John Donson, a switchman in the Missouri Pacific yards, was run over by a switch engine last night about 9 o'clock and his left arm crushed. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and the injured member amputated.

Where is Johnson? Ed Johnson, a young man about twenty-four years of age, went to theivery stable of John W. Cotton, at Sixteenth and Charles streets, Friday morning, and hired a horse and buggy, saying that he wanted to drive out to Waterloo. He did not return on Saturday last night about 9 o'clock and his left arm crushed. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and the injured member amputated.

Not a California Bear. Anybody can catch a cold this kind of weather. The trouble is to let go, like the man who caught the bear. We advise our readers to purchase the Goidy of Orange company a bottle of SANTA ANITA, the California King of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs and Croup Cures, and keep it handy. It is pleasant and deadly to the above complaints. Sold at $1.00 a bottle or 3 for $2.50. CALIFORNIA CATHARTIC CURE gives immediate relief. The Cathartical virus is soon displaced by its healing and penetrating nature. Give it a trial: Six months treatment $1.00, sent by mail $1.10.

Funeral. On Tuesday morning at 10:30 from residence, No. 110 South Twenty-fifth avenue. Proceed to Prospect Hill cemetery. Fashion for Men. Clothier and Furnisher. The overcoat question may be summed up in a few words: They are a trifle louder, with their wide seams and straps, than heretofore, and growing boxier in silhouette.

Jewelry will this season form a more important item in the total sales made by the retail of the furnishing trade. The scarifiers are in such quiet colors that a scarf pin will be more than ever desired, and with the increased size of the scarfs, new and larger scarf pins than have heretofore been the vogue will be deemed necessary.

The three-stud edict for full dress wear having gone forth, there should be a rush on shirt studs among those who have buttoned shirts and two buttons for shirt front decoration. A scrupulously correct and fetchingly unostentatious idea in shirt studs for the full dress shirt is an imitation of the old-fashioned wear mother-of-pearl shirt buttons, with the four needle holes and the thread criss-crossed through. These must be mounted, of course, upon spirals of solid gold so that the button or eyelet holes will not be soiled with the tarnish.

Embroidered or severely plain shirt bosoms for evening dresses. Which? It is a matter of taste and depends upon the man. The best seller and most popular brace is that with the silk twisted end, that is, in medium goods, but in the better class the twisted end, or roller end, and also kid predominant.

The newest shades of London scarfings are in peculiar rich tones of gray, and denominated smoke, slate and elephant. The straight up standing collar which does not quite meet in front is the ultra correct collar of full dress.

Another late arrival of the past season in the list of additions to the swells repertoire is the new "off shore" coat or reefing jacket. The material used is a smooth finish white flannel of the finest texture. It is made with skeleton back and wide lapped seams; double breasted, and is as long as one of the covert overcoats of a few seasons back.

Woolrich, which keeps the swallowtail neck who in one's own house, the morning wrapper, which covers everything after one has just arisen, and the dressing coat when one is alone and informal, other coats, so far as indoor wear in one's own home is concerned, have lost their position.

The suede walking glove is by all odds the dressiest glove that a gentleman may wear, but they must fit snugly, though the mahogany tan heavy walking gloves. Once out of shape they lose their distinctive appearance and must be cast aside. As about four wearings is all that is necessary to get the suede gloves into a distorted and wrinkled condition—indeed just when they become easy and comfortable on the hand—their popularity, it is seen, would prove an expensive fad.

The newest kink in neckwear is to incorporate a small quantity of sateen powder within the knot portion of the made up four-in-hand scarf. The odor is by no means agreeable if the minimum proportion is used.

A Complaint. Ho! Ho! Express. This love it is a weary thing, Sleeping or waking, night or noon, My very pipes are out of tune—The merry old songs I used to sing Forsake me now—I can but croon, "This love it is a weary thing, Sleeping or waking, night or noon?" Would but her hand pluck out my strings, And turn these joyless notes to June! For sure to shepherd or to king This love it is a weary thing, Sleeping or waking, night or noon.

HIS GIRDLE CLEARED HIM.

A Young Man Accused of Theft Saved by Some Droll Testimony. A farmer had some wheat stolen a few nights since, and he was so sure that he knew who the thief was that he came into town and secured a warrant for a certain young man living near him, says the Minnesota Times. When the case came up for trial the defendant said he could prove an alibi. In order to do this he had brought in "his girl"—a buxom lass of twenty-two. She took the stand and swore that he sat up with her from 7 in the evening until broad daylight next morning.

"People can be very easily mistaken," observed the plaintiff's lawyer. "I don't care—I know he was there," she replied. "What did you talk about?" "Love," she promptly answered. "What time did the old folks go to bed?" "I gave 'em the wink about 10."

"Sure he was there at midnight, are you?" "Yes, sir." "Why are you sure?" She blushed, looked over to her lover who laughed, and, getting a nod from her, she broke the back of the rocking chair and went over backward kerplunk.

"Then the jury must understand that you were seated on Samuel's knee?" "Object!" put in Samuel's lawyer, and his honor remembered the days of his youth and sustained the objection.

Constipation. If not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm rather than cure the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 28 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1875, and can recommend them to all in need of a safe but effective cathartic."—John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so severe that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully recommend them for the poor, and the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.
