

IN A FLOOD OF CHAMPAGNE.

The Meeting of Stanley, Emin Pasha, Casanin, and Wisman.

A PROFUSION OF TOASTS DRUNK.

Emin Pasha's Hard Luck—He Walks Out of a Window and Fractures His Skull—No Ivory.

Everyone Toasted.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 5.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—The meeting between Stanley, Emin Pasha, Captain Casanin and Major Wisman took place at Atoni yesterday morning on the opposite bank of the Kighan river. The healths of all the explorers and the usual toasts were drunk in champagne. All the party arrived at Bagamoyo at 11 this morning. Wisman had provided horses for Stanley and Emin, and upon them they made a triumphal entry into Bagamoyo. The town was profusely decorated. Verdant arches were built across all avenues and palm branches waved from every window. A salute of nine guns was fired by Wisman's force and the same number by the German navy. All the officers of the expedition were summoned to the quarters at luncheon at Wisman's headquarters. The captain of the Sperber on behalf of the emperor of Germany formally welcomed first Stanley then Emin and congratulated them on their return to civilization. All the vessels in the harbor were dressed in bunting.

Many persons arrived here today from Zanzibar. Among them was Nichol, who came on behalf of Sir William Mackinnon, president of the Emin Pasha relief committee, the English consul Mr. Churchill, Judge Crankford of the English court, the German and Italian consuls.

In the evening a banquet was held and a flood of champagne the German consul general, Stoffmann, toasted the queen of England and Wisman toasted Stanley, calling him his master in African exploration. Stanley in reply said he thanked God he had performed his duty. He spoke with emotion of his soldiers, whose names were blazoned in the forest and remarked that with him and those of his party the work was always onward. He bore testimony to the divine influence that had guided him in his work. Then he said: "Emin is here, Casanin is here, I am here, and all the young gentlemen who went with me are here," and concluded by thanking Wisman and the Germans for their kindness in sending him stores.

Emin Pasha toasted the emperor of Germany and Major Stans returned thanks for Stanley's officers. Captain Brachonary, the senior naval officer, toasted Major Wisman. This toast was drunk with enthusiasm, the whole company joining in singing "For ever and ever, amen." Stanley and his men will arrive here tomorrow by the Sperber, which has been specially placed at his disposal by the emperor of Germany. Emin's people will come over in a British man-of-war.

TOASTED BY TURNERS.

(Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.) LONDON, Dec. 5.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—Throughout the length and breadth of the United Kingdom, and the same may be said of Europe and the rest of the civilized world, the name of Stanley is on every tongue. In the streets, in the clubs, wherever men congregate these of conversation is Stanley, his wonderful achievements and his modesty, as illustrated in the letter to the Herald, which is on all sides held to be a masterpiece and to stamp its author as a truly great man. Stanley is a member of the Turners' company, and at a testimonial given by the Englishmen at the Hotel de Ville, he was attended a banquet at the Hotel de Ville, and he received the following telegram from the king of Belgium:

"I understand you will, as a member of the second year of the Worshipful Company of Turners, propose at the annual dinner the health of your illustrious countryman Mr. Henry M. Stanley. Let me as an honorary member of the worshipful company, a title I am proud to possess, assure you before hand how cordially and gladly I join the Turners in all their expressions of admiration of the unparalleled and heroic services rendered by my friend Stanley to science and civilization in that vast continent in the discovery of which he has taken so great a share.

King of the Belgians, sovereign of the Congo states.

Burdett-Coutts in proposing the toast to Stanley referred to Stanley's mission as an English enterprise. The American flag had been hoisted to the tower by the correspondent of the New York Herald and complacently placed over his testimonial by one who was none other than an Englishman, he added to the 3 of the Anglo-Saxon race something of the quick resources and electric energy of their dear transatlantic cousins.

The message dispatched by Burdett-Coutts to Zanzibar was as follows: "The Turners' company at the annual dinner with the lord mayor and other old friends of yours after listening to a full and gracious telegram with respect to yourself from the king of the Belgians have just drunk your health with stirring enthusiasm. I congratulate you on your splendid achievement and send you a hearty welcome home."

HEARDY COURAGE, MASTER.

Emin in Hard Luck.

(Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.) ZANZIBAR, Dec. 5.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—Emin Pasha appears to be utterly incapable of shaking off the ill-luck which has pursued him for years. He is overcast and walked out of a window last night and fractured his skull. At this moment he is lying in a most critical state at Bagamoyo. All the doctors have given him up except Stanley's physician, Doctor Park, who remains with him. Under the most favorable circumstances he cannot be moved for ten days. He is receiving every care and attention from Wisman and his officers. His majesty's ship Somali, Captain Frazer, has been placed at my disposal to convey my men to Zanzibar. All of them who have stuck to me will arrive here tomorrow. News of Wisman's promotion to the rank of major has just been received.

FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A Bill to Transfer the Signal Service to Rusk's Bureau.

CANDIDATES FOR STATEHOOD.

Probability That Idaho and Wyoming Will Soon Enter the Sisterhood—More About St. Louis's Defalcation.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Senator Padlock introduced a bill today providing for the transfer of the signal service from the war department to the agricultural department. The senator says that the aim and scope of the work of the signal bureau has no connection whatever with that of the war department; that the signal service is most valuable to the farming and shipping interests, especially the former, and that it should be within the control of the secretary of agriculture. A good deal of sentiment has been worked up in favor of this proposition and there is every reason to believe that it will succeed. The senator also introduced a bill to admit to the Dorrance and other of Nebraska.

TWO MORE ARIZONA TERRITORIES. There is very little doubt in the minds of the leading Republicans of the senate and the house that at least one new state will be made at the present session of congress. It is believed that the territory of Arizona will be divided into two states, one to be admitted to statehood. Chairman Platt of the senate committee on territories says he is in favor of at least adding Idaho promptly, and that he is ready to make a favorable report upon a bill to that end as soon as it reaches his committee. The three or four members of the house who are in line for the chairmanship of the committee on territories are committed by a vote of 100 to 100 to admit Idaho promptly, and he has been hard at work since his arrival working up the necessary sentiment in favor of statehood for Idaho, his territory.

Mr. Dabbs said today that he appeared to be nothing in the way of statehood for Idaho, and that eruptive action would be taken on the bill as soon as it is introduced. Mr. Dabbs, who has managed statehood for his territory so skilfully and brought it already to the verge of success, will introduce Idaho's bill on Monday next. He has been hard at work since his arrival working up the necessary sentiment in favor of statehood for Idaho, his territory.
