Arrested for Embezzlement.

N. L. Angus, the local agent for the Building Association of Minneapolis, was arrested by Sergeant Ormsby yesterday, charged with embezzlement. The complaint was sworn out by Morris Stein, who claims that on August 15 Angus obtained of him about $43 in payment for a certificate of stock in the association. Angus issued the certificate which, when presented to the office at Minneapolis, proved worthless, having been issued by Angus himself.

Short-Lived Pleasure.

Death is likely to be the cause of H. H. Wandell's not being prosecuted.

He was arrested—the last time about three weeks ago—on the charge of obtaining an insurance premium under false pretenses. He has not yet had a preliminary hearing. From time to time the case has been postponed on account of the sickness of the defendant.

Wandell is in the county jail and is suffering from consumption. It is said that he is liable to die before his case is disposed of.

The case is similar to that of the late Will N. King, who occupied the same apartments in which Wandell is now quartered.

The Retailers' Association.

Monday evening the Omaha local branch of the Nebraska State Business Men's association held a very interesting meeting. Quite a lively discussion took place over the question of peddlers and their encroachments on different lines of business; also the advisability of petitioning the city council to raise their license to a larger amount. This association now numbers 200 business men, comprising all classes of the retail trade. They are gaining strength rapidly and will be heard from in the future. The state organization, of which this is a branch, extends throughout the state, and will soon accomplish much good in procuring the passage of such laws as will protect the retailer in his legitimate trade. There will be a special meeting next Monday evening at 8 o'clock to look over the political field.

CLEARING HOUSE.

The Controversy as to Closing on Election Day.

The question under discussion among the directors of the Bank of Commerce and other people as to whether 10 o'clock was not a better hour for opening than 9 o'clock, and what should be done about closing their doors on election day is attracting considerable attention.

The first proposition promises to develop into an exciting contest, and there seems to be a wide diversity of opinion as to what course should be pursued.

In both instances the test appears to depend upon the strength and influence of the Omaha National against all the other banking institutions.

Joseph H. Millard and William Wallace first advocated the advisability of making 10 o'clock the opening hour.

The cashiers and tellers of every national bank in town are with them, but, it is said, Presidents Murphy, Kountze, Yates, Hamilton oppose the scheme. These control the situation.

However, sooner or later the change will be made. In all large cities 10 o'clock is the time at which banks open for the transaction of business.

Conceding the fact that the wishes of a majority of the presidents must prevail, much depends upon the license board which is composed of Luther Drake, Fred Davis and Milt Barlow.

Whether or not the banks will close on election day is a point yet to be solved.

Judge Lake's advice has been solicited, and he says that in the eyes of the law, that the day with reference to bank busines must be considered the same as Sunday.

At the Nebraska national, however, the reporter was shown a copy of the law, with margin notes make by Judge Savage, stating that the act had been declared unconstitutional.

The others evince a disposition to keep open, and while they agree that paper falling due on that day cannot go to protest, there is nothing to prevent them receiving deposits and cashing checks.

Although many remedies are pushed into the market by spicy advertisements Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup takes the lead and druggists sell more than ever before. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. Crow—"Chile, buy a bottle de Salvation Oil, it cure your rheumatis sart'in." 25 cents.

NOT A KNIGHT OF THE BATH.

Why Joe Brown Was Fined $32.50 in the Police Court.

It cost Joe Brown $32.50 in the police court because he refused to allow his wife to take a bath.

Brown conducts a little grocery store near the corner of Tenth and Center streets. His wife is in a delicate condition and Brown has his own idea of how she should treat herself. Brown's mother-in-law, Mrs. Alma Newman, called Monday to see her daughter. She recommended that she take hot baths regularly and also drink a certain kind of soup. Brown did not object to the soup, but he vowed that his wife should not enter the bath tub. The mother-in-law declared that she should, and while she awaited Brown's departure, he took his axe and chopped out the bottom of the bath tub. Then he seized a chunk of iron and pounded Mrs. Newman over the back and arm until both were black and blue.

You cannot accomplish any work or business unless you feel well. If you feel used up—tired out—take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla. It will give you health, strength and vitality.

LARGEST IN THE WORLD.

A $1,000,000 Tannery to be Built in Omaha Soon.

One of the largest tanneries in the world is to be built in Omaha. For some time back the deal has been pending. J. W. Higginbottom, representing an English syndicate of capitalists, has been instrumental in keeping the project on foot. He has labored untiringly and secretly among the local capitalists for the past week, and has at last enlisted sufficient support to carry out arrangements for the establishment of a tannery here involving an outlay of $1,000,000. This is the amount that is to be actually invested in the enterprise.

How to Cure a Cold.

Many years constant use and the experience of thousands of persons of all ages, has fully demonstrated that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts in perfect harmony with nature, relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough tenacious mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and restores the system to a strong and healthy condition.

Wants Her Child Again.

Mrs. Mary Emily Nicholson, a middle-aged woman, sat out through the morning session of police court in tears.

Six years ago, through poverty, the woman was compelled to part with her only child, Dora, who is now thirteen years of age. A sister of Mrs. Nicholson took her to raise. The sister now lives at Genoa, Nance county, in this state. At certain intervals, Mrs. Nicholson, who has been married a second time, goes almost insane over the loss of her child. Her relations deem it unsafe to have the daughter return to her mother under the existing domestic surroundings.

Taken Unawares.

Unsuspected causes for malaria exist everywhere. A sunken lot partly filled with water in the vicinity of your abode, a new location upon land filled in, but formerly overflowed or marshy, and causes far more occult than these produce the atmospheric miasmata which constitute the germs, that, if inhaled, ripen into fever and ague and congenital maladies. A person taken unawares with a malarial complaint should, as soon as it declares itself, seek aid from the safe, non-disappointing, cordial medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has for over a third of a century, and in every quarter of the globe, relieved the malaria-stricken, and neutralized miasma in air and water. The Bitters imparts activity to the stomach, bowels and liver; repels incipient rheumatism, and remedies inaction of the kidneys and bladder. Appetite and sleep are improved, and the infirmities of age mitigated by its use.

Crazed by Grief.

Mrs. Peterson, who lives at Fourteenth and Nicholas streets, lost two children about six months ago and since that time has had spells of insanity. At times she pulls her hair out by the handfulls and screams at the top of her voice. The city and county physicians have been notified, and if they conclude that it is necessary she will be taken before the commissioners on insanity for examination.

Get rid of that tired feeling as quick as possible. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives strength, a good appetite, and health.

Cheating Uncle Sam.

"Why did not non-taxed people pay the expenses?"

Collector Peters says that, since he took charge of the office, his deputies have collected about $8,000 of revenue as taxes overlooked by his predecessor, Calhoun. He says they discovered one Omaha man whose indebtness to the government amounted to $1,000.

All over the district, tobacco manufacturers, brewers and dealers in distilled liquors have been found doing business without the necessary license, and when caught, have gladly paid not only the uncollected fees, but an additional 50 per cent fine required by law.

Concerns, he claims, which should be visited at least once every month never saw a deputy collector while Calhoun held the office. Some of the violators were not aware of the fact that they had to pay a license; and others neglected to do so because they were not disturbed. Peterson keeps his men on the go all the time, and the latter is doing good work. The extra taxes already collected will more than pay the running expenses of the office for a year.

The Opelt hotel, as now conducted, is not surpassed by any hotel in the city as a convenient, comfortable place for transient guests. Steam heat throughout. Table equal to the best two dollars per day.

J. Q. HAMILTON, Proprietor.

Announcements.

The repertoire of the Emma Abbott Grand Opera company which commences its engagement at the Boyd this evening and continues during the remainder of the week, presents a series of artistic novelties that must challenge public attention from the outset. Out of the repertoire of five operas four have never been given here. First among these is "The Rose of Castile," the opera of the opening night, one of the happiest in character, brightest in story and most brilliant in music that has ever been put upon the operatic stage. The second, which is now produced for the first time, is "Norma," Bellini's grand heroic opera. The third is the most exquisite of all love lyrics—the most sublime dream of love and tragedy that was ever conceived—"Romeo and Juliet," set by the renowned French composer Gounod, in the most beautiful gems of music. The fourth of the novelties is of an opposite nature, jolly and romantic, but rich in song, "The Yeoman of the Guard." This is Gilbert and Sullivan's latest opera, and was one of the reigning New York successes last season. On Thursday evening the old-time favorite, "The Bohemian Girl," will be produced. Seats for the entire engagement are now on sale.

PAXTON HOTEL, OMAHA—Special attention to commercial men. Finest and largest hotel in the west. Kittredge & Brainard, proprietors.

A People's Church Choir.

A choir of one hundred voices, with orchestra, for the People's church, at Boyd's opera house, is now being organized for regular and permanent service. The members will be asked to sing regularly for a term of not less than three months. Mr. Franklin S. Smith, choir director, will undertake, for the People's church, to give the choir, in consideration of their services, a complete course of instruction in the rudiments of vocal music, chorus drill, voice culture, declamation, etc. The course will comprise one lesson each week through the term of three months. These lessons will be independent of the regular weekly choir rehearsals. The date of first meeting will be announced later. Whether you are an accomplished singer or not, please be present at the opera house next Sunday at 10 o'clock, and send your full name and address to Franklin S. Smith, 1119 Georgia avenue.
