

THE DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

No Material Change in the Situation in the Iowa House.

FIVE BALLOTS WITHOUT RESULT.

A Compromise and a Fair Division of the Spoils the Probable Outcome of the Difficulty.

The Iowa Legislature.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The legislature is still deadlocked owing to the failure of the house to organize.

The house held but one session today. It met at 10 a. m. and took five ballots for temporary clerk, each resulting in a tie, and then adjourned till tomorrow.

The Democrats as a party are opposed to Wilson, and will never vote for him. Some of them said today that if the republicans would accept the compromise...

The Burlington Tournament. BURLINGTON, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Des Moines County Trap Shooters' association commenced a two days' tournament at trap shooting in this city today.

Crushed in a Coal Shaft. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—This morning at 7:30 o'clock a man named Walter Hutto was killed by being crushed between the timbers of the main landing and the cage in a shaft.

Sandbagged and Robbed. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Henry Hanson, a young Norwegian living in Goldfield, was sandbagged and robbed of $315 on the morning of the 13th.

The Soldiers' Monument Commission. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The soldiers' monument commission decided today to recommend to the legislature that it appropriate $300,000 for a suitable memorial in memory of Iowa soldiers who died in the late war.

In the Senate.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[The first thing done in the senate this morning was the swearing in of the new members. After the introduction of a few resolutions the senate adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon to give the democrats time to caucus on candidates for senate positions.

The South Dakota Legislature. Pierre, S. D., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The legislature today took its first business session.

Caused a Collision. CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 14.—[In yesterday's storm a flat car was blown onto the main track at Bennett's Creek. It rolled rapidly down the track, striking a passenger train.

Play a Havoc. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 14.—The severe wind storm of yesterday and last night played havoc with the oil interests of this section of the state.

Caused a Collision. CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 14.—[In yesterday's storm a flat car was blown onto the main track at Bennett's Creek. It rolled rapidly down the track, striking a passenger train.

Great Damage Done. UTAH, N. Y., Jan. 14.—The loss along the river by yesterday's storm will amount to $300,000.

Two Ships Collide. LA HOUROUQUE and the Steamer Corridon. NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The steamer La Houroque, from Havre, at this port, experienced very heavy weather throughout its passage.

A Brilliant Affair. Governor Larrabee Tenders a Reception to His Successor.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The governor's reception tonight to Governor-elect Hies was a brilliant affair.

Gas Works Explode in Wales. LONDON, Jan. 14.—At Festiniog, in Wales, the gas works exploded today. The manager was blown to atoms and many persons were injured.

THE RUSSIAN NEW YEAR.

Celebration of the Event at the St. Petersburg Winter Palace.

SOME OF THE COSTUMES WORN.

Minister Grant Dines for the First Time with Emperor Franz Joseph—Shipwrecked American Sailors Picked Up.

PERU'S BONDS.

Operations Rather Puzzling to Those Not on the Inside. LONDON, Jan. 14.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—Operations in Peru were rather puzzling this afternoon to those who were not on the inside.

The carina looked superb in a dress of gold brocade, with a train four metres long, trimmed a meter deep at the end with Russian sable, the trimming gradually narrowing to the waist.

SHIPWRECKED SAILORS. Twelve Men of an American Vessel Suffer Terrible Privations.

NEWCASTLE, Jan. 14.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—The steamer Elfrida arrived off Dover this afternoon and sent ashore in a lifeboat a crew of twelve men.

MINISTER GRANT DINED. He Sits at the Emperor's Table for the First Time.

STANLEY ARRIVES AT CAIRO. The Great Explorer Meets with a Triumphant Reception.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured. LONDON, Jan. 14.—Seventy English miners were injured yesterday by a train smash-up at Chesterfield.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured. LONDON, Jan. 14.—Seventy English miners were injured yesterday by a train smash-up at Chesterfield.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured. LONDON, Jan. 14.—Seventy English miners were injured yesterday by a train smash-up at Chesterfield.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

PREPARING A TARIFF BILL.

A Measure Expected to be Ready Within a Month.

SUGAR DUTIES WILL BE CUT.

Tobacco Likely to Remain Untouched—A General Reduction in Raw Materials Probable—World's Fair Speculation.

WASHINGTON FEBRUARY THE OMAHA BEE.

There will be no more regular hearings granted the various interests by the house committee on ways and means.

The general idea seems to be that the proposed duty on the minimum required for the maintenance of the government will be expected within a month and then will begin the general debate which must result in the final adoption of all some kind.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

KUNZE GETS A NEW TRIAL.

The Little Dutchman Almost Certain of His Liberty.

NO CHANCE FOR THE OTHERS.

The Three Irishmen Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Life—Each Prisoner Earnestly Protests His Innocence.

Judge McConnell's Decision.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Judge McConnell this afternoon in the Cronin case granted the application of Kunze for a new trial, but denied the motion of the other defendants.

Judge McConnell in his decision said: "I think it would be a more prudent course for me to take more time to deliberate on this subject. I would not arrive at any definite or final conclusion in several days than I have now."

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The first of the evening state receptions of President Harrison's administration was quite a brilliant affair.

THE DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

No Material Change in the Situation in the Iowa House.

FIVE BALLOTS WITHOUT RESULT.

A Compromise and a Fair Division of the Spoils the Probable Outcome of the Difficulty.

The Iowa Legislature.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The legislature is still deadlocked owing to the failure of the house to organize.

The house held but one session today. It met at 10 a. m. and took five ballots for temporary clerk, each resulting in a tie, and then adjourned till tomorrow.

The Democrats as a party are opposed to Wilson, and will never vote for him. Some of them said today that if the republicans would accept the compromise...

The Burlington Tournament. BURLINGTON, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Des Moines County Trap Shooters' association commenced a two days' tournament at trap shooting in this city today.

Crushed in a Coal Shaft. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—This morning at 7:30 o'clock a man named Walter Hutto was killed by being crushed between the timbers of the main landing and the cage in a shaft.

Sandbagged and Robbed. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Henry Hanson, a young Norwegian living in Goldfield, was sandbagged and robbed of $315 on the morning of the 13th.

The Soldiers' Monument Commission. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The soldiers' monument commission decided today to recommend to the legislature that it appropriate $300,000 for a suitable memorial in memory of Iowa soldiers who died in the late war.

In the Senate.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[The first thing done in the senate this morning was the swearing in of the new members. After the introduction of a few resolutions the senate adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon to give the democrats time to caucus on candidates for senate positions.

The South Dakota Legislature. Pierre, S. D., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The legislature today took its first business session.

Caused a Collision. CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 14.—[In yesterday's storm a flat car was blown onto the main track at Bennett's Creek. It rolled rapidly down the track, striking a passenger train.

Play a Havoc. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 14.—The severe wind storm of yesterday and last night played havoc with the oil interests of this section of the state.

Caused a Collision. CHATHAM, Ont., Jan. 14.—[In yesterday's storm a flat car was blown onto the main track at Bennett's Creek. It rolled rapidly down the track, striking a passenger train.

Great Damage Done. UTAH, N. Y., Jan. 14.—The loss along the river by yesterday's storm will amount to $300,000.

Two Ships Collide. LA HOUROUQUE and the Steamer Corridon. NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The steamer La Houroque, from Havre, at this port, experienced very heavy weather throughout its passage.

A Brilliant Affair. Governor Larrabee Tenders a Reception to His Successor.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 14.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The governor's reception tonight to Governor-elect Hies was a brilliant affair.

Gas Works Explode in Wales. LONDON, Jan. 14.—At Festiniog, in Wales, the gas works exploded today. The manager was blown to atoms and many persons were injured.

THE RUSSIAN NEW YEAR.

Celebration of the Event at the St. Petersburg Winter Palace.

SOME OF THE COSTUMES WORN.

Minister Grant Dines for the First Time with Emperor Franz Joseph—Shipwrecked American Sailors Picked Up.

PERU'S BONDS.

Operations Rather Puzzling to Those Not on the Inside. LONDON, Jan. 14.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—Operations in Peru were rather puzzling this afternoon to those who were not on the inside.

The carina looked superb in a dress of gold brocade, with a train four metres long, trimmed a meter deep at the end with Russian sable, the trimming gradually narrowing to the waist.

SHIPWRECKED SAILORS. Twelve Men of an American Vessel Suffer Terrible Privations.

NEWCASTLE, Jan. 14.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to The Bee.]—The steamer Elfrida arrived off Dover this afternoon and sent ashore in a lifeboat a crew of twelve men.

MINISTER GRANT DINED. He Sits at the Emperor's Table for the First Time.

STANLEY ARRIVES AT CAIRO. The Great Explorer Meets with a Triumphant Reception.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured. LONDON, Jan. 14.—Seventy English miners were injured yesterday by a train smash-up at Chesterfield.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured. LONDON, Jan. 14.—Seventy English miners were injured yesterday by a train smash-up at Chesterfield.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS. The Pope and Eight Cardinals are Sick.

English Miners Injured. LONDON, Jan. 14.—Seventy English miners were injured yesterday by a train smash-up at Chesterfield.

STRETTONS, Pa., Jan. 14.—Two freight trains collided today, smashed ten cars and killed the conductor and hurt several of the crew.