

IDAHO AND THE MORMONS.

She is Making a Strong Fight to Suppress the Religious Libertines.

WHAT DELEGATE DUBOIS SAYS.

The Territory Disfranchises All Who Refuse to Take the Test Oath—More Speaker's Talk—Miscellaneous.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA HERALD. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—The first authentic account of the recent session of the Little Rock is published today. Sunday General Manager W. R. Dredge, of the St. Louis, Arkansas & Texas railway received the following telegram from Little Rock, which he had returned immediately for the information of Governor J. P. Eagle: "A riot occurred on our train between Little Rock and Pine Bluff last evening. There has been a great deal of trouble since that time. Some time back, and several fights have taken place. Yesterday they were very vicious and attempted to intimidate the crew. The express messenger, anticipating trouble, called on the sheriff for protection. The sheriff, however, refused to do so. The train crew, soon after leaving Argenta a negro attempted to set a brake. Brake-man McCullough tried to stop him, and the negro struck him with a brick. Another man tried to get into the car, and the crew all the while were very violent. At this juncture the train became general. Sam Houston was not dead. Another, claiming to be wounded, got off at Scott's Bayou. The conductor understands that another man was not killed. The train crew expect the train to be wrecked Monday, and that all the whites will be killed. The United States marshal has been notified of the condition of the train."

There was a general uprising of the negroes along the line, and every train that crossed the line was attacked. The road is in the hands of a receiver and the United States will protect it. The court at Little Rock today having issued sweeping orders to the sheriff warning him not to interfere with the train.

IT LOOKS LIKE GUILT.

An Old Man Under Arrest as an Incendiary.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—John Kennedy, a doctored old man eighty years of age, was arrested today during the trial of a man committed to jail for arson. He is believed to be responsible for two fires which have lately occurred near Laramie. Haystacks containing 25 tons of hay have been burned at Charles Huston's ranch, seven miles north of Laramie, the last one disappearing early Saturday morning. Early Monday morning the barn of the late John Huston, on the ranch east of the city, was burned, and Kennedy was seen coming from there, his foot tracks leading to the burning property.

He is an odd character and has had lawsuits with both Huston and Cain. Some of the haystacks were burned at the Union Pacific land here and a series of lawsuits with the railroad company was the result.

POOR HOUSE ABUSES.

An Appalling State of Affairs in an Illinois County.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—Considerable excitement has been created in De Paze county over the disclosures in regard to abuses at the poor house. The superintendent is accused of criminal neglect in the care of patients. An investigation has been made into the matter, and it is found that the inmates are crowded together in rooms wholly unventilated, unclean, and with filthy floors. The inmates are poorly fed, and are not allowed to go out of doors. The stenches are such as to almost forbid a person entering the corridors. The moral status of the inmates is such as to excite a question as to how his patients bathed: "Oh, they don't bathe," he said, "they don't need to."

NEW POSTMASTERS.

Nebraska.—Hartwell, Kearney county, Miss. Fico, J. M. Harvey, resigned; Riverton, Franklin county, S. A. Signor, vice David Eastwood, removed. Iowa.—Donnellson, Lee county, Lewis M. Watters, resigned; Council Bluffs, J. H. Moore, Clinton county, E. B. Millard, resigned; Harlan, J. H. Moore, Clinton county, E. B. Millard, resigned; S. A. Signor, vice David Eastwood, removed. South Dakota.—Aurora, Brookings county, A. E. West, vice H. A. McBride, removed; Millard, Francis county, Mrs. Lena Stewart, vice William H. Elliott, removed; Percia, Sully county, Mrs. M. A. Johnson, vice N. P. Fowler, suspended; St. Lawrence, Hand county, Andrew J. Wampler, vice S. L. Sagie, resigned.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Medical Director Francis W. Grennell, ex-surgeon general of the navy, and recently president of the medical examiners, has been detached from the latter duty and will tomorrow be placed on the retired list of the navy on account of age. This will cause the resignation of the late Surgeon Edward F. Hopt, Surgeon I. Bruhl and Assistant Surgeon John Hancock Hall. The commission of the chief of the free delivery service that the system be extended so as to embrace all towns of 5,000 population which had special receipts executed in 1889 in the territory of the country within the list of free delivery offices.

PERIT'S HEARS.

SISSETONS ARE READY.

They Will Sign When a Few Matters Are Settled Up. Sisseton Agency, S. D., Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—Tomorrow the Indian commission specially appointed at Washington to negotiate with the Sissetons for the opening of their reservation to white settlers enters upon the duty assigned it. The Indians are ready to meet in council, and a large majority, and they number from 1,200 to 1,500 in all, is in favor of severally. All the applicants entitled to it have already received their allotments, including bonuses to square accounts up to the close of next year. Congress postponed action, certain members objecting, on the grounds that such a precedent established would warrant other tribes in presenting unpaid bills. In the Sisseton reservation is one of the richest tracts of land in the west of the Mississippi. In round numbers the reservation contains 1,000,000 acres; 200,000 covered the requirements for generally leaving 800,000 for white settlers. The very best and interesting feature of the reservation is the Colorado. Surface indications are that the strata of this mountainous ridge are stratified with minerals and metals of high commercial value.

Society Youth in Trouble.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—H. M. Gaylord, a clerk in the treasury department of the Missouri Pacific railway, was arrested today charged with embezzling $100. He is highly respected, being a member of one of the most prominent banks in the city, and he will not talk.

A Bad Head Man.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Nov. 27.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—An Indian belonging to Lower Brule agency was lodged in the county jail today charged with murdering the bodies of missionaries on White River in the Sioux reservation.

THE ARKANSAS NEGRO RIOT.

An Account of the Recent Trouble Near Little Rock.

SILVER MEN IN SESSION.

First Day of the National Convention at St. Louis.

WARNER OF OHIO CHAIRMAN.

Bland's Name Suggested, but He Positively Declines—Address of the Presiding Officer—About 350 Delegates Present.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—The national silver convention met in the exposition building at 10 o'clock this morning, with about three hundred and fifty delegates present. The hall was handsomely and appropriately decorated. It was 11:15 when James Campbell called the convention to order. After briefly reciting the inception of the project to bring the silver men of the country together, Campbell introduced L. M. Ramsey of St. Louis as temporary chairman and Albert Singer as temporary secretary. Temporary Chairman Ramsey was given a warm welcome when he arose to make his opening remarks. At the conclusion of his address the various committees were appointed and the convention took a recess till 3 p. m.

Hosts of the Bimetallists.

The only event of great interest was the introduction of a bill in the senate for the enforcement of prohibition. This bill is in effect a repeal of the act which broke the legislature has settled down to quiet work. A committee of conference has been appointed to report upon the proposition to adjourn immediately to meet again sometime in January. There is no objection to the plan and although many of the members favor it there is said to be a majority against it. A bill defining the duties of the commissioner of insurance and providing for his removal from office by the department of insurance has been introduced by the territorial senator.

Truth is Mighty—Scarce.

Fiction Slightly Dusted Seems to Prevail in the Cronin Case. CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—The first witness called in the Cronin case this morning on behalf of the state was Bailey Dawson, who testified that on May 4 of this year he was in the Emergency hospital; that he never introduced papers to Colonel Lockwood, but that the silver case had been introduced by William Gleason. The defense had introduced evidence that Boggus was at the Grand Pacific hotel on the night of May 4 and that he was introduced to Colonel Lockwood on that occasion. Colonel Lockwood then corroborated the testimony of Gleason.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Sale of the Fort Worth.

New York, Nov. 26.—After a conference lasting all day between President Adams of the Union Pacific and President Jones of the Denver, Texas & Fort Worth, it was announced that the sale of the Fort Worth had been completed. The terms were not yet ready to give out a detailed statement. No information as to the terms could be obtained from the officers of the Fort Worth company.

Stubbbs Makes a Switch.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—C. Stubbbs, first vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, admitted last night that he had resigned and was about to return to his old place as general manager of the Southern Pacific railway. He would give no reason further than he had been in consultation with the owners of the Southern Pacific at New York, and that President Miller of the St. Paul company had given his consent. It is rumored in Milwaukee that Stubbbs is to have a handsome advance upon his former salary with the Southern Pacific.

Convention of the Zoological Society.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—The annual convention of the Zoological Society of America was called to order today in the First M. E. church by Mrs. Inesopine C. Falls of Brooklyn, the president of the society. There was a good attendance of delegates from different parts of the country. The society seeks to bring about a combination of all the co-operative systems of this country under some general system.

Adopted the Socialist Bill.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 26.—The reformatory committee adopted the socialist bill on the second reading. It was decided to postpone the discussion on the question of expansion in order to allow time for compromise.

Drunk Enough to Meet.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Nov. 26.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—Sunday afternoon a $6.30 money package, which had just been received at the Pacific Express office for a local bank, was found missing. Suspicion pointed to Ed Kelly, who does the hauling for the company. He was detained by a watchman and accused the station agent and baggage master with the theft. While an investigation was in progress last night Kelly received the package. Kelly made a public statement to the effect that in the absence of the express agent he took the package to his home for safety. He was in New York, and that he did not know what he was doing, and did not remember it afterward. There will be no arrest made. Kelly has always borne a good reputation.

Humored Rebellions in Hayti.

New York, Nov. 26.—The steamer Prince Frederick from Port-au-Prince November 20, arrived here today and brought news of a uprising among the rebels. It is reported that there are also some organized in the movement. At the office of Hubbard & Co., agents of the steamer Prince Frederick, all knowledge of insurrection has been wiped out. There were ten passengers on the steamer and it is thought some one of the number started the rumor.

GETTING DOWN TO WORK.

North Dakota's Legislators are Through with the Senators.

LORD EUSTON'S LIBEL CASE.

A Suit Which Grew Out of the Recent London Scandal.

THE PROCEEDINGS INTERESTING.

More Than Usual Attention Paid to It Because of its Bearing on the Coming Meeting of Parliament. He Liked to View Statuary. [Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 26.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Herald.]—The growing sensation in London at present is what is familiarly known as the West End scandal. The ordinary police court aspect of the matter ended with the sending of two subalterns to prison in the famous house to prison a month ago. Now through the action for criminal libel of Lord Euston, the case has fairly assumed the proportions which it is going to take in parliament when it opens. Labouchere leads the movement, in which all the influential radical members are actively aroused. Parker, the defendant, is an unimportant newspaper man, yet he is defended by two of the cleverest barristers in London, Sir Charles Russell and Messrs Lockwood and Aquilith—both members of parliament and counsel for Parnell before the commission. Aristocratic immorality in London is no more morbid perhaps than in other great cities, but it is the whole cabinet is more or less implicated in permitting guilty persons of the highest positions to escape merited punishment, both in court and in parliament as far as possible. It is proposed by radical and many conservative members also that culpable officials shall be shown up in their true light.

Another Big Train Robbery.

The Santa Fe Express Held Up by Masked Men. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—Another big train robbery was perpetrated in the Indian Territory last night. This time on the Topeka & Santa Fe, about 12 o'clock. From $20,000 to $30,000 are said to have been stolen. Fifteen masked and heavily armed men boarded the south-bound Topeka & Santa Fe passenger train at Berwyn, a small station in the Chickasaw nation, Indian Territory, and cut the engine, mail and express cars from the train. Some two miles they ran the train some two miles and threw the fireman off the locomotive. Two miles further the engineer was thrown from the engine and the locomotive steam was turned off and the locomotive "killed."

Provisions for Stanley.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City. L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

GETTING DOWN TO WORK.

North Dakota's Legislators are Through with the Senators.

LORD EUSTON'S LIBEL CASE.

A Suit Which Grew Out of the Recent London Scandal.

THE PROCEEDINGS INTERESTING.

More Than Usual Attention Paid to It Because of its Bearing on the Coming Meeting of Parliament. He Liked to View Statuary. [Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 26.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Herald.]—The growing sensation in London at present is what is familiarly known as the West End scandal. The ordinary police court aspect of the matter ended with the sending of two subalterns to prison in the famous house to prison a month ago. Now through the action for criminal libel of Lord Euston, the case has fairly assumed the proportions which it is going to take in parliament when it opens. Labouchere leads the movement, in which all the influential radical members are actively aroused. Parker, the defendant, is an unimportant newspaper man, yet he is defended by two of the cleverest barristers in London, Sir Charles Russell and Messrs Lockwood and Aquilith—both members of parliament and counsel for Parnell before the commission. Aristocratic immorality in London is no more morbid perhaps than in other great cities, but it is the whole cabinet is more or less implicated in permitting guilty persons of the highest positions to escape merited punishment, both in court and in parliament as far as possible. It is proposed by radical and many conservative members also that culpable officials shall be shown up in their true light.

Another Big Train Robbery.

The Santa Fe Express Held Up by Masked Men. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—Another big train robbery was perpetrated in the Indian Territory last night. This time on the Topeka & Santa Fe, about 12 o'clock. From $20,000 to $30,000 are said to have been stolen. Fifteen masked and heavily armed men boarded the south-bound Topeka & Santa Fe passenger train at Berwyn, a small station in the Chickasaw nation, Indian Territory, and cut the engine, mail and express cars from the train. Some two miles they ran the train some two miles and threw the fireman off the locomotive. Two miles further the engineer was thrown from the engine and the locomotive steam was turned off and the locomotive "killed."

Provisions for Stanley.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City. L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

GETTING DOWN TO WORK.

North Dakota's Legislators are Through with the Senators.

LORD EUSTON'S LIBEL CASE.

A Suit Which Grew Out of the Recent London Scandal.

THE PROCEEDINGS INTERESTING.

More Than Usual Attention Paid to It Because of its Bearing on the Coming Meeting of Parliament. He Liked to View Statuary. [Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Nov. 26.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Herald.]—The growing sensation in London at present is what is familiarly known as the West End scandal. The ordinary police court aspect of the matter ended with the sending of two subalterns to prison in the famous house to prison a month ago. Now through the action for criminal libel of Lord Euston, the case has fairly assumed the proportions which it is going to take in parliament when it opens. Labouchere leads the movement, in which all the influential radical members are actively aroused. Parker, the defendant, is an unimportant newspaper man, yet he is defended by two of the cleverest barristers in London, Sir Charles Russell and Messrs Lockwood and Aquilith—both members of parliament and counsel for Parnell before the commission. Aristocratic immorality in London is no more morbid perhaps than in other great cities, but it is the whole cabinet is more or less implicated in permitting guilty persons of the highest positions to escape merited punishment, both in court and in parliament as far as possible. It is proposed by radical and many conservative members also that culpable officials shall be shown up in their true light.

Another Big Train Robbery.

The Santa Fe Express Held Up by Masked Men. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 26.—Another big train robbery was perpetrated in the Indian Territory last night. This time on the Topeka & Santa Fe, about 12 o'clock. From $20,000 to $30,000 are said to have been stolen. Fifteen masked and heavily armed men boarded the south-bound Topeka & Santa Fe passenger train at Berwyn, a small station in the Chickasaw nation, Indian Territory, and cut the engine, mail and express cars from the train. Some two miles they ran the train some two miles and threw the fireman off the locomotive. Two miles further the engineer was thrown from the engine and the locomotive steam was turned off and the locomotive "killed."

Provisions for Stanley.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City. L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.

L. M. McDonnell, an employe of the Rock Island, made a deposition before a Kansas City notary public that he had bought six tickets of the Alton. He held the Alton agent that he knew the tickets had been sold with a rebate of $1.25 each ticket, and asked for the same terms. The agent said: "You pay full price for the tickets over lying around somewhere." McDonnell did so, whereupon the agent took $7.50 from the drawer and put it on the end of the counter from which place McDonnell immediately took the amount. On this evidence the Kansas City Passenger association took action, suing the Alton $25 on each ticket, and compelling it to redeem the tickets so sold.

Chicago's Carter Divorce Case Outdone in Kansas City.