JUDGE NORVAL'S SUCCESSOR.

Governor Thayer Appoints Jerome H. Smith of Aurora.

HE ENTERS UPON HIS DUTIES.

Hiland H. Wheeler, Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court, Asked to Step Down and Out—State House Jottings—Capital News.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1019 P STREET, LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 9.

Jerome H. Smith of Aurora, Hamilton county, was appointed judge of the Sixth judicial district vice T. L. Norval, supreme judge-elect, who tendered his resignation on last Saturday as stated by THE BEE this morning. It is learned that the newly appointed judge commenced the winter term of the district court at Osceola, Polk county, this afternoon, having been notified of his appointment in advance of its being made public. The governor feels that he will now have a rest from pressing aspirants.

Requested to Step Down.

Hiland H. Wheeler, deputy clerk of the supreme court under the late Guy A. Brown, and acting deputy under the temporary appointee, Walter A. Leese, was asked to step down and out this morning. This action occasioned considerable surprise about the capitol when it was announced. At the time Mr. Leese took charge of the office it was given out that there would be no change in the attaches of the office until after January 1, when it is understood the permanent appointment is to be made. The powers that be, however, saw fit to order a change and in Mr. Wheeler's language he now wears citizen's clothes.

When interrogated regarding the matter Mr. Leese said he did not care to rush into print. He felt at liberty to state, however, that there were no personal differences between himself and the beheaded deputy; that his business transactions and obligations in connection with the office were unassailable.

Mr. Wheeler stated that he was not surprised when requested to tender his resignation to take effect at once. Continuing, he said: "I do not care to state at this time the reason, as I understand it, why I am let out so peremptorily."

The impression in this city is strong that Mr. Wheeler was asked to vacate because of personal differences between him and Judges Reese and Maxwell. It is understood that he will push his candidacy for the clerkship, and there are not a few who believe that he carries the pole that will knock the persimmon. Persons who claim to be in a position to know, however, assert that Judge Reese is the coming man, and that the supreme bench under the January organization will not interpose a single objection.

Prohibition Convention.

The prohibition convention, composed of delegates from Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska and the two Dakotas, will meet in Omaha December 18 and 19, 1889, at 2 p. m.

One and one-third fare can be obtained by parties attending the convention over the following roads:

Santa Fe, B. & M., Rock Island, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, Fremont Elkhorn & Missouri Valley, Kansas City, Ft. Scott & Memphis, St. Joseph & Grand Island, St. Louis & San Francisco, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific. Persons buying tickets should get receipts of ticket agents where the tickets are purchased. On presentation of these receipts at the convention a certificate will be furnished by which return tickets can be had at the one-third rate. These certificates can only be obtained by presenting the receipts.

Reduced rates can be obtained at the hotels in Omaha by delegates to the convention.

State papers please copy.

State House Jottings.

The Farmers' state bank of Oxford Furnas county, filed articles of incorporation today. Capital stock, $25,000. Incorporators: Edwin S. Rowley of Omaha and W. H. Cogill and Henry Camp of Oxford.

The Missouri Valley land company of Cedar Rapids, Ia., a foreign corporation, domesticated today by filing resolutions and articles. This company has an authorized capital stock of $200,000 and was organized and chartered in 1875. Incorporators: Fred L. Ames, Fred Nickerson, F. Gordon Dexter, Edward Johnson, Horace Williams, S. P. Wisner, J. Van Deventer.

The following cases were filed for trial in the supreme court:

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company vs Asa Berry; error from the district court of Seward county.

Walter Brothers vs Reed & Gerard; error from the district court of Thayer county.

New Notaries Public.

The governor today made the following notarial appointments: Albert M. Russell, Anselmo, Custer county; C. L. Phelps, Crawford, Dawes county; I. L. McCloud, Omaha, Douglas county; Jesse B. Strode, Lincoln, Lancaster county; P. O. Malley, Omaha, Douglas county; H. McNeil Smith, Wellfleet, Lincoln county; Willis McBride, Madison, Madison county; W. B. McQueen, Rushville, Sheridan county.

City News and Notes.

Governor Thayer made a hurried trip to Omaha today. He left on the Burlington flyer at 1:30 and returned at 8:35 this evening.

About $300 worth of fancy toilet goods were damaged by fire last night at Shilling Brother's drug store. The blaze resulted from sparks from the electric lights in the store room.

Peter Carr, who broke the plate glass windows in his brother's 1st street saloon yesterday, was before the board of insane commissioners today. It is said that the man is unquestionably insane.

Mrs. T. A. Hedendahl of Omaha, returned home today after a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Cutright.

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

An important discovery. They act on the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new principle. They speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles and constipation. Splendid for men, women and children. Smallest, mildest, surest. 30 doses for 25 cents. Samples free at Kuhn & Co.'s, 15th and Douglas.

HONESTY IN CONTRACTING.

The Builders' Exchange Undertakes to Insure It.

The newly organized Builders' and Traders' exchange formally opened its headquarters, in rooms 207 and 208, New York Life building, at 11 o'clock yesterday. There was a very large attendance, representing the builders, contractors, architects and manufacturers of the city.

Richard Smith, president of the exchange, was in the chair. The secretary, for the information of those present, read the constitution and by-laws of the organization.

The exchange is a member of the national organization of the same name, and has been formed for the purpose of protecting the builders and people generally from the work of unscrupulous contractors and incompetent workmen.

It is also one of the objects of the association to settle all disputes between members, contractors and builders and mechanics by arbitration.

After the reading of the rules President Smith called upon Mr. Hartman, president of the real estate exchange, for a few remarks.

Mr. Hartman in responding said he would judge that the exchange was a very good institution and one calculated to benefit both the contractors, the people building and the laborers. He wished the institution all manner of success and pledged the co-operation of the real estate exchange in any movement for the good of the city.

Mr. Thomas Swobe was called out and congratulated the exchange upon its successful organization and predicted beneficial results.

John Jenkins, deputy commissioner of the state bureau of labor and industrial statistics, said he expected the organization to be one of material benefit to the city. He could see nothing in the articles of the organization that any laborer could take exceptions to but on the contrary, that the rules of the exchange provided for the prevention and settlement of labor troubles.

Architect P. M. Ellis had a very severe cold and made himself heard with great difficulty. He considered the organization a step in the right direction. The exchange, if established on just principles, would work to the benefit of every citizen. He urged that only responsible men be admitted to the organization.

Mr. George Barker when called upon, said he wanted an exchange or something or other that would give a builder the assurance that when he bought hard brick for a building he wasn't going to have a lot of salmon colored brick delivered to him which would fall to pieces before he could put them in a wall.

Henry Livesay, A. R. Dufrene and Sidney Smith briefly addressed the meeting prophesying good results from the organization.

Mr. R. H. Tilley pleaded hunger as an excuse, when called upon, and spoke but briefly. He said he was never in a city before in which there was no builders' exchange. The organization was a step in the right direction. Omaha, he said, had a lot of very poor contractors, and the only way to get ahead of them was to organize and watch them. He urged the exchange to be careful and admit only good men to membership and the success of the organization would be assured.

The secretary read a telegram from Secretary of the National Builders' exchange congratulating the home organization on its inauguration and wishing it continued usefulness and prosperity.

This closed the speech-making and, after a few minutes of social converse among themselves the members and visitors adjourned.

The exchange will meet from 11 to 12 o'clock. The rooms are open at all times for the accommodation of members and visitors.

THE OMAHA CONSOLIDATED VINEGAR COMPANY.

The Largest Vinegar Works West of Chicago.

Few people in the west have an idea that Omaha has the largest vingar factory west of Chicago, but such are the facts.

That Omaha is gaining ground every day as a manufacturing center none can deny. As a distributing point it is only second to Chicago.

The Omaha Consolidated Vinegar company has recently absorbed the A. Brecht Vinegar company, and this combination which is located at West Side on the Missouri Pacific railway, two and a half miles from the Omaha postoffice, just south of Leavenworth street, now has the greatest capacity of any vinegar works west of Chicago. Since the change numerous improvements have been and are being made. After these improvements are completed the capacity will be a hundred barrels per day. They have recently engaged from the largest vinegar works in Cincinnati a professional vinegar maker, who has charge of their manufacturing department. With the improvements going on and the facilities now at hand this company can place their goods to the trade for less money than it can be shipped in from the east.

The dimensions of the factory are: One building 120x36 feet, two stories, and another 80x24 feet, three stories high. The factory with the outbuildings occupies 200x132 feet of ground. All the latest improved machinery and appliances for the manufacture of vinegar are in daily operation. Few people would be able to appreciate the immense amount of machinery necessary to run an institution of this kind. In addition to manufacturing white wine and cider vinegars, pickles of all kinds are put up in bulk and in bottles; also sauer kraut, mustard, catsup and pickled meats of all kind.

The Omaha Consolidated Vinegar company is incorporated.

The finances of the concern are under the entire management of J. H. Barrett, the secretary and treasurer, while J. F. Helmer, the president, is a practical vinegar man; Ben F. Parker is vice president. Ben is well known as a rustler. He is general salesman, and looks after the outside business, and particularly all freights and transportation. The Brecht Brothers of the former Brecht company retain an interest in the consolidated company. They were born in the vinegar business and require no introduction in this territory, where they are well and favorably known.

This company will turn out 350 cars of goods during the coming year.

POSTAL MATTER.

Holiday Business—Pouch Changes—Preparing for Winter.

Assistant Postmaster Woodward states that the holiday season has fairly begun and that the usual increase in the business of the postoffice is already noticeable. Money orders, postal notes and registered letters are in great demand, while the increase in mail matter is plainly visible.

Superintendent James E. White of this division has issued orders to all railway postal clerks between Omaha and Ogden that in the event of severe snow storms threatening to block the roads, each and every one off duty shall report in person at the terminus of their routes from which they begin and end their runs, where they will relieve or assist any clerk if occasion requires. Each clerk is to keep himself informed of the condition of his line during the winter months in order that no runs may be left vacant. Leaves of absence between December 15 and January 20, 1890, will not be granted except in cases of absolute necessity and then competent substitutes must be furnished. Extra service will also be required.

A pouch exchange between Omaha and Council Bluffs and Panama, Ia., on Sundays has been established, also between Lincoln and Fremont on trains 3 and 4 daily. A change in schemes in Nebraska is announced as follows: "Change Lincoln and Alliance to Lincoln and Crawford in Buffalo, Hall, Lancaster, Seward and York counties."

The new postoffice of Belmont in Dawes county is now open.

He Was a Shooter.

John Hunter was fined yesterday in police court for discharging firearms inside the city limits.

John has a penchant for shooting and for weeks has kept the people in the vicinity of Twenty-eighth and Chicago streets in a state of perpetual terror. Yesterday, however, he was caught in the act of discharging a revolver by Officer Hudson, who promptly brought him to the station.

LIFE'S HISTORY;

Its Smiles and Tears. Such is the course of life, made up of sunshine and gloom, gladness and sorrow, riches and poverty, health and disease. We may dispel the gloom, banish the sorrow and gain riches; but sickness will overtake us, sooner or later. Yet, happily, that enemy can be vanquished; pains and aches can be relieved; there is a balm for every wound, and science has placed it within the reach of all. There is no discovery that has proven so great a blessing as Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills. In malarial regions, where Fever and Ague, Bilious Diseases and ailments incident to deranged liver prevail, they have proven an inestimable boon, as a hundred thousand living witnesses testify.

NEBRASKA CLOTHING COMPANY.

Tuesday morning we will commence one of the greatest clearance sales on record. It is not very often that we have occasion to mark down our goods. No competition ever compelled us to reduce our prices for the simple reason that our prices are always away below others, but something stronger than competition---The continued warm weather forces us this time to put the knife deep into our goods. The season is fast closing and we have yet a very large stock to dispose of. In order to do it we must give you inducements that will make you buy clothing in spite of any kind of weather, and we will do it. We have never dissapointed you yet.

Beginning Tuesday morning you can have your choice of thousands of $16, $15, $13.50 and $12.

OVERCOATS AND SUITS at $9.75

The Overcoats come in Kerseys, Wide Wale, Worsteds, Beavers and fine Chinchillas, many of them lined throughout with silk and satin, also Ulsters of Irish Frieze, &c.

The suits are in Cutaways and Sacks and consist of very fine Cassimeres, Worsteds, Corkscrews and Cheviots, elegantly made up and all formerly selling at $12, $13.50, $15 and $16.50---all go for $9.75.

You can see them in our window. They talk for themselves.

We cannot send samples of goods from this sale, but will fill mail orders promptly and to the best of our ability, when the selection is left to us. All orders for goods from this sale must be accompanied by cash.

FROM MAX MEYER & BRO.

The auction sale which is now in progress at our store has caused so many inquiries that we take this method to answer the inquiries and inform the public at the same time. The object of the saleis not, as some have asserted, to get rid of our old stock for the best of reasons, we have none. Nor is it a holiday scheme to get the trade—but it is as advertised, to close the retail department of our jewelry business which we have been desirous of doing for many months, and having failed to find a customer to purchase the stock entire, and to put the stock into our wholesale department not being feasible, we have determined upon an auction sale of our entire stock of diamonds, fancy goods, art goods, and all. Without limit or reserve of one single article. We invite all to attend these sales, which will be held daily for the next thirty days (if not disposed of before) and see if this statement is not a fact.

THE FIGURE "9".

The figure "9" in our dates is with us and has come to stay. No man or woman now living will ever date a document without using the figure 9. It now stands on the extreme right—1889. Next year it will be in the third place, where it will remain ten years. It will then move up to the second place—1900—and there it will rest one hundred years.

There is another "9" which has also come to stay: it is called the No. "9." It is not like the figure "9" in our dates in the respect that it will have to wait until next year for third place, or ten years for second place, as it has this year stood in first place, and it will not move from there; it is the new "No. 9" High Arm Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine.

The "No. 9" is not an old style of machine having some slight change made in it and then called "new improved," but it is an entirely new machine. It was invented by the best mechanical experts of the age. What better proof is wanted of that fact than the following cablegram direct from the Paris Exposition, which was published in all the Chicago newspapers of October 2nd?

EXPOSITION UNIVERSELLE, PARIS, October 1.—[Special.]—The highest possible premium and the only grand prize for sewing machines was awarded the Wheeler and Wilson Manufacturing Company.

The "No. 9" has taken the first premium this year at the State fairs of Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin, and the first premium at every county fair where it has been exhibited.

No woman, if she desires to be happy should be without a "No. 9." No man should be happy until he has purchased the lightest running lock stitch machine in the world, the "No. 9" for his home. No agent is happy unless he sells the "No. 9." No dealer will be happy and prosperous in this age of progress unless he furnishes his customers with the only perfect sewing machine mechanism for family use, the "No. 9." We are happy, for our trade has more than doubled since the birth of the "No. 9."
