THE CAPITAL CITY GRIST.

A Week of Brilliant Social Happenings.

GOSSIP FROM THE STATE HOUSE.

The Supreme Court Clerkship—Star Bakery Burned—The State Historical Society—Lincoln in Brief.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE,
LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 4.

Aside from the New Year's receptions, the social event of the week was the delightful dancing party Thursday evening at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheldon. The rooms were handsomely decorated with roses and sunials and a smilax rope, forming a large letter "S," hung in the center of the dining room.

A parlor recital under the direction of the Woman's Christian Association was given last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Imhoff. The programme was provided by Dr. George E. Andrus, Mrs. P. O. M. Raymond, Mrs. Kate B. Cheney, Miss Anna V. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Anna Metcalf.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawyer entertained the members of the board of education, the county superintendent and his wife and the teachers of the city schools on Monday evening.

Mrs. Clara Smith, 1631 F street, gave a delightful party Thursday evening and entertained Misses Hale, Buford, Fowler and Becher and Messrs. Becher, Hale, Hatch, Fron, Clark and Hallatt.

A meeting of the charity ball committee was held this evening at Huffman & Heidt's.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Albert Kastensteiner of this city to Miss Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Levi of Nebraska City, on Wednesday, January 10. The wedding will be at home at 1000 E street after January 25.

The State Historical Society.

The annual meeting of the State Historical society will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 14 and 15, in the chapel of the State university in this city. The following is the programme:

Tuesday Evening—"The Christening of the Plate," by Judge James W. Savage, Omaha; "The Educational History of Omaha," by Mrs. M. H. Newton, Omaha; "Development of the Free Trade Doctrine," by the Rev. W. H. Bishop, Blair; election and reports of officers.

Wednesday Evening—"American State Legislatures and Legislation," by the Hon. Albert Wickes, Lincoln; "Salmon Witchcraft," Prof. J. S. Kingsley, Lincoln.

The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock each evening. The public is cordially invited.

State House Gossip.

Mr. Morse, the treasurer of Franklin county, made settlement today with the state treasurer, turning in $3,754.14. This was the first settlement of the year. E. J. Hodderick, treasurer of Gage county, paid in $8,946.88 on account.

Secretary Gulledge of the state board of transportation came down from home today to look us up in his office. Nothing has yet been done in the matter of arriving at a decision in the Osceola elevator case.

There is absolutely nothing new regarding the clerkship of the supreme court. As was announced in THE BEE at the time, there is no question but what the appointment of Walter A. Bass will be a temporary expedient to bridge over the winter until the January meeting of the supreme court. There is also no doubt but it was intended that the present chief justice, the Hon. M. B. Rose of Wahoo, was to be made clerk. Judge Rose is arranging to become a citizen of Lincoln, and this looks as if the deal was to be carried out. As to the second place, the matter is perhaps even more deeply shrouded in mystery. It is known that Mr. and Mrs. Rose are candidates. However, the matter lies with Judge Norval Justice Cobb is undoubtedly for the appointment of Wheeler, the old deputy; Maxwell is undoubtedly for Reed; and Norval will have his vote. Some say that he is for Ed Caron, but the probabilities are not one but himself knows anything of his intentions. He is very guarded in what he says.

Marshal Carder officially notifications last week that he would be expected to hand in his resignation on the 9th, as Sheriff. Meleek had been appointed marshal, to take effect on that day. It is also said that Carder is pulling every friend he has into action to act on Meleek to get him to refuse to accept the appointment.

The supreme court meets Tuesday for the trial of causes arising in the First judicial district, comprising the counties of Gage, Johnson, Richardson, Pawnee and Nemaha in the order named.

The Star Bakery Burned.

About 2.10 this morning the Star bakery at Thirteenth and V streets was discovered to be on fire, and some one connected with the establishment ran very near down to O street before they could find a place to telephone the department. The department, when notified, responded promptly, but the fire had made good headway in the building. Vandervoort, the fire chief, arrived at once and sent for Ed Caron, who was at the capitol today.

E. G. Day, Syracuse; W. T. Richardson, David City; A. M. Hopkins, C. E. Valentine, William S. Heiter, G. McGehee, C. A. Pugh, W. H. Colman, George W. Colman, D. W. Davis, all at the capitol today.

The agitation for electric street railways for this city continues.

M. W. Chaffield, the gentleman mentioned in connection with Miss Hepzibah Woodward's disappearance from her home, has made his bow to the public in a morning newspaper.

The Star correspondent, as well as a half-dozen other newspaper men, made diligent search for him all day yesterday without success. He denies that he was ever in touch with the lady.

Mr. Greevy, traveling passenger agent of the Union Pacific, was a caller at Mr. Rosewater's office this morning.

The annual meeting of the state stenographers' association is held this evening at the district court room.

A case of scarlet fever is reported in the family of a Mrs. Cook at Twenty-ninth and M.

New Directors.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 to 5 p.m. the annual election of five directors of the board of trade will take place. Three of these are to serve for three years in place of Euclid Martin, C. F. Goodman, and P. E. Lier, whose terms expire, and two for one year in place of H. H. Meday and N. Merriam, whose terms expire in January, 1891.

The latter, however, resigned some time ago and the election was postponed. The vacancy was filled by E. B. Bruce and F. E. Hallier, who were appointed by the board of directors.

The Postoffice Report.

The largest sales of stamps and postal cards ever known in the history of the Omaha postoffice were during December, just closed, when they aggregated $1,945.15. The annual report of the United States superintendent of the free delivery system shows that the Omaha office is making more money for the government than any city west of St. Louis.

Brown's Shortage Made Good.

Mr. Lamb, the Council Bluffs stationer, through whose influence C. H. Brown, the defaulting salesman for Dean, Armstrong & Co. of Omaha, got his place yesterday, is giving a sixty-day note covering the $150 shortage, and Young Brown was released from custody.

Over Quarter of a Million.

The internal revenue collections of the Omaha office for the month of December were:

Bond stamps.	$12,000.00
Stamps.	237,300.00
Cigar and cigarette stamps.	5,625.00
