

A REVOLUTION IN BRAZIL.

The Army Takes Possession of the Government.

A REPUBLIC IS DEMANDED.

The Ministry Has Resigned—Very Little Known as Yet—Dom Pedro's Minister at Washington Thinks It Is Exaggerated.

Tired of Monarchy.

New York, Nov. 15.—A private cablegram received this evening dated at Rio Janeiro, says: "A revolution has broken out here. The Brazilian army is in control. The ministry has resigned."

The Revolution is for the purpose of forming a republic.

In the same vein. LONDON, Nov. 15.—Dispatches from Rio Janeiro concerning the revolutionary outbreak assert that the movement is in favor of a republican form of government, which has recently been strongly fomented, and is the sole cause of the uprising.

Up to the present hour there is little information of a tangible character.

A Conservative View.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The Brazilian minister said this evening that he had received no information from his government in regard to the reported revolution in Brazil, but had heard from a third party intelligence of the same purport as that contained in the cable message to New York.

He did not think it at all probable that the situation had taken the turn indicated by the cablegram.

There has given rise to the report of a revolution. The correspondent called on the minister again at midnight with the report that the Brazilian minister of marine had been killed in the revolt. The minister refused to believe it. He said the republican party, to which the revolt is ascribed, could not have grown so large as to bring about a revolution in a single night.

He said the republican party, to which the revolt is ascribed, could not have grown so large as to bring about a revolution in a single night.

THE FARMERS.

While Protection is the Mode They Will Be in Style.

MONTELEONE, Ala., Nov. 15.—The National Farmers' congress adjourned to-day and the delegates left this evening for New Orleans. The new officers are: President, R. F. Kolo, Alabama; vice president, A. F. Smith, Kansas; secretary, B. F. Clayton, Iowa; treasurer, William Lawrence, Ohio. Vice presidents were elected from each state. The congress decided to hold the next meeting in Iowa, the place to be hereafter designated.

A committee was appointed to report to the next meeting suggestions for a national law.

A resolution to remove the tax on tobacco and to declare that the government does not need the money raised by internal revenue taxation and that the congress favors the repeal of the internal revenue laws, and that the tax on whisky and tobacco should be relegated to the different states to relieve them of local taxation was taken up and various reports considered.

A resolution was offered by Taylor, of Colorado, asking congress to select Chicago as the best port for the location of the national bank in Illinois. Mr. Taylor offered an amendment striking out Chicago and inserting St. Louis; but the question coming up in Illinois, Mr. Taylor withdrew his amendment.

A resolution favoring the unlimited coinage of silver met with an adverse report and was not taken up.

The following, introduced by Drafer, of Illinois, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the farmers of the United States, that it favors the construction of a canal for the improvement of the Mississippi river, and the building of a ship canal across the state of Illinois, connecting the Mississippi river and Lake Michigan, and it is recommended that the United States congress make a liberal appropriation therefor.

HARRISON'S COMING MESSAGE.

Very Unusual Secrecy in Its Preparation.

NO ADVANCE COPIES PRINTED.

An Air of Mystery That Suggests a Document of Unusual Interest.

Alton's Possible Defeat and Its Effect.

WASHINGTON HERALD THE OMAHA NEWS, 513 FIFTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.

President Harrison's absence from the city on a three days' duck shooting trip in Maryland is taken as evidence that he has about completed his message to congress. It is understood that the president is awaiting some report from his cabinet officers in order that he may be possessed of certain routine information necessary to give his message the finishing touches. Certainly he has in his possession the salient points which the report of the cabinet officers will contain as a matter of fact given the benefit of them in the preparation of his message up to this time.

It is understood that Secretary Windom's report will figure more prominently in the message than that of any other cabinet officer.

Among the most interesting features of the message will be those relating to the circulation of national bank notes, national bank deposits, the abolition of the internal revenue laws and the expansion of the monthly coinage of silver. The secretary's and the president's views are in accord on the latter subject.

Senator Sherman has visited the white house several times recently and it is stated that his conversations have been with the president with the necessity of not only advocating a national election law, but of treating vigorously and especially, Chambers, McKim & Co., of Jeannette, Pa., the first named to-day referred to the case to the United States district attorney at Pittsburgh with instructions to proceed against the firm named and those officers of the law who are connected with it in bringing the English laborers to this country, provided he is satisfied such can be maintained against the law of the provisions of the alien contract labor law.

It is not likely that the republicans of Iowa will appreciate the services of Senator Allison, as he has been away from the presence of the legislature so much during the past ten years. His retirement to private life would be very unprofitable for the country, and the republicans, prohibitionists, republicans and citizens of all other political faiths would suffer alike. He stands as a breaker against the tide of western interests which have been maturing during the past quarter of a century. "War on Senator Allison" is the cry of the Iowa republicans.
