

A UNIVERSAL PEACE CHORUS

Official Germany Singing a Song of Good Will.

MORE MUSIC THAN MEANING.

Nobody is Expected to Believe the Assurances of the Anthem and the Doors of Janna's Temple Are Not Closed.

Opening of the Reichstag.

Copyright 1890 by New York Associated Press. The Reichstag opened on Wednesday next. Bismarck though still suffering from neuritis is certain to be present.

The attitude of the government on the socialist bill is inflexible.

The national liberals have been hopeful that Prince Bismarck would, upon the eve stand together for a solid vote.

Some topics involving delicate phases of the government service, and likely to be ventilated before the Reichstag. One of these will be a consideration of the disposition of the sums confiscated during the Kulturkampf diverted into the secret service fund.

POINTS FROM PARIS.

Death of Commander Dana of the United States Navy.

Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett. Paris, Jan. 4.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—Commander William Starbuck Dana, U. S. N., died yesterday of pneumonia at his apartments in the Avenue d'Antin.

Among other suits by the Bourgeois are Mr. W. J. Moran, Mr. David B. King, Jr., and Mr. Sidell.

Mrs. Whitlaw Reid is booked to sail February 12, as is also Mr. Joseph Emery, the Cincinnati millionaire, who returned to Paris from Nice today.

Since Mrs. George Pendleton Bowler's arrival in Paris, where she is occupying apartments, society gossipers have been wondering about the report of her engagement to Mr. Astor.

Miss Marie and Mr. Harry J. Swift are among the late arrivals.

Mr. R. W. Miles sailed on the Umbria today for a brief visit.

Mrs. Kate Grawertz gave an American dinner on Wednesday, giving Mr. Holman Black, the baritone, as the musical attraction.

Whether it is because of disappointment in the art exhibit of the world's fair one cannot tell, but why do artists take flight, home ward bound?

Mr. George Bolton and Miss Herie have left for Nice.

Mrs. George Blanchard has given up her apartments and is living at the Hotel Vendome.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee, the daughter of General Robert E. Lee, who lived with Mrs. Blanchard during the winter, has left for Cairo.

Mrs. Charles Tudo Wing and her two pretty daughters have gone to Berlin.

Dr. John Davies Jones and family have gone to Dresden.

William Ritz and Galliard, directors of the opera, have found their master.

The city of actors has found their 2,000 francs for not producing "Zaire." M. Veronesi's opera, which contract time, which was yesterday.

There was yet another duty about "Ascanio." This opera, by M. Saens, was to be the first new work at the opera.

The management has been haggling back through the exhibition because of the difficulty of finding a contractor for the role of Sphorzo.

M. Galliard made a trip to Dresden to engage Mme. Chavens, but she was not to be had.

Mr. Bosman will undertake the role of La Salle.

Mr. Coscia, that of Ascanio. Miss Emma will play Colombe, and Mme. Hading the duchess d'Estampes.

Mme. Carnot has sent 1,000 francs to each of the three convents of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Lord Lytton is confined to his room with influenza.

The marquis Dolabriffe, aged fifty-nine, is dead.

The Princess de Gleka has died at her hotel in the Rue du Cirque at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Warin have left Paris for the Savoy hotel, London.

The personnel of the Parisian embassy are to attend the mass, which will be celebrated at the Rue d'Anvers church tomorrow morning to usher in the new year, Russian style.

The committee has been formed to organize a sale of the works of art and a theatrical performance for the benefit of the three children of the late M. Jules Garnier, the artist.

Shoppers are disappointed. The frost of the last three days was thought to be permanent, but a thaw set in yesterday afternoon.

A warm drizzling rain began to fall and continued till evening. The school boys and school girls of Paris will bless the influenza.

The Journal officially announces the opening of the lycées and colleges after the holidays is postponed from January 5 to January 12.

The extra work will be used further in getting cured or getting ill by stuffing with soups and other delicacies.

In Paris the influenza has done its worst, which is bad enough. The sanitary condition of the city is still, however, far from satisfactory.

The significance of these figures will be appreciated when one reflects that 800 funerals a day is a very large average ordinarily, the Harangues and subsidized the Kotonots and has by treaty secured western Nyassa to the British. The Portuguese have roached Kotonots. The remaining Makonias, trusting to British protection, refuse to surrender the British flag that was presented to them, although called upon to do so by the Portuguese commander. The Portuguese thereupon again searched the steamer and compelled them to lower their ensigns. Fighting in Africa is believed to be certain.

NEW LONDON PAPERS.

Applicants for Journalistic Fame Make Their Appearance.

Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett. London, Jan. 4.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—New York department in journalism make their appearance with the first week in the new year. The speaker is not brilliant, but a brilliant first number was never seen and probably never will be. The new comer has good type, three columns on a page, causing a somewhat crowded, uninviting look.

The London Daily Graphic resembles a weekly story paper. The pictures, made from photographs, are very black and are not an overwhelming success, nearly as bad as the New York Graphic old pictures.

SCHEIDER GOES TO THE WALL.

He Travels the Way of the Transgressor with the Usual Results.

Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett. Chicago, Jan. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—"Nico" Schneider, remembered for his connection with the celebrated Cook county boodle case, made an assignment this morning to Alexander B. Schully for the benefit of his creditors. This is the second assignment made by Mr. Schneider within two years, consequently the failure is not one that will affect business circles, but there is a story said to hang over the failure that is quite interesting.

Among other suits by the Bourgeois are Mr. W. J. Moran, Mr. David B. King, Jr., and Mr. Sidell.

Mrs. Whitlaw Reid is booked to sail February 12, as is also Mr. Joseph Emery, the Cincinnati millionaire, who returned to Paris from Nice today.

Since Mrs. George Pendleton Bowler's arrival in Paris, where she is occupying apartments, society gossipers have been wondering about the report of her engagement to Mr. Astor.

Miss Marie and Mr. Harry J. Swift are among the late arrivals.

Mr. R. W. Miles sailed on the Umbria today for a brief visit.

Mrs. Kate Grawertz gave an American dinner on Wednesday, giving Mr. Holman Black, the baritone, as the musical attraction.

Whether it is because of disappointment in the art exhibit of the world's fair one cannot tell, but why do artists take flight, home ward bound?

Mr. George Bolton and Miss Herie have left for Nice.

Mrs. George Blanchard has given up her apartments and is living at the Hotel Vendome.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee, the daughter of General Robert E. Lee, who lived with Mrs. Blanchard during the winter, has left for Cairo.

Mrs. Charles Tudo Wing and her two pretty daughters have gone to Berlin.

Dr. John Davies Jones and family have gone to Dresden.

William Ritz and Galliard, directors of the opera, have found their master.

The city of actors has found their 2,000 francs for not producing "Zaire." M. Veronesi's opera, which contract time, which was yesterday.

There was yet another duty about "Ascanio." This opera, by M. Saens, was to be the first new work at the opera.

The management has been haggling back through the exhibition because of the difficulty of finding a contractor for the role of Sphorzo.

M. Galliard made a trip to Dresden to engage Mme. Chavens, but she was not to be had.

Mr. Bosman will undertake the role of La Salle.

Mr. Coscia, that of Ascanio. Miss Emma will play Colombe, and Mme. Hading the duchess d'Estampes.

Mme. Carnot has sent 1,000 francs to each of the three convents of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Lord Lytton is confined to his room with influenza.

The marquis Dolabriffe, aged fifty-nine, is dead.

The Princess de Gleka has died at her hotel in the Rue du Cirque at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Warin have left Paris for the Savoy hotel, London.

The personnel of the Parisian embassy are to attend the mass, which will be celebrated at the Rue d'Anvers church tomorrow morning to usher in the new year, Russian style.

The committee has been formed to organize a sale of the works of art and a theatrical performance for the benefit of the three children of the late M. Jules Garnier, the artist.

Shoppers are disappointed. The frost of the last three days was thought to be permanent, but a thaw set in yesterday afternoon.

A warm drizzling rain began to fall and continued till evening. The school boys and school girls of Paris will bless the influenza.

The Journal officially announces the opening of the lycées and colleges after the holidays is postponed from January 5 to January 12.

The extra work will be used further in getting cured or getting ill by stuffing with soups and other delicacies.

In Paris the influenza has done its worst, which is bad enough. The sanitary condition of the city is still, however, far from satisfactory.

The significance of these figures will be appreciated when one reflects that 800 funerals a day is a very large average ordinarily, the

HE DOESN'T LIKE A BOUNTY.

Mr. Oxnard Prefers a Tariff on Sugar.

THE TIN PLATE INDUSTRY.

There is None But a Little More Protection Will Fetch It—Nebraska and Iowa Crop Statistics—Brewer in Washington.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE.

There will be a hearing before the house committee on ways and means on next Monday which will be of especial interest to Nebraska and Iowa citizens.

It will be in relation to the beet sugar industry, in connection with the proposition to reduce the duty on imported sugar and pay a bounty for the domestic product.

SCHEIDER GOES TO THE WALL.

He Travels the Way of the Transgressor with the Usual Results.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—"Nico" Schneider, remembered for his connection with the celebrated Cook county boodle case, made an assignment this morning to Alexander B. Schully for the benefit of his creditors.

Among other suits by the Bourgeois are Mr. W. J. Moran, Mr. David B. King, Jr., and Mr. Sidell.

Mrs. Whitlaw Reid is booked to sail February 12, as is also Mr. Joseph Emery, the Cincinnati millionaire, who returned to Paris from Nice today.

Since Mrs. George Pendleton Bowler's arrival in Paris, where she is occupying apartments, society gossipers have been wondering about the report of her engagement to Mr. Astor.

Miss Marie and Mr. Harry J. Swift are among the late arrivals.

Mr. R. W. Miles sailed on the Umbria today for a brief visit.

Mrs. Kate Grawertz gave an American dinner on Wednesday, giving Mr. Holman Black, the baritone, as the musical attraction.

Whether it is because of disappointment in the art exhibit of the world's fair one cannot tell, but why do artists take flight, home ward bound?

Mr. George Bolton and Miss Herie have left for Nice.

Mrs. George Blanchard has given up her apartments and is living at the Hotel Vendome.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee, the daughter of General Robert E. Lee, who lived with Mrs. Blanchard during the winter, has left for Cairo.

Mrs. Charles Tudo Wing and her two pretty daughters have gone to Berlin.

Dr. John Davies Jones and family have gone to Dresden.

William Ritz and Galliard, directors of the opera, have found their master.

The city of actors has found their 2,000 francs for not producing "Zaire." M. Veronesi's opera, which contract time, which was yesterday.

There was yet another duty about "Ascanio." This opera, by M. Saens, was to be the first new work at the opera.

The management has been haggling back through the exhibition because of the difficulty of finding a contractor for the role of Sphorzo.

M. Galliard made a trip to Dresden to engage Mme. Chavens, but she was not to be had.

Mr. Bosman will undertake the role of La Salle.

Mr. Coscia, that of Ascanio. Miss Emma will play Colombe, and Mme. Hading the duchess d'Estampes.

Mme. Carnot has sent 1,000 francs to each of the three convents of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Lord Lytton is confined to his room with influenza.

The marquis Dolabriffe, aged fifty-nine, is dead.

The Princess de Gleka has died at her hotel in the Rue du Cirque at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Warin have left Paris for the Savoy hotel, London.

The personnel of the Parisian embassy are to attend the mass, which will be celebrated at the Rue d'Anvers church tomorrow morning to usher in the new year, Russian style.

The committee has been formed to organize a sale of the works of art and a theatrical performance for the benefit of the three children of the late M. Jules Garnier, the artist.

Shoppers are disappointed. The frost of the last three days was thought to be permanent, but a thaw set in yesterday afternoon.

A warm drizzling rain began to fall and continued till evening. The school boys and school girls of Paris will bless the influenza.

The Journal officially announces the opening of the lycées and colleges after the holidays is postponed from January 5 to January 12.

The extra work will be used further in getting cured or getting ill by stuffing with soups and other delicacies.

In Paris the influenza has done its worst, which is bad enough. The sanitary condition of the city is still, however, far from satisfactory.

The significance of these figures will be appreciated when one reflects that 800 funerals a day is a very large average ordinarily, the

HE DOESN'T LIKE A BOUNTY.

Mr. Oxnard Prefers a Tariff on Sugar.

THE TIN PLATE INDUSTRY.

There is None But a Little More Protection Will Fetch It—Nebraska and Iowa Crop Statistics—Brewer in Washington.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE.

There will be a hearing before the house committee on ways and means on next Monday which will be of especial interest to Nebraska and Iowa citizens.

It will be in relation to the beet sugar industry, in connection with the proposition to reduce the duty on imported sugar and pay a bounty for the domestic product.

SCHEIDER GOES TO THE WALL.

He Travels the Way of the Transgressor with the Usual Results.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—"Nico" Schneider, remembered for his connection with the celebrated Cook county boodle case, made an assignment this morning to Alexander B. Schully for the benefit of his creditors.

Among other suits by the Bourgeois are Mr. W. J. Moran, Mr. David B. King, Jr., and Mr. Sidell.

Mrs. Whitlaw Reid is booked to sail February 12, as is also Mr. Joseph Emery, the Cincinnati millionaire, who returned to Paris from Nice today.

Since Mrs. George Pendleton Bowler's arrival in Paris, where she is occupying apartments, society gossipers have been wondering about the report of her engagement to Mr. Astor.

Miss Marie and Mr. Harry J. Swift are among the late arrivals.

Mr. R. W. Miles sailed on the Umbria today for a brief visit.

Mrs. Kate Grawertz gave an American dinner on Wednesday, giving Mr. Holman Black, the baritone, as the musical attraction.

Whether it is because of disappointment in the art exhibit of the world's fair one cannot tell, but why do artists take flight, home ward bound?

Mr. George Bolton and Miss Herie have left for Nice.

Mrs. George Blanchard has given up her apartments and is living at the Hotel Vendome.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee, the daughter of General Robert E. Lee, who lived with Mrs. Blanchard during the winter, has left for Cairo.

Mrs. Charles Tudo Wing and her two pretty daughters have gone to Berlin.

Dr. John Davies Jones and family have gone to Dresden.

William Ritz and Galliard, directors of the opera, have found their master.

The city of actors has found their 2,000 francs for not producing "Zaire." M. Veronesi's opera, which contract time, which was yesterday.

There was yet another duty about "Ascanio." This opera, by M. Saens, was to be the first new work at the opera.

The management has been haggling back through the exhibition because of the difficulty of finding a contractor for the role of Sphorzo.

M. Galliard made a trip to Dresden to engage Mme. Chavens, but she was not to be had.

Mr. Bosman will undertake the role of La Salle.

Mr. Coscia, that of Ascanio. Miss Emma will play Colombe, and Mme. Hading the duchess d'Estampes.

Mme. Carnot has sent 1,000 francs to each of the three convents of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Lord Lytton is confined to his room with influenza.

The marquis Dolabriffe, aged fifty-nine, is dead.

The Princess de Gleka has died at her hotel in the Rue du Cirque at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Warin have left Paris for the Savoy hotel, London.

The personnel of the Parisian embassy are to attend the mass, which will be celebrated at the Rue d'Anvers church tomorrow morning to usher in the new year, Russian style.

The committee has been formed to organize a sale of the works of art and a theatrical performance for the benefit of the three children of the late M. Jules Garnier, the artist.

Shoppers are disappointed. The frost of the last three days was thought to be permanent, but a thaw set in yesterday afternoon.

A warm drizzling rain began to fall and continued till evening. The school boys and school girls of Paris will bless the influenza.

The Journal officially announces the opening of the lycées and colleges after the holidays is postponed from January 5 to January 12.

The extra work will be used further in getting cured or getting ill by stuffing with soups and other delicacies.

In Paris the influenza has done its worst, which is bad enough. The sanitary condition of the city is still, however, far from satisfactory.

The significance of these figures will be appreciated when one reflects that 800 funerals a day is a very large average ordinarily, the

HE DOESN'T LIKE A BOUNTY.

Mr. Oxnard Prefers a Tariff on Sugar.

THE TIN PLATE INDUSTRY.

There is None But a Little More Protection Will Fetch It—Nebraska and Iowa Crop Statistics—Brewer in Washington.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE.

There will be a hearing before the house committee on ways and means on next Monday which will be of especial interest to Nebraska and Iowa citizens.

It will be in relation to the beet sugar industry, in connection with the proposition to reduce the duty on imported sugar and pay a bounty for the domestic product.

SCHEIDER GOES TO THE WALL.

He Travels the Way of the Transgressor with the Usual Results.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—"Nico" Schneider, remembered for his connection with the celebrated Cook county boodle case, made an assignment this morning to Alexander B. Schully for the benefit of his creditors.

Among other suits by the Bourgeois are Mr. W. J. Moran, Mr. David B. King, Jr., and Mr. Sidell.

Mrs. Whitlaw Reid is booked to sail February 12, as is also Mr. Joseph Emery, the Cincinnati millionaire, who returned to Paris from Nice today.

Since Mrs. George Pendleton Bowler's arrival in Paris, where she is occupying apartments, society gossipers have been wondering about the report of her engagement to Mr. Astor.

Miss Marie and Mr. Harry J. Swift are among the late arrivals.

Mr. R. W. Miles sailed on the Umbria today for a brief visit.

Mrs. Kate Grawertz gave an American dinner on Wednesday, giving Mr. Holman Black, the baritone, as the musical attraction.

Whether it is because of disappointment in the art exhibit of the world's fair one cannot tell, but why do artists take flight, home ward bound?

Mr. George Bolton and Miss Herie have left for Nice.

Mrs. George Blanchard has given up her apartments and is living at the Hotel Vendome.

Miss Mary Curtis Lee, the daughter of General Robert E. Lee, who lived with Mrs. Blanchard during the winter, has left for Cairo.

Mrs. Charles Tudo Wing and her two pretty daughters have gone to Berlin.

Dr. John Davies Jones and family have gone to Dresden.

William Ritz and Galliard, directors of the opera, have found their master.

The city of actors has found their 2,000 francs for not producing "Zaire." M. Veronesi's opera, which contract time, which was yesterday.

There was yet another duty about "Ascanio." This opera, by M. Saens, was to be the first new work at the opera.

The management has been haggling back through the exhibition because of the difficulty of finding a contractor for the role of Sphorzo.

M. Galliard made a trip to Dresden to engage Mme. Chavens, but she was not to be had.

Mr. Bosman will undertake the role of La Salle.

Mr. Coscia, that of Ascanio. Miss Emma will play Colombe, and Mme. Hading the duchess d'Estampes.

Mme. Carnot has sent 1,000 francs to each of the three convents of the Little Sisters of the Poor.

Lord Lytton is confined to his room with influenza.

The marquis Dolabriffe, aged fifty-nine, is dead.

The Princess de Gleka has died at her hotel in the Rue du Cirque at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Warin have left Paris for the Savoy hotel, London.

The personnel of the Parisian embassy are to attend the mass, which will be celebrated at the Rue d'Anvers church tomorrow morning to usher in the new year, Russian style.

The committee has been formed to organize a sale of the works of art and a theatrical performance for the benefit of the three children of the late M. Jules Garnier, the artist.

Shoppers are disappointed. The frost of the last three days was thought to be permanent, but a thaw set in yesterday afternoon.