

THE VALUE OF A CHAPERON.

Young Girls Should Be Guided By Older Heads.

TRUE RULES OF ETIQUETTE.

They Are Founded on Good Sense and Should Not Be Disregarded By the Independent American Maiden.

Girls' Chaperons.

The first, best, and most-to-be-desired chaperon for any young girl must assuredly be the mother, she who has brooded over her fledgling when a baby with tender devotion, who has watched her sweet bud of promise mature, who has from year to year assisted the development of the being confided to her care.

THE KINDOM OF THE LORD

Another Prelate's Jurisdiction Established in Nebraska.

A SECOND PEOPLE'S CHURCH.

The Efforts Now Being Made to Extend the Gospel so as to Bring It to the Doors of the Multitude.

The Diocese Divided.

Through the efforts of Chancellor J. M. Woolworth, of Omaha, at the Episcopal convention in New York city the diocese of Nebraska has been divided, and hereafter there will be two dioceses in the state.

The People's Church.

The entire seating capacity of Boyd's opera house was occupied last evening at the evening service of the People's church, of which Rev. Charles W. Savidge is pastor.

Lectures to Working People.

Commencing Sunday next Rev. Dr. Lamar of the First Baptist church will commence a series of Sunday afternoon popular lectures to the undenominational working people of Omaha.

A Grand Temple.

The members of the First Baptist church hope soon to consummate arrangements for the erection of a grand five-story temple on their lot on Fifteenth and Davenport streets.

Handel and Oratorio.

The Rev. William Burnett, so long and well known as the pastor of the Berkeley Street Congregational church in Boston, will give at the First Congregational church on Sunday evening a lecture on "Handel and Oratorio," and the influence of these great religious compositions on the mind and sentiment of the christian people of England and America.

Manhood Restored.

Dr. J. M. Reeves, of New York city, has discovered a simple means of restoring manhood to those who have lost it by the use of his "Manhood Restorer."

TENDS TOWARD FEDERATION

The Forthcoming Labor Convention to be Held in December.

THE RESULT OF THE SEASON.

How Tradesmen Have Been Employed and the Prospects of the Season When Open Work is Suspended.

The Struggle for Chief.

The principle topic now being discussed at the national meeting of brotherhood engineers in Denver is a federation of all labor unions under certain restrictions. The delegates are divided on the subject, and some lively discussions have taken place.

Early Indian Evangelization.

Before Nebraska and Kansas were organized into territories in 1854, treaties were made with several Indian tribes, in which these pre-occupants of the soil ceded their rights to the United States, excepting the several reservations to which they were to be removed and confined.

Federation of Labor.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has issued his annual circular. The report of the convention held in London December 10. The basis of representation will be as follows:

Manhood Restored.

Dr. J. M. Reeves, of New York city, has discovered a simple means of restoring manhood to those who have lost it by the use of his "Manhood Restorer."
