

THE CITY.

Mr. George D. Edson, aged seventy, died last evening of heart failure. Funeral notice later.

L. A. Garner, superintendent of the American Express company, has moved into his new residence at 2527 California street.

Ralph Gaylord and C. L. Powell have been mentioned as probable candidates for the vacancy in the school board, caused by the resignation of D. V. Sholes.

The next regular meeting of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will be held at No. 503 South Twenty-fifth avenue, Saturday, October 26. Members outside of the chapter are invited to be present and hear the report of the G. C. chapter.

James Graham, a military convict at Fort Omaha awaiting a five-year sentence in the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, escaped from his guards yesterday, came down town, got full and was captured. He was taken back last night.

All arrangements have been made to commence grading Twenty-seventh street from Jackson south to Leavenworth. The greatest cut will be ten feet, and this will be at the corner southwest of the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church.

Fred Rice, the clerk at the Globe hotel, was arrested last night charged with selling liquor on Sunday. A young countryman and a girl stopping at the hotel on Sunday wanted a bottle of beer, which Rice got for them, charging them $2 for it. He was locked up.

Norton, Schoolcraft; J. E. Shaw, Joliet; J. Barry and sister, Bancroft.

A Very Tough Young Man. James Martin, a very tough young man, was fined $500 and costs for resisting an officer yesterday afternoon. Policeman Hinchey had a warrant for Martin's arrest, and when he tried to serve it the latter promptly cut his head open with a club. In default of payment he was sent to jail.

Skinner. City Engineer Tillson has returned from his trip to Denver and other Colorado points. "Denver," says Mr. Tillson, "is quite a city, but I don't like it. They go too much on the gouge principle out there. The burden of the conversation on the streets and at the hotels is plans for 'skinning' someone. They really do not seem to have any plans for hard, honest, legitimate work."

New Sidewalks. Sidewalks on the following streets must be laid before October 30, otherwise they will be laid by the city and the cost will be assessed against the abutting property: North and South Miami, between Twenty-second and Twenty-fourth streets. Between Forty-third and Forty-fourth streets. North side of Cass between Fifteenth and Sixteenth, sixteen feet wide.

Couldn't Tell. The committee of Orchard Hill citizens appointed to confer with the street railway company with reference to a proposed extension of the motor line to Orchard Hill on Lowe avenue, met with very little satisfaction. It was simply informed that the company had such a plan in prospect but could not tell whether the work would be done this year or next year, or when.

Second Hand License. Attorney R. A. L. Dick, who has a power of attorney from his client, Frank O'Brien, opened out the saloon over which there has been so much controversy at Sixteenth and Cass streets, yesterday morning, despite the order of the license commission. Chief Justice ordered the place closed on the ground that it was being conducted without a license and the matter was then taken to the district court. The case is to determine whether a saloon may be run on a second hand license.

Two Collisions. A collision between cable car No. 3 and motor car No. 8 occurred at Sixteenth and Dodge at noon. The passengers on both trains were badly frightened, but the only damage done was the destruction of the motor guard and the severing of the upright switch by which the current is turned on. A cable train on the Harney street line collided with a number seven owned by G. S. Macks at the Sixteenth street crossing yesterday morning, doing light damage.

Orphanage Benefactors. The Sisters of Mercy have sent the following for publication: The Sisters of Mercy have received a great deal of kindness in behalf of the orphanage during the last week, and desire to thank their generous donors. Miss Casey, an employee of S. P. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Carey of the Deane house, Messrs. Hays & Stone and several others have distinguished themselves by their courteous and generous charity towards the orphanage of St. Mary's convent, Fifteenth and Cassel streets.

Providence With Them. Mayor Broatch is being surfed with literature of the proposed world's fair and where it shall be held. Having expressed himself as favoring New York, most of the stuff comes from that city. Yesterday morning he received a document containing a list of strong resolutions adopted by citizens of Providence, to which a New York paper adds: "When Providence is with us, who can be against us?" The Rhode Island people declare, however, that Chicago is their second choice.

MURDERED HER BABE.

The Crime For Which Annie Williams Will Be Arraigned To-Day.

Annie Williams, a comely young domestic of about twenty-three years of age, is in trouble, and to-day will be arraigned on the charge of wilful murder. Annie works for a living, and like many other poor girls, is the victim of man's duplicity. About a year ago she met George Travers, a painter, and in a short time the pair were very intimate. But, as has been the case too often, Annie loved not wisely, but too well. In a short time it was plain to be seen that Annie had lost her reputation, and in a short time would become a mother. As soon as this state of facts was ascertained, Travers fled and is now in Minnesota.

About September 1 the girl was working for Mr. Brown, a grocer, at Twenty-seventh and Corn streets. With them the child was born. It came into the world as perfect as any babe, and would have doubtless lived, had not Annie in her eagerness to conceal her shame strangled it and throw it down the water closet. But, as is generally the case, women refuse to be fooled in such matters, and a sort of female investigating committee began probing the matter. After they had satisfied themselves that the woman had become a mother and had attempted to conceal the child they called in Detective Vaughn and he arrested her. Garbage Master Goldsmith was sent to examine the vault, and in a short time he discovered the infant's body and took it to the coroner's office.

The girl, when confronted with the facts, broke down and confessed all. She will be arraigned to-day on the charge of wilful murder.

No inquest will be held, the remains being so horribly decomposed that such action is impossible.

IF FELL ACROSS THE TRACK.

A Woodman Lined Oil Mill Wall Takes a Tumble.

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning part of the south wall of the store room of the Lincoln street mill, between the Lincoln and Nicholas streets, fell with a tremendous crash, crushing the archway over the car tracks, smashing a couple of freight cars and then burying them in a mass of debris and flax seed. The weight of the mass falling on the adjoining structure crushed the walls of that building.

One of the workmen, named Jack Williams, was standing in front of the doorway under the arch when the weight fell and was knocked back through the doorway and stood.

His comrades thought he was killed but he soon regained consciousness and it was discovered that his neck was not broken. A report of the crash was so great that people living in the vicinity thought the boiler had exploded, and in a short time a large crowd gathered about the scene.

The section of the walls which fell was forty feet wide and reached to the roof. It was thought they were weak to answer the purpose for which they were built, because, a few years ago, several feet of the wall just west of the present gap collapsed.

There has been an ugly crack in the wall for some time, but no attention had been paid to it. A similar crack is also in the building on the north side.

It will cost about $500 to repair the breach. The arch can be reconstructed for $100. Not over $10 worth of flaxseed will be spoiled. It is thought that $700 will put everything in shape again.

Chief Woodman, the proprietor, was considerably worked up over the accident. The fire chief and superintendent of buildings were called to superintend the walls, and the architect of the mill had been called in to rebuild, owing to the danger of overhanging bricks. They say that there was too much mortar in the walls, which caused too strong a pressure against the wall.

PAXTON HOTEL, OMAHA—Special attention to commercial men. Finest and largest hotel in the west. Kittredge & Bruhnard, proprietors.

BREAKING UP THE GANG.

More Arrests Expected in Connection With the City Hotel Robberies.

On Saturday night Sergeant Ormsby and Special Officer Dempsey arrested one Harry Fielder, charged with using loud and profane language. Yesterday afternoon he was fined $3 and costs for the offense.

Later developments show that in all probability Fielder will be implicated with the chop house gang of burglars, a letter having been found on the person of Ed Darlington, one of the crew, showing that he is in collusion with the gang.

Regarding these robberies the police have found that some of the goods stolen by Darlington and his pal at the City hotel had been sold at St. Joseph, Mo., and they are now on their way here.

It is expected that several more arrests will follow in a few days. Shatzman has made a full confession, and has implicated a number of those who are now engaged in waiting on patrons of Omaha chop houses.

A WIFE AVENGED.

Dr. Kuhlman Assails a Money Lender in Court.

"You're the man who assaulted my wife, are you?" inquired Dr. Kuhlman, who walked hurriedly into the police court yesterday noon.

"No, sir; I did not assault the lady," replied Stratton, of the firm of Wilson & Stratton.

"You're a liar," shouted the physician, as he struck Stratton on the left cheek, knocking him to the floor.

It did not get by the timely interference of Sergeant DeGraves, Kuhlman would have struck Stratton again.

Judge Berkus was an eye-witness and thundered an order for the court officer to arrest the doctor.

Chief Keyser did his duty and Kuhlman stood up before his honor and listened to the musical assessment of $17.50. He settled.

"How much will it cost for another punch, judge?" asked the enraged physician.

"One hundred dollars," replied the court. "I'm done for the present, then," said the doctor, and he turned for a second time to the trouble arose over a mortgaged horse and buggy. Wilson & Stratton are money lenders. Kuhlman's wife it seems had rented the horse and buggy from Charles Jensen and took, as security for the rent, a mortgage on the horse and buggy.

According to her story, Stratton threw her arms around Jensen, and for some time, beat him on her arms and body. It is asserted also that he used language which was ungentlemanly. Mrs. Kuhlman caused his arrest for assault, and that is how Stratton happened to be in the court room.

Stratton was fined $12.50.

CURED BY CUTICURA.

COVERED WITH SORES. BOY ONE YEAR AND A HALF OLD. FACE AND BODY IN A TERRIBLE CONDITION, BEING COVERED WITH SORES, SULPHUR SPRINGS FAIL. CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDY.

THAVE used your CUTICURA REMEDIES in two cases where it proved to be successful. The first was in the case of a boy a year and a half old. His face and body were in a terrible condition, the former being completely covered with sores. I took him to the Massena Sulphur Springs, but he did not improve any. I was then advised to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES, which I did. He took one and one-half bottles of CUTICURA REMEDY, when his skin was as smooth as could be, and is today. I used your CUTICURA on his sores and the CUTICURA SOAP in washing him. He is now five years of age and all right. The other case was a disease of the scalp, which was cured by washing with the CUTICURA SOAP and applying the CUTICURA REMEDY. I have never used any other remedy where I have had such a rapid and complete cure. It is surprising how rapidly a child will improve under their treatment. It is the best for any disease of the skin as being the best in the world. This is my experience, and I am ready to stand by my statement. JOHN H. BERO, American House, Hogsback, N. Y.

He could not stand a Dose of Omaha Gas. His name was John Adams. He was a resident of Pittsburg. He retired Monday night at the Casey. He had been reared, lived, fattened and flourished in an atmosphere of gas, as it is supposed all Pittsburgers do.

He couldn't get along without the vapor, and accordingly took a dose of it last night after he retired.

He closed the door, window and transom of his room and then took his gas.

Early yesterday morning the fact that the illuminating and killing vapor was going to waste attracted the attention of the clerk.

The waste was taken to the street. The door was broken in. The Pittsburg lay upon the bed under the influence of a heavy dose of gas than he had ever taken before.

It required only an hour to pump him and restore him to the land of the living.

He then had his grip and other things and left for parts unknown at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

Death of Dr. Hostetter. Dr. P. Hostetter, a well-known physician of this city, died at his late residence at 974 North Twenty-fourth street, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning from cancer of the stomach.

He was born at Elm Creek, Somerset county, Pa., July 19, 1839. He graduated from the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons February 23, 1858. He has been a resident of Omaha for the past six years. He leaves a family of four children. He was a member of the Masons and the A. O. U. W. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 8 o'clock from the residence, 974 North Twenty-fourth street, for interment. The services will be conducted by the A. O. U. W.

Catarrh

IS a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mill, N. G.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emancipated from less of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

We solicit the most obstinate cases—those who have tried every other remedy and lost all hope of recovery. Correspond with us and let us put you in possession of evidence that convinces the most skeptical. Mark what we say. In the end you MUST use our "MAGIC REMEDY" before you can be permanently cured. It is the most heroic blood purifier ever known. Write for particulars. All letters confidential.

Be sure you are getting the Cook Remedy
