burlington at Denver, leaving the latter point October 3. It is thought that the California commandery combined will number about four hundred.

Returned from the Hunt. Elmer D. Frank, clerk of the United States Circuit court, returned yesterday morning from the hunting grounds of Wyoming. Whether he brought any bear meat back or came empty handed is one of the things that no man can find out. He left Judge Dundy and other members of the party there hot on the trail of big game. They are expected next week. It is rumored that Mr. Frank was recalled on account of a war. He quickly arose, and after crossing, ran out and notified the police. It was a burglar cutting his way through. "The thief heard the cops coming and escaped after a lively chase."

They are Friends Now. Ben Gallagher had his head in a sling yesterday morning as he sailed up Judge Berka's desk when his name was flashed up from among the offenders. "You are charged with fighting," said the judge, "what do you plead?" "Guilty, I reckon."

"With whom did you fight?" "Oh, Alice and I had a little scrap, that's all." Frank Alice had also been arrested on the same charge, and he too pleaded guilty. The total fine aggregated $15 and the two defendants whacked up on the settlement and left the court room as friends.

A Lucky Burglar. About 11 o'clock Tuesday night the hired man, who sleeps in Henry Haen's laundry, at No. 517 South Thirteenth street, heard some person sawing at the window sash in the rear. He quickly arose, and after crossing, ran out and notified the police. It was a burglar cutting his way through. "The thief heard the cops coming and escaped after a lively chase."

WE HAVE A TREAT

In store this week for buyers of Men's Clothing, Our stock of Fall Suits was never so extensive as now, and its variety warrants the assertion that whoever buys a Fall Suit without at least looking at ours fails to consult his own interest. There is not an establishment in the West that offers the selection or names the prices we do.

To stimulate an early fall trade we will make this week the following extraordinary offers: 300 Men's All Wool Cheviot and Cassimere Suits, well made and trimmed with good serge lining, all sizes from 34 to 42, at $5.90. The Cheviot is a nice stylish plaid, the Cassimere a plain brown, both very slightly suited, and of an excellent quality of goods, which is made to wear. The same suit is sold by most dealers at from $8 to $10. We place these splendid Suits on sale this week for $5.90.

Our offer No. 2 for this week will be a line of suits—sacks and frocks—at $10. We have the name for always giving the best 10 dollar suit in the market, but those we are offering at this price will be pronounced by everybody the most astonishing value for the money. They will compare favorably with suits for which other houses are asking $18 or $20. We have put into this line several styles to suit all classes of customers. One style is all fine a worsted Corkscrew in sacks and frocks, which makes an excellent dress suit, other styles are good Cassimeres in plain and mixed colors for business wear, honest goods and honestly made, and which will give as good satisfaction as any 20 dollars suit.

In the finer grades of suits we show all the latest novelties in material and cut. The new wide wale and clay goods made up in the latest style of 3 button cutaway with Prince Albert lapels—a beautiful style—we offer all these goods at our usual low prices.

Our illustrated catalogue of fall styles ready for mailing. Send us name and address if you want one.
