

RETURNS FROM NEBRASKA.

Republican State Ticket Elected By Twenty Thousand Majority.

A FALLING OFF IN THE VOTE.

Laws Elected to Congress in the Second District—County Candidates Badly Scratched and Returns Come in Slowly.

The Vote in the State.

The weather was fair all over Nebraska yesterday. Returns indicate about a two-thirds vote as compared with the election of 1888. The estimated republican majority in the state will range from 18,000 to 20,000 for supreme judge, and from 3,000 to 4,000 for the republican candidate for congress in the second district. The returns up to the hour of going to press will be found below.

Adams County.

HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The returns from Adams come in very slow. Hastings vote will be 1,300, with a republican plurality of nearly 400. The few returns now in foretell that Adams county will give a good republican plurality.

Sarpy.

PAPILLON, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Sarpy county polls a light vote. Returns from the democratic precincts give Davis 100 majority.

Washington.

BLAIR, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It is impossible to get the complete returns, as the tickets are so badly mixed up. The indications are that Rathman for clerk, Harriman for sheriff and Hanning for judge, all democrats, are elected. The balance state ticket is republican. In this city there are republicans lead two to one.

Buffalo.

KEARNEY, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The vote in Kearney was heavy to-day. Soverage bonds carried by a majority of 173. Kearney secures $70,000 for this public improvement. There was very little opposition to the court house bonds here, and they have carried almost unanimously in the city and adjoining precincts. The vote in the country will be about evenly divided on the court house bonds. Reports from the country precincts indicate a light vote owing to the beautiful weather, which kept the voters away from the polls. The ticket would indicate a small republican gain over last year. More scratching on the ticket was done than at any other election held here. John Wilson for sheriff and R. M. Hankin for county clerk, republicans, are out of danger. Thomas H. Corwell (rep) for clerk and Simmons (rep) for county treasurer between R. M. Grimes (rep) and H. Fred Wiley (peoples) is very close, with Wiley leading.

Phelps.

HOLDREGE, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Two townships, including Holdrege, give the republicans 222 plurality. Laws fails 74 behind the democratic candidate for treasurer, who has 43 plurality. The result in the county on treasurer is in doubt. Laws was badly cut in the rural townships.

Red Willow.

McCook, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The election was held here to-day. Laws republican candidate for congress in the Second district received 361 votes out of 474. The precincts heard from point to the election of the entire county ticket by an increased majority.

Cedar.

HARTINGTON, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The election was a hotly contested. There was a strong fight on treasurer. Both parties were cut by factional strife. The election of Peter Jenant and Franz Nelson (rep), candidates for treasurer and county clerk, is conceded by the democrats. Henry Casper (rep) is probably elected sheriff. The balance of the ticket is doubtful and claimed by both parties. The vote on the state ticket is definite and shows a republican majority. Norvall fell behind the ticket.

Gage.

BEATRICE, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Returns are slow coming in, especially from the outlying precincts. Sufficient is known, however, that the state republican ticket has received a comfortable majority. The vote was light all over the county and shows a falling off of 10 per cent from last year. The main fight centered on the county ticket. The entire republican county ticket is elected, with the possible exception of Kyd for sheriff and Keim for clerk, though later returns may place their election beyond a doubt. In this city the total vote is 1,281. The light vote is accounted for in the fact that the registration law. The fight in this city was very bitter, being chiefly confined to the township. The republican ticket was done and the counting will not be completed to-night. The indications are that Yule, Parker, Scott, Graham and Maxwell are elected supervisors, Craig and Allison justices, Leary and Reed constables, and Root assessor. There were five tickets in the city. The state republican ticket carries in the city by 300 majority.

Oliver.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There are no reliable returns yet and will not be before morning. The indications are that the democrats have captured the offices of treasurer, sheriff, clerk and judge, and the republicans register of deeds. The result will be close, however, as the fight was bitter on both sides.

Holt.

O'NEILL, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Returns from twenty townships show small republican gains on the state ticket. The republican county ticket is all elected except county judge and county superintendent. Dudley is probably elected superintendent and N. B. Chapman county judge. Atkinson township, which is strong republican, is responsible for the defeat of Judge Leary and ex-Superintendent Manville. Only a light vote is reported, though the weather was fine. The city of O'Neill is republican by a good majority.

Dakota.

DAKOTA CITY, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The vote of this county is about evenly divided on the state ticket so far as the returns are in at this time. So far only two precincts have been heard from and they both went republican by a small majority. There is nothing definite as to who is elected for the county offices.

Case.

PLATTSBURGH, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Up to a late hour to-night but few returns have been received from outside precincts. Plattsburgh has gone democratic by a good majority, and the indications are that they have elected a treasurer, sheriff and register of deeds. The democrats also claim commissioner by a small majority. Owing to the great scratching of tickets, no reliable returns can be obtained to-night, although the majority of the ticket is conceded to the democrats. Slight republican gains over 1887 on the state ticket are probable. Reports indicate a light vote throughout the county, and especially in this city, on account of the registration law. The democratic victory is a result of a sectional fight between the east and west ends of the county.

Keith.

GRANT, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Incomplete returns from six precincts indicate a partial democratic victory. They elect a clerk and sheriff. On the state ticket the county goes republican by perhaps 200.

Filmore.

GENEVA, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—On sheriff, treasurer and county superintendent the republican ticket is badly scratched, and the indications are that two of the offices will be filled by democrats.

Pawnee.

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The republican county ticket will be elected with the possible exception of treasurer, a desperate fight being made on this office. The republican state ticket is elected with the usual majority. C. H. Morehead 23, L. J. Knight 23. County ticket: Treasurer J. D. Superintendent 69, judge 23, coroner 60, surveyor 17. The democratic majority for sheriff is 14.

Conkling.

BEEMER, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The majority for the republican state ticket is as follows: T. H. Norvall 22, C. H. Morehead 23, L. J. Knight 23. County ticket: Treasurer J. D. Superintendent 69, judge 23, coroner 60, surveyor 17. The democratic majority for sheriff is 14.

Dundy.

HAGLER, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The majority for the republican state ticket will reach 350 in this county. The county ticket is badly scratched. A democratic sheriff and assessor are elected without doubt.

Wayne.

WAYNE, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There is no material change on the state ticket. Tickets were badly scratched and the count is slow. The indications are that four for clerk and Simmons for sheriff on the republican ticket are defeated.

Shepherd.

LOUISIANA, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The election passed off very quietly. There were three tickets in the field—the republican, democratic and labor—all of which were badly scratched. D. E. Crow, county clerk (rep); J. W. Hunter, sheriff (dem); G. W. Hunter, judge (rep); Mrs. L. E. Walworth, superintendent of public instruction (dem and labor); G. W. Ray, assessor (rep); and J. W. Hunter, assessor (dem). County treasurer will run so closely it seems nearly a tie at this hour. The republican state ticket will show considerable gain.

Lancaster.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Returns come in slowly and show the election of the entire republican ticket by a handsome majority. But little scratching was done on the state ticket and Norvall for supreme judge carries the county over Ames by over 1,200 majority. Returns from treasurer polled the full vote of this party. McClay for sheriff is elected by from 500 to 800 votes. The vote in the city was very light. If the vote in the Fifth ward is counted correctly by 398 votes were cast in the city, over 500 less than the registration.

Dixon.

PONCA, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The polls were closed to-night on the closest and most bitterly contested election ever held in Dixon county. On the state ticket Norvall's majority will be about one-half of the usual majority of 275. The other state officers have the usual majority. In the county election the fight has been made on treasurer and clerk. The republican ticket is elected, except F. S. Shaw, clerk. For congress Laws has a majority. In Nelson the vote stands: Laws 174, Casper 104. In Spring Creek Laws 60, Casper 63.

Butler.

DAVID CITY, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—No definite returns. A republican treasurer, clerk and sheriff will be elected. The rest of the ticket is doubtful. There were very few straight tickets voted.

Linwood.

LINWOOD, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The democrats carry this precinct on county officers by majorities of from 4 to 18, and the democratic state ticket by 29 majority. Hudson county is elected township supervisor by 6 majority.

Brainard.

BRAINARD, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This precinct gives the following vote: Norvall 60, Knight 73, Laws 48, Ames 105, McKinney 95, Hess 95, Casper 134.

Madison.

NORFOLK, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—At the election here to-day 720 votes were cast. In three hundred and seventy-six tickets were democratic, 318 republican and 35 prohibition. There was a good deal of scratching done, only 157 straight tickets being found. Casey (dem) is probably elected sheriff, and Meminger (dem) re-elected county treasurer.

Boone.

ALBION, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—An average vote was polled in Boone county. The republican state ticket will have about 600 majority. The indications are that L. P. Judd (rep), treasurer; William Weitzel (rep), clerk; T. C. Williams (dem), sheriff; Dixon, Griggs (rep), county judge; C. E. Spear (rep), superintendent; Dr. A. J. Clark (rep), coroner; F. E. Smith (rep), assessor, was elected, and there is still uncertainty as to whether Joseph T. Anderson or C. G. Barnes (dem) is elected. Reports are not all in, but the above are probably the successful candidates.

Lincoln.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The city vote is not yet counted. The republican state ticket will run 10 ahead here. Church, district judge, is probably 60 ahead. Republican county officers are elected, except county assessor and county superintendent. No outside precincts heard from.

Platte.

COLLETSVILLE, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The election day dawned bright and fair. Everything passed off quietly. The meagre returns up to this late hour show that Beecher (rep) for treasurer is elected by a large majority. G. W. Phillips (dem) is elected county clerk. The republican county superintendent will be elected. The sheriff and county judge are in doubt. The city goes democratic by a small majority.

Seward.

SEWARD, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Norvall is running ahead of his ticket in Seward. The county ticket will be close and returns are coming in very slowly at 2 p. m. The democrats will probably elect the county treasurer and sheriff, and it will be very close on county superintendent, but as yet there are no positive figures. It looks as if the court house bonds proposition would be snuffed away under.

Mahone Denies the Shooting.

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 5.—General Mahone was arrested to-night charged with shooting Herbert P. Harrison, who, with a number of companions, was sending of fireworks in front of Mahone's residence. Mahone is now at the station house and Mayor Collier is investigating the case. General Mahone denies having fired the shot or that any one on his premises fired it. Harrison is not serious and will be held for a few days. The hearing at the station house resulted in General Mahone being held to the grand jury, and he was bound over to the December term of court in $5,000 bonds.

Doyle.

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 5.—The democrats carry Dodge county by majorities ranging from 150 to 300. The count is incomplete but sure.

Hall.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The republican state ticket is 200 behind the vote of last year. Costello, democratic candidate for sheriff, is elected, and possibly two others. The republican defeat is due to insufficient work.

Richardson.

FALLS CITY, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This county has gone republican by from 35 to 300 on the county ticket. Norvall run considerably behind the rest of the state ticket. A light vote was cast and the tickets were badly scratched. Falls City, town and precinct, will go republican by from 15 to 25 majority. The county precincts are reporting slowly.

Clay.

FAIRFIELD, Neb., Nov. 5.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The combined vote of Fairfield city and precinct on congressman is as follows: Laws 148, Casper 101, Bentley 88.
