ANNOUNCEMENT ENTRAORDINARY.

Mr. C. A. Stonchill, who has just returned from a very successful trip to the east, is very highly clated over a purchase he made in Chicago. The lot consists of over 5,000 dolls of all kinds and descriptions, more than 7,000 books for children, an almost endiess variety of toys and china cups and suscers, etc., all of which he bought so low that they will be sold at about one fourth the usual retail prices. This car load of holiday goods is now on the road, but being shipped by freight it is impossible to state just when they will arrive, although Mr. Stonchill thinks it will be in Omaha next Wednesday. These goods are of the very best manufacture and as they will be sold at such low prices it will pay all intendig to make purchase of this kind, to wait until they arrive. The entire car load will be placed on sale just as early in the week as possible. Now watch for further particulars.

Trick and Fancy Shooting. Trick and Fancy Stooting.

President Lawler of the Eden Musec company has well carned his reputation as a faithful ceterer to the amusement public. Each week Mr. Lawler's attractions seem to grow better and those for the coming week are unusually excellent. With much difficulty and considerable expense two of the stars of the Buffalo Bill show have been secured. These are Mexican Billie and Colorado Winnie, the latter being known as "Little Sure Shot." The most difficult trick and fancy rife with these.

Miss Nellie McMahon, the lyric queen of the vaudeville stage, will make her appearance this week for the first time at popular prices. Both theaters will present good bills, and the latest comedy success. "Rouben's Return," will be sent good bills, and the latest comedy success, "Rouber's Return," will be rendered by a full company. Other great attractions will be Nelsonia dog circus, comprising 20 comic canines; John and Bartha Gleeson, the famous child artists; Low and Walters in refined novel specialties; the Montaliens in a terrific broad sword encounter; Mulihil, and Kilkenny in their greatest act of all; the "2 Vans" in their exposition of mesmerism. Besides these the seven mammoth departments will each contain good attractions, and the old time wrice of one dime to all will still prevail.

A brand now fruit and confectioners store is just opened at corner Sisteenth and Dodge streets. It puts one in mind of the fruit stores on Sixth avenue, New York, and well it may, for the proprietor F. H. McCartny has been in the fruit business on that same street sill his life. His stock is in good variety and splendid quantity. He makes fancy basket fruits a specialty. Young men can now send their sweethearts a delicious basket of fruit instead of the gift of flowers. Thousands of Happy Children Call to See Him.

Yesterday was a grand day for the children at Hayden's. Old Santa Claus was there and welcomed the little ones right royally. Upstairs and down the merry multitude tumbled and floated, filling the great store with the din of their joyous vaces. Old Santa seemed to be everywhere, and as he kindly shook each little hand each little heart beat with the assurance that the glad Christmas time would bring its owner a nicegift. When they reached the great third floor and saw the magnificent display that was spread out for their inspection, their delight knew no bounds. There were rocking horses and sleds, and express wagons, and trains of ears, and fire angines, and frame, and horns, and musical instruments for the boys, and for the jristware dolls and dell cabs, and Christmas cards, and pictures, and tiny kitchen and parior suits, in fact everything a little girl or boy could wash for. The older folks were not neclected. There were thousands of dollars worth of fine plush sets, albums, tollet acts, manicure sets, work baskets, fancy pillows, games, and the most elegant line of Christmas cards ever brought to Omaha. What interest the visitor is the fact that not a single old or list years article is seen. The styles are unique and new. A great crowd surrounced the show windows all day long, viewing with delight the wonderful mechanical toys within. Last evening the crowd was even greater than during the day, all selecting beauniful gifts for the little ones. For the beaufit of the public their store will be kept open until 9 o'clock every evening until Christmas.
