Reduced It Three Feet. The tower of the new city hall, which was designed to extend five feet from the building, has been so changed that it will only extend two feet beyond the line. The architect and contractors do not think that the change will in any way affect the beauty of the building.

The Midnight Bruizer. A new charge was filed against Pete Delaney yesterday morning. When first arrested seven days ago, he was charged with assault. Yesterday the charge was changed to assault with intent to commit bodily injury.

Visiting Marksmen. The Omaha Schutzenverein's first annual tournament begins to-day at noon at their range at Russ's park, and will continue until Sunday noon. Instructing the Registrars. The city superintendent of registration will meet at the council chamber on next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock to receive instructions from the city attorney regarding their duties.

This step has been made necessary by the differences of opinion existing among the registrars. Each man, at the meeting of the board on Tuesday, placed his own interpretation upon the law and, as a result, no two sets of books have been kept after the same system.

At the meeting on Monday the city attorney will settle all disputed questions. BETTER THAN GOLD. One of the lots in Plainfield, in Colorado, for One Dollar.

Don't be a day too late and regret it. Bear in mind we are going to have artesian wells, lakes and a city of 2,500 people in eighteen months, and a lot for one dollar will make you a handsome profit in that time.

We have fine water now and an electric location, but $250,000 in improvements will change the looks of things. We will sell no lots for less than $5 after October 15. If you want one now is the time.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

Dealers in Dirt Meet and Discuss Very Important Matters. The real estate men met Wednesday night in furtherance of a movement to reorganize the Omaha Real Estate exchange.

The installation plan was also discussed at some length. The claim was made that it was ready to be put into effect. Some bitter things were said of certain parties who are charged with dishonest practices in reference to installment schemes. No special votes were given.

Local newspapers were discussed as to their ability to stimulate the real estate market. Opinions of the various newspapers were given. Almost every man present voted that The Bee is the only newspaper in Omaha.

LOST HIS LETTER OF CREDIT. A French Weaver's Misfortunes. Write to the Editor to This City. Streben Scarpain is the name of a weaver of Lyons, France, who arrived in this city Wednesday direct from Paris.

Streben is a mental condition bordering on lunacy, for on his way from Toledo, O., to this city he has his valise containing a letter of credit from the banking house of Rothschild & Bro. representing 130,000 francs.

Some time ago some one in Lyons informed Streben that Omaha was the greatest silk manufacturing town in America; that business was good, salaries enormous, etc., and he had no ties to bind him to his home in Lyons.

After taking in the Eiffel tower and a few other sights in the city, Streben decided to purchase a ticket for Omaha of the Old Dominion steamship company, which sent him from Toledo, O., to Omaha, via the Wabash system.

At one of the little stations in Indiana where the train stopped, Streben stopped off for a sandwich, and while struggling with it, he lost his letter, which he placed inside a paper bag.

Not being able to speak English, and there being no one in the town who could carry his valise to Omaha, Streben was compelled to make his way to Omaha without having communicated with the officials of the road. When he got here he found friends, the company was notified and a search was made.

The letter of credit can not be used by any one but Streben. To Contractors.—We have yet a few miles of good work to let on Gothenburg canal. Write or telegraph to Franklin & Carroll, contractors, Gothenburg, Neb.

THE DAILY TAX LIST. Its Editor Gets Into Conflict With the County Auditor. Editor Vaughn of the Daily Democrat promises to have some fun with the commissioners over their slaughter of his bill for printing the delinquent tax list.

Original bill called for 500 descriptions at 5¢ cents, and 20,817 descriptions at 2¢ cents, for which he wanted the modest sum of $2,029.01. He was allowed $100 on account on a rough estimate that his real claim for this printing would amount to $824, and that $104 due him for printing road notices would make a total of a little more than $100 due him.

When no claims were sent to the hands of County Auditor Evans, that gentleman found that Vaughn's publication included a whole lot of duplications and other errors, and that he was really entitled to pay for only 728 lot descriptions at 5¢ cents and 18,000 road descriptions at 2¢ cents.

Just a little difference of 2,905 descriptions. This cut the amount due the wily advertiser for the tax list publication down to $515.17. The auditor has an alleged publication of road notices, making a total of $649.11. For work actually done the county has overpaid Vaughn about $300, but he has an election proclamation and sundry official matters in hand, the publication of which will balance the account.

But Mr. Vaughn won't let the matter rest that easy. He insists that his original claim of $2,029.01 for the tax list publication is correct and must be paid. He claims that he has been advised by a leading attorney that he can collect the amount allowed by law for the publication.

"That is all, both," was County Attorney Mahoney's opinion on this claim. "The law fixes the maximum rate and the commissioners can take advantage of any lower rate offered."

But Mr. Vaughn has another scheme. He claims that the figures he gave for each insertion, and not for three insertions, as claimed by the commissioners. Mr. Vaughn claims the words, "3 in," meaning three insertions, were inserted in specifications after the bids were received.

"That's a lie," said County Auditor Evans, when he heard this claim. "I wrote those points and figures when the specifications were being made out, and Vaughn knows better than to make any such claim."

"There will be no more fun out of this thing yet," said Commissioner Kieffer, "and I will not discuss one of Kieffer's and I will not discuss one of Kieffer's."

But Mr. Vaughn got the thing through the row over this bill will serve as a notice to the people that the tax list has been published. They would have never found it out any other way.

Vaughn has violated his contract and misrepresented in the matter of circulation. He has had a circulation of 100,000 copies. All the papers I ever saw from his office was the pile of several hundred with this tax list that was dumped in the commissioner's room the other day. I guess I'll ask him to show up his circulation books just for the fun of it."

AMUSEMENTS. Last night one of the most enjoyable concerts given in this city attracted a fair sized audience to the Boyd.

William H. Sherwood was the particular attraction, and his wonderful story over the keys of the piano entranced the auditors and impelled to a number of encores.

Miss E. A. Pennell, with her rich, round and full voice, sang several selections, and sang them most sweetly.

Mr. Edward H. Breit rendered several selections on the violin with excellent effect, his accompaniment being at different times Mrs. Breit and Mr. Sherwood.

The concert was under the management of Mr. F. S. Robbins, who is enthusiastically engaged in the work of bringing celebrated musicians to this city in a series of concerts of which that of last night was the first.

To-day, in the art rooms of Max Meyer, Sixteenth and Farnam streets, Mr. Sherwood will illustrate the most approved method of piano playing and at the same time interpret a number of the finest compositions of several of the most prominent composers.

THE ELIXIR OF LIFE.

What a Prominent New York Doctor has to say upon the subject of which is Attractive, so much Attention. "Do you believe in the Elixir of Life?" I asked of a prominent New York physician recently.

"The doctor thought a moment, carefully, and said: 'Certainly I do, but not in the way in which Doctors Brown, Squard, or Hammond have been describing it. All that has been said in the press of the land for the past months proves that something is needed to assist and sustain the vital and often falling force of life, but Nature never intended the human body for injections and they are always injurious because unnatural.'

"But is it not often done, Doctor?" "I am sorry to say it is. Morphine injections are far too common and they are the great cause of that fearful living death, known as the opium habit. There is but one way to properly reach or sustain the vitality and life, and that is through the stomach, and there is no discovery of modern times, which, if rightly used, does this so thoroughly, keeps back disease and prolongs life, as pure whiskey. Mind you, I say pure whiskey, and I mean in its strictness, the effects of a pure article like Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, are practically those of an elixir of life. It tones up and strengthens the system, without injurious reaction or without the formation of a habit, and it restores life in the aged and restores it to those in middle life. For women especially, who are weak, languid or suffering in any way, it is almost invaluable. All physicians learn these things from their practice, and cannot but be believers in a true and sound elixir of life like this pure article of which I have been speaking."

The Doctor himself seemed to be a good example of the truths he advanced for his strong frame and clear eye showed him to be a man of health, and that his much improved condition, his freshness, truth and common-sense statements.

Very respectfully,
M. J. GRADHAM, F. L. S.

Knights of Pythias. Visiting Omaha, and in attendance to the grand lodge, will find a beautiful selection of business cards and special prices during the grand lodge session. Call and see us.

EDHOLM & AKIN, Cor. 15th and Dodge, opp. P. O. QUESTION OF INCORPORATION. The Pythian Grand Lodge Considering the Subject.

The Knights of Pythias grand lodge met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with a full attendance of delegates.

The special committee appointed to consider and report on the resolution to incorporate the grand lodge, reported in the affirmative. The grand lodge adopted, by the matter of electing a clerk and trustees of the proposed incorporate body and the consideration of business was left over until the election of officers.

It is probable that the grand lodge will not incorporate during this session, owing to the pressure of business demanding the time and attention of the body.

The greater part of the morning was taken up in listening to the reading of the report on matters referred to it. Many of the resolutions were amendments to the constitution and were laid over under the rules. Those which were adopted were slight changes in different sections of the law, which do not materially change its intent as it now stands, but more clearly defines it.

The entire grand lodge was photographed in a group on the east side of the court house at 1:30 p. m. yesterday.

At the afternoon session little business was done aside from the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

John M. McFarlan, of Columbus, to be grand chancellor; M. H. Christy, of Sterling, grand vice chancellor; W. A. Howard, of Kearney, grand prelate; Charles G. Alton, of Alton, grand master of exchequer; H. M. Bushnell, of Lincoln, grand keeper of records and seal; H. E. Weber, of Omaha, grand master at arms; E. W. Hoyt, of Long Pine, grand inner guard; J. H. Green, of Hebron, grand outer guard; John Morrison, of Lincoln, was elected representative to the supreme lodge.

At the evening session, the grand lodge of Nebraska met for the purpose of holding the next session of the grand lodge of Nebraska Knights of Pythias.

The grand lodge has instructed its supreme representative to the supreme lodge to oppose any change of name in the Uniform Rank, as is proposed by that body. These representatives are John B. Wigham, O. P. Dinges, of Lincoln; J. M. McFarlan, of Columbus; John Q. Goss and F. W. Orton, of Bellevue, representing the place.

Daughters of Queen Lizzie. A public installation of officers of the Daughters of Queen Lizzie, a branch of the Knights of Tabor, was held in the Omaha Guards' armory last night. The "daughters," to the number of twenty-five, were present, resplendent in their elaborate regalia, consisting of light dresses, pink capes, crossed on the breast and golden crowns.

The members of the order of Twelve, Evening Star temple, No. 65, Knights of Tabor, were also present in full regalia, and their dignity to the ceremony. The knights were arrayed in their brilliant uniform, consisting of black coat, cap and breeches, and their swords, which were mysterious letters arranged in orderly disorder.

The exercises of installation were conducted by Rev. Moses Dickinson, of St. Louis, the founder of the order, and national chief grand master.

The officers installed were Mrs. W. W. Williams, chief preceptress; Mrs. Ophelia Smith, vice preceptress; Mrs. Eliza Turner, recorder; Mrs. Ida Huff, assistant recorder; Mrs. H. Halsey, secretary.

After the ceremony of installation the Rev. Dickinson addressed the daughters and impressed many valuable precepts upon their minds.

Following this the knights gave an exhibition drill, after which supper was served.

Jeffersonian Scandal. A number of citizens from Jefferson township in the city report a lively social sensation in the neighborhood.

The fact has come to light recently that Fred Coymeyer, a man of sixty, covets his neighbor's wife, and has for several months been having improper relations with her. The story is told in the following manner: One day he came to Omaha, which was quite often, he also had business here, and while in the city on each occasion they took advantage of the opportunity to meet and to enjoy each other's society.

Two or three nights ago Mrs. Coymeyer arrived here from her home in Jefferson township, and she thought was there at the time. A scene occurred which roused the community and every resident is discussing the situation.

Indigestion. It is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:

"I have a complaint and indigestion made me life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate cooking was digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do me any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your medicine, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price 25¢ per bottle, $1.00 per six bottles.
