Marriage a Patlare

Three new divorce cases have been filed in district court. Neohi Long wants a divorce from his wife, Amelia, because she has skipped out and left him. Mrs. Olie Knykendali likewase prays for an annalment of the marriage ties that bind her to a burband yclept Peter, on the triple grounds of drunkenness, cruci and abasive treatment, and adultery with one Mrs. Carroll and divers other womes. Mrs. Likele Long wants to be released from manufaling the character of wife toward J. W. Long because he is addicted to the flowing bowl, and is also of such a beasty disposition that she car no longer live with him. The position narrates several things that are entirely too fifthy for mublication, and if true should result in the brate's confinement where he will not be in contact with human belongs. The three cases will come up for trial at the January term.

Notes About the City.

A Day of Fensting.

Thunksgiving day passed very quistly in the Bluiffs, and without any occurrence of especial moment. The banks and the greater part of the business houses were closed, and the streets had quite a Sunday appearance. The wenther was very chilly, although it was not a disagraculated ay. The wind, bowever, was strong enough to make existence for more confortable innovers than out, and the atroot close wore deserted. Travel over the motor line was that a tride beacter than usual, the majority of people evidently being satisfied to spend the day at home, around the family fleesible.

Very few arrangements, but been made for celebrating the day, other than in the old fashioned, ortholox fashion. With thousands the diance was the only unusual feature of the day, and with others the want of a dimine unight hive main the day more anticabilitization and made the contract of the day, and with others the want of a dimine unight have made the day more anticabilitization and the mercessary "like were distributed among the poor families through out the city. The First Hanist church was comfortably heated and comfortably filled at 11 o'clock yesterday on the occasion of the union Thanksgiving services of the city churches. On the rostram were nearly all the pastors of the city. The choir of the Hapitat church led the singing. The voluntary was spirited Thanksgiving symm. The Thanksgiving preclamations of President Harrison and Governor Larrabee were real by the fev. T. P. Thickstan of the Berean Hapitat church, followed by an invocation by Dr. Cooley. The 16th Psaim, "Praise ye the Lord," etc., was read by Dr. Crofts of the Congregational church and a beautiful prayer offered by Dr. Phelps of the Presbyterian. The Thanksgiving serion was then delivered by Dr. Franklin of the Methodist church from texts found in the 105th Psaim, first, second and third verses, and the first chapter and twelfth verse of Revelution.

Saguin Gers a Verdiet.

The jury is the case of Saguin vs. Siedontoof, returned a verdiet in favor of the plaintiff, awarding him $1.602. The amount sued for was $1,500 and interest, amounting to about $1,700. The jury found that the plaintiff had receives $221 back taxes, which amount they deducted, virtually awarding the amount sued for. This is a case which has occupied the attention of the court. For several days, through as many terms of the court. The history of the case is briefly this: Siedentopf sold Saguin thirty lots for $5.000, receiving in payment $1,500 in cash, and a note for a similar amount.

The plaintiff in the suit which ensued alleged that Siedentopf represented that the tax title was perfect, he having owned the lots for ten years, and guaranteed to turn over a fee title, which he was just receiving. The title was never received, and the property was taken away from Saguin. The note passed through several of the banks of the city, and Kimball & Champ finally brought suit to recover the money which he had paid out, and this just terminated. It lets Saguin out of the deal with simply the amount of his attorney fees. The other side denies that the sale was effected by Lake expending and the property was taken away from Suprinated. He lets Saguin out of the deal with simply the amount of his attorney fees. The other side denies that the sale was effected by Lake expending and all the property was not always and the property was out shoult twenty hours, and during all of that time tood eleven to one. It began to look like a disagreement, but the one finally gave in and the Jury was returned. Pikeknger Brothers were the attorneys for the plaintiff, and Burke & Hewitt for the defendant.

READ THROUGH A MACHINE.

Character Decipher d in the Products of the Typewriter.
According to the St. Louis GlobeDemocrat, the use of the typewriter does not baffle the writing expert.
Men and women who use typewriters show nearly as much individuality in their work as they would do if they used a pen. It is harder to detect, but that is all the difference. Any business man who is used to reading correspondence from concerns which employ several typewriters can tell at a glance which one of the half dozen wrote the letters he received. Signs of carelessness, haste, ignorance of punctuation or the profuse use of punctuation or the profuse use of punctuation or the profuse use of punctuation che writing, some peculiarity in capitalization—all these things carry meaning to the expert examining typewriter copy.

ages, watching the surprising antics of these ingenious playthings, which aprear not only to possess life—so cumingly are their internal parts contrived—but to be possessed, each by some imp of mischief.

There is a gorgeous peacock, which not only walks with nodding creat and stately steps across a stage, but expands its broad, many eyed tail in the most natural manner.

A small dog next dashes forth, barks furiously, then, as if recognizing his master, wags his tail and frisks about, so true to life that one can scarcely believe be is an automaton.

A rabit—a very lifelike little bunny—then comes out of his warren, pricks up his long, soft ears, stares timidly about for a few moments and hops rapicly away.

Afterward a monkey drops down for a few moments and hops rapicly away.

Afterward a monkey drops down from his perch and performs a variety of amusing anties, which invariably set the children shouting with laughter. But the most attractive toy of the exhibit appears to be a fat. Chinaman, which is in reality a huge top. His large round hat seems to be another top, a top atop of a top. The hat turns around upon the Chinaman's nead, while the Chinaman himself turns slowly around, nodding, and presently unfolding his large, gaily coloned fan, with which he fans himself in a most languid but aristocratic manner.
