RAILROAD BUILDING.

The Amount of It Which Will Be Done Next Season.

Halfroad building promises to be much greater in the west this year than it was last.

At least, that is the opinion of managing and operating officials. Nebraska, of course, will get her share provided all the projects contemplated are carried out.

The greatest central which, as every one knows, is a Chicago, St. Paul & Milwaukee system, expects to be well under way before Christmas, while hopes for the Omaha & Yankton enterprise are very high.

It is earnestly believed that the latter road, for which there is so much demand, will be ready within the twelve months.

The question, however, as to who will build it has not yet been determined. Missouri Pacific makes a claim on it.

Besides the enterprises named, there are good grounds on which to base assertions that the Great Central and Pacific corporation will build and operate the line.

Washington dispatches report that Senator Manderson has prepared and will soon introduce a bill in the senate providing for the creation of an anti-trust bureau.

During the session of the legislature, the Missouri river at some point near Sioux City. No one here seems to know what it means.

There has already arisen between the Kansas City and the Union Pacific roads on account of road track privileges at Beatrice.

The former is charging that the latter has secured franchises for the use of its tracks, and has appealed to the council of Beatrice for redress.

Dave Howers and H. S. McLean of the Chicago & Alton, at Kansas City, are visiting Omaha. Speaking of the condition of business down at the Windy burg, they said they could not report great activity.

Charles Johnson, traveling agent of the Cairo Short Line, (Illinois Central) at St. Louis, is in the city. Mr. Johnson has been connected with the former road for many years.

General Traffic Manager Melton, of the Union Pacific, has been confined to his bed several days, but is now reported to be getting better.

General Freight Agent Tebbetts, who enjoyed a holiday vacation among Boston friends, has returned and is down with a gripe.

General Manager Holdrege and General Freight Agent Miller of the U. & M., returned from the east yesterday morning.

Further than that George M. Crosby will succeed Tom Miller as general freight agent of the U. & M. and the expected appointments have as yet been settled.

Tom Godfrey, city ticket agent of the Missouri Pacific, has returned from Philadelphia, where he spent the holidays with friends.

John Lichtenberger, chief clerk to General Manager Hildebrand, of the Missouri Pacific, has fallen a victim to Russian jaundice.

An Absolute Cure. The ORIGINAL RHINESTONE OINTMENT is only put up in large two-ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for all sores, burns, wounds, chafes and all skin eruptions.
