

THE DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Office: Omaha, Neb. Building, Chicago Office, 210 Broadway Building, New York, N. Y. 111 Fourth Street, Washington, D. C.

CORRESPONDENCE. All communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to the editorial department.

ADVERTISING. All business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company.

The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietors. 210 Broadway Building, Chicago, Ill.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation.

Table with 2 columns: Date and Circulation. Rows include Sunday, Oct. 6, Monday, Oct. 7, Tuesday, Oct. 8, Wednesday, Oct. 9, Thursday, Oct. 10, Friday, Oct. 11, Saturday, Oct. 12.

Average for week ending Oct. 12, 1889, 19,005.

State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. GEORGE B. TSCHEUCK.

George B. Tschuck, being duly sworn, deposes and says that the actual average daily circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the month of October, 1889, was 19,005 copies.

Sworn to before me and subscribed to in my presence this 12th day of October, A. D. 1889. N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

The popular reputation accorded the czar in Berlin probably reminded his majesty of mid-winter weather in St. Petersburg.

The eighty miles of cable, electric motor and horse car lines in Omaha challenge comparison with any city of double its population in the country.

The west will pour between nine and ten million dollars in dividends into the spacious pockets of Boston this month.

The frightful death of a fireman in New York should spur the authorities of every city to drive the man killing fires under ground.

The summary manner in which the English courts have disposed of the directors of the late Comptoir d'Escompte would indicate that bank wrecking is not so profitable there as on this side of the Atlantic.

The statement made by Mr. Erasmus Winan some time since that the United States can manufacture supplies for a hundred million people while we only have sixty million of some consumers, affords serious food for reflection.

DESPITE the warm embraces and joyful weeping of Alexander and William, there is no relaxation of war preparations.

JUDGE GROFF'S decision in the Barr case displays a keen sense of the natural order of things.

AFTER a prolonged controversy it has been decided in Chicago that women are eligible as police officers.

The supply of natural gas at and near Pittsburg seems to have been exhausted.

THE London Times professes to believe that the Inter-American congress will not accomplish a great deal for any of the countries concerned in it.

The supply of natural gas at and near Pittsburg seems to have been exhausted.

THE London Times professes to believe that the Inter-American congress will not accomplish a great deal for any of the countries concerned in it.

DETRACTORS OF OMAHA.

Whenever anybody from the interior of Nebraska registers at a New York, Chicago or Philadelphia hotel nine times out of ten his name will appear on the register as hailing from Omaha.

In marked contrast with this acknowledged pride in the metropolis of their own state, many Nebraskans and notably the papers published in the interior towns and cities of Nebraska take special pains to disparage Omaha to every turn.

As a matter of fact there is not a city in America of equal population better policed, more orderly and less immoral than this city is to-day.

But the detractors of Omaha are not content merely with stabs about Omaha's alleged lawlessness and immorality.

As sentiment rules the world, it is felt to be of very great importance that the proposed World's fair of 1892, to commemorate the discovery of America by Columbus, shall have some distinct and original attraction.

But a really great original idea is still wanting. There is certainly an opportunity for some one to make fame and perhaps fortune.

WHEREIN WE ARE GREAT. Edwin Arnold, the distinguished English poet and editor, now visiting in this country, is one of those liberal, broad-minded and thoroughly friendly Englishmen whose opinions and suggestions all intelligent Americans will respect.

AMERICAN progress and development in mechanical arts admits of no competitor. In that line as in all others, energy and ingenuity have placed us far in advance of all other nations.

General Vandervoort is holding a surprise in store for us. He has picked out a judge and the district court in the lady's apartment according to the standard of the roughest.

THE best possible chances of republican success will lie in the making of an administration satisfactory to the country.

THE Omaha Bee makes an intelligent and able plea for the development of the arid region of the west by the proposed system of storage reservoirs.

NEBRASKA, which makes it appear a wild country of the Oscar Wilde sort.

THE International Funeral Director's Association will hold its next convention in Omaha.

ONE morning the field without a struggle. One morning this week, before it was fairly light, we met an individual of the genus nephitis just at our doorstep.

STATE HIS COAT IN CLOTHES. Somebody broke into the residence of K.

other, if indeed she is not in advance of every other. And there is a steady growth and improvement from year to year, a constant reaching out to higher attainment and loftier achievement.

As to supplying the world with a galaxy of great names in learning and literature there need be no anxiety. That we shall do in time.

AN ORIGINAL IDEA WANTED. The Eiffel tower is an original and imposing feature of the Paris exposition.

THREE million acres of Indian land, valued at fifty million dollars, will be added to the public domain in Minnesota this year.

THE market for tips on the races has ruled strong for some months, but the outlook for the future is rather dreary.

THE Town Was Theirs. Sir Knights, you are Free and Accepted Masons—Free to paint the town, and Accepted as bail for each other.

THE Grip of the Oil Octopus. Most of the trusts are weakening; but the Standard Oil monopoly tightens its grip and promises to stay with us till the crack of doom.

ABOUT A STANDOFF. St. Louis is hopeful that Jay Gould will contribute to her fair fund. It is not unlikely that Jay will give as much to St. Louis as to New York.

A JOLLY RUN OLD PARTY. A pauper mackerel on a free run platform—that is the picture of the democratic party in the state of New York as drawn by its own hand.

BELLICIOUS MAJOR JONES. There is one thing the St. Louis Republic would do well to remember when it comes to Texas. The democrats down this way believe the war is over—they fought in it.

MAKE WAY FOR MILLS. Mills is requested for the Hon. Roger Q. Mills of Texas. Make way, there, gentlemen, if you please, for Mr. Mills.

BONLANGER'S LATEST MANIFESTO. Great heavens! It is announced that Bonlangier will move on the army to follow him an descent upon Paris like Alaric of old.

ALL 'EMPLOYEES' PASSES. St. Peter (to applicant at the gate)—Hold on, I say. You can't come in here. Applicant—Can't, eh? Well, I guess I can. I'm a delegate of the Nebraska state republican convention.

WILLIAM WALDORF'S ENTHUSIASM. Mr. W. Waldorf of New York, is reported to have said at a dinner party given by himself to a carefully selected crowd of gentlemen that, if necessary, he would pay for a $20,000 world's fair in that city all by himself rather than see it elsewhere.

THE ONLY CERTAIN ROAD TO VICTORY. The best possible chances of republican success will lie in the making of an administration satisfactory to the country.

STANDING IN THE RAIN. He stood upon the corner of the busiest street in town.

rejected a bill for beer furnished the inmates of a lunatic asylum for the reason that they did not participate in the bath.

Any attempt to raise the railroad convahed will be vigorously resisted. It must be preserved as a monument to broken pledges and misappreciated municipal treasure.

A DETROIT miss demands $5,000 damages for the painful impressions of a kiss imprinted on the vestibule of her pie trap.

The literary genius who edits the Omaha Double-Header has just discovered that Belford, Clarke & Co. have failed, and in the result the excitement he has written a half column leader upon the failure of this book concern.

A local contemporary recently discussed "Woman as a Mystery." The writer evidently did not grasp the subject in the right way, as he was too modest to solve the problem with his strong right arm.

Open and Above Board. Connection will not cut down her orchards, nor will she have to hide behind the barn when she wants a drink of cider.

THE Grip of the Oil Octopus. Most of the trusts are weakening; but the Standard Oil monopoly tightens its grip and promises to stay with us till the crack of doom.

ABOUT A STANDOFF. St. Louis is hopeful that Jay Gould will contribute to her fair fund. It is not unlikely that Jay will give as much to St. Louis as to New York.

A JOLLY RUN OLD PARTY. A pauper mackerel on a free run platform—that is the picture of the democratic party in the state of New York as drawn by its own hand.

BELLICIOUS MAJOR JONES. There is one thing the St. Louis Republic would do well to remember when it comes to Texas. The democrats down this way believe the war is over—they fought in it.

MAKE WAY FOR MILLS. Mills is requested for the Hon. Roger Q. Mills of Texas. Make way, there, gentlemen, if you please, for Mr. Mills.

BONLANGER'S LATEST MANIFESTO. Great heavens! It is announced that Bonlangier will move on the army to follow him an descent upon Paris like Alaric of old.

ALL 'EMPLOYEES' PASSES. St. Peter (to applicant at the gate)—Hold on, I say. You can't come in here. Applicant—Can't, eh? Well, I guess I can. I'm a delegate of the Nebraska state republican convention.

WILLIAM WALDORF'S ENTHUSIASM. Mr. W. Waldorf of New York, is reported to have said at a dinner party given by himself to a carefully selected crowd of gentlemen that, if necessary, he would pay for a $20,000 world's fair in that city all by himself rather than see it elsewhere.

THE ONLY CERTAIN ROAD TO VICTORY. The best possible chances of republican success will lie in the making of an administration satisfactory to the country.

STANDING IN THE RAIN. He stood upon the corner of the busiest street in town.

rejected a bill for beer furnished the inmates of a lunatic asylum for the reason that they did not participate in the bath.

Any attempt to raise the railroad convahed will be vigorously resisted. It must be preserved as a monument to broken pledges and misappreciated municipal treasure.

A DETROIT miss demands $5,000 damages for the painful impressions of a kiss imprinted on the vestibule of her pie trap.

The literary genius who edits the Omaha Double-Header has just discovered that Belford, Clarke & Co. have failed, and in the result the excitement he has written a half column leader upon the failure of this book concern.

A local contemporary recently discussed "Woman as a Mystery." The writer evidently did not grasp the subject in the right way, as he was too modest to solve the problem with his strong right arm.

Open and Above Board. Connection will not cut down her orchards, nor will she have to hide behind the barn when she wants a drink of cider.

THE Grip of the Oil Octopus. Most of the trusts are weakening; but the Standard Oil monopoly tightens its grip and promises to stay with us till the crack of doom.

ABOUT A STANDOFF. St. Louis is hopeful that Jay Gould will contribute to her fair fund. It is not unlikely that Jay will give as much to St. Louis as to New York.

A JOLLY RUN OLD PARTY. A pauper mackerel on a free run platform—that is the picture of the democratic party in the state of New York as drawn by its own hand.

BELLICIOUS MAJOR JONES. There is one thing the St. Louis Republic would do well to remember when it comes to Texas. The democrats down this way believe the war is over—they fought in it.

MAKE WAY FOR MILLS. Mills is requested for the Hon. Roger Q. Mills of Texas. Make way, there, gentlemen, if you please, for Mr. Mills.

BONLANGER'S LATEST MANIFESTO. Great heavens! It is announced that Bonlangier will move on the army to follow him an descent upon Paris like Alaric of old.

ALL 'EMPLOYEES' PASSES. St. Peter (to applicant at the gate)—Hold on, I say. You can't come in here. Applicant—Can't, eh? Well, I guess I can. I'm a delegate of the Nebraska state republican convention.

WILLIAM WALDORF'S ENTHUSIASM. Mr. W. Waldorf of New York, is reported to have said at a dinner party given by himself to a carefully selected crowd of gentlemen that, if necessary, he would pay for a $20,000 world's fair in that city all by himself rather than see it elsewhere.

THE ONLY CERTAIN ROAD TO VICTORY. The best possible chances of republican success will lie in the making of an administration satisfactory to the country.

STANDING IN THE RAIN. He stood upon the corner of the busiest street in town.

STATE CONVENTION ECHOES.

The Wahoo Wasp deeply regrets the defeat of Judge Reese, and says that while Judge Norval may be justly called a man "the fact that he was backed by the combined railroad interests of the state should be sufficient to lead every thinking man to ponder well the gist of public affairs.

The New York Times analysis of the late state gathering as a "hoodoo" convention, and one of the wildest and wooliest ever held in the east. It was a legitimate sequence to the corrupting and discreditable means resorted to by the railroad crowd.

The Norfolk News, while it believes the convention blundered in not renominate Judge Reese, is also of the opinion that "it was Judge Norval's misfortune rather than principle that drew the railroad support to him.

The Hastings Nebraskan, after severely arraigning the "fanatical anti-railroad faction in Nebraska politics," remarks: "It may be true, and perhaps is, that the influence of the railroads was exerted to secure the nomination of Judge Norval, but it by no means follows that the justice upon the bench will be Governor Ross."

The Grand Island Independent has reached the conclusion that the whole convention system is rotten and "always gives the victory to the corporations over the peoples' interests."

According to the Kearney enterprise the "state convention in Nebraska this fall will not be an inspiring spectacle. The masses of the party believed in the honesty and capacity of Judge Reese. They expected to see him re-elected without trouble.

The Kearney Hub says it "hoped to see Judge Reese nominated. That he was defeated by the railroad influence appears to be certain. That the railroad influence was re-inforced by the anti-prohibition crowd is evident.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

The Republican Party of Nebraska has been organized. It is a powerful and efficient organization for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

M. Dickson, of Saunders county, while he was at Morse sparking the widow and stole two new suits of clothes he had purchased for the climate.

A Queer Inscription. Mr. LeCombe told us of a queer inscription he saw in his rounds written on an emigrant's wagon. It read: "Farewell to Kansas and Missouri. We bid you both adieu. We'll emigrate to hell some day, but never back to you."

Has More Just Like It. This is a town, and not a hog pasture. If this local don't have the desired effect we have several more just as sickening.

FOR THE FUTURE. Turn, turn from the cave's dark hollow look on the face of a violent sun at mid-day. Though thin eyes be dazzled in the glory, the man that is yet to be!

Where the streams of the Orient roll out through their gates of gold. When the dullest mountain summits were shrines of the faiths of old.

Peace, peace on the earth forever, and we'll forgotten so long. But the air that breathes is holy because of our sighs and song.

They will build their new romance, new dreams of a world to be, Conserving their nation from the end of the world we see.

PHELPS COUNTY REPUBLICANS. They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. Horace Van, Oct. 12, Special to THE BEE.—An independent republican mass convention met at Phelps Center Wednesday, October 9, which was the largest political convention ever held in Phelps county.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. The committee on resolutions, consisting of P. O. Hedlund, S. M. Millard, J. C. Stanley, John Urbom, and M. G. Bradley, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. We, the people of Phelps county, in mass convention assembled this 9th day of October, the majority of us having been and are members of the republican party.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. We fully recognize the importance and value of party organization, that it is a powerful and efficient machine for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. We fully recognize the importance and value of party organization, that it is a powerful and efficient machine for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. We fully recognize the importance and value of party organization, that it is a powerful and efficient machine for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. We fully recognize the importance and value of party organization, that it is a powerful and efficient machine for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.

They Are in Revolt Against Bossism and Railroad Rule. We fully recognize the importance and value of party organization, that it is a powerful and efficient machine for the accomplishment of good ends and reforms in a republican form of government.