

AUTOCRAT OF THE HOUSE.

Iowa's Lower Branch Controlled by the Union Labor Member.

HE WANTS THE SPEAKERSHIP. The Republicans Say It Cannot Be—Allison's Last Message—An Unprofitable Railroad.

Larrabee instead of Allison for senator. The republican farmers of the state believe in Allison and are proud of him, and want to see him re-elected. But the democrats who represent the poorer class of the discontented and unhappy farmers, the fellows who haven't voted a straight republican ticket for many years, and parate them as representatives of their constituency, are in a cultural state. The fraud is becoming very apparent.

ALL EYES ON ONE MAN. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 19.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The air is full of rumors tonight of possible schemes and compromises for breaking the legislative deadlock tomorrow.

The union labor member, who holds the key to the situation, is home consulting with a party of the members of the union labor party in the house, and he thinks that his party should have ample recognition, so he asks for the speakership as about the proper thing. If the republicans will give it to him he will help them organize the house. They never will do it, but they offer a concession in suggesting a former union labor man for clerk, and they hope to get his vote for speaker.

THE REPUBLICANS STIFFENED UP THEIR BACKS considerably in the last forty-eight hours. They are now against any compromise that gives the democrats the speaker. They say they will surrender the principle that they have long held, but they will not surrender it until they have secured all the independent voters before they will give it to the democrats, who have fifty votes and there is one union labor member who has voted with the democrats as far as they have refused to enter their caucus. The republicans say that since there are three parties represented the democrats have no right to the speakership and will never have it.

STILL IN DEADLOCK. Both Parties Stand Glaring at Each Other. Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 19.—[Special to The Bee.]—One week of the legislative session has passed, and the house and senate are still in deadlock. Both parties stand like gladiators glaring at each other and the end is not yet.

The four independents, Monk of Lyon, McDermid of Adair, Rae of Monona and Smith of Boone, no matter how independent they might have been when asking for republican votes, proved themselves rock-secure democrats on roll call, and took over, bag and baggage, into the democratic camp.

Ewart of Poweshoke, the union labor member, but he has voted with them steadily all week and dislikes very much to break the deadlock on his own responsibility. He is inclined to oppose to Senator Allison and would rather the legislature should not organize at all than to see Allison elected.

GOVERNOR-ELECT HOES REMAINED in the city only a short time. He became acquainted with the members of the legislature and was invited to the party of the officers of the house to wait for the opening of the session. He is not believed to have interfered in any way, not even by a suggestion, with the organization of the house. He seems willing to take his time and wait the outcome, trusting that he may bring joy to the democratic heart. The republicans have been looking for a certain amount of support from the democrats, but they have not given them any.

THE MEMBERS OF THE INTERVIEWS EVIDENCE the best manner of breaking the deadlock. The republicans, however, are absolutely unanimous, while a spirit of restlessness pervades the democrats. How can we maintain this present attitude and then face the 500 or 600 republican members of the legislature? The democrats, however, are divided into several camps. The so-called independent are asking themselves. The democrats have put on a bold front, and even their more conservative members have, to a certain extent, settled down to a regular siege. Representative Hotchkiss of Davis, who is more of a greenbacker than a democrat, in an interview today said that he was opposed to the ever-lasting hills; that they were coming for principle, and the republicans must come to their terms or not organize at all.

THE POLICE OF THIS CITY recently made a remarkable capture in getting Mrs. Belle Henderson who escaped seven months ago from the same place in this city. She is a woman of the name of Mrs. Henderson. While living in Des Moines she was charged with the police and though guilty of repeated larcenies she was not sent to prison from the city. It was after a crime there that she was arrested and sent to prison from the city she escaped and returned to Des Moines. She is a woman of the name of Mrs. Henderson. While living in Des Moines she was charged with the police and though guilty of repeated larcenies she was not sent to prison from the city. It was after a crime there that she was arrested and sent to prison from the city she escaped and returned to Des Moines.

THE SAME OLD BLAINE STORY

A Democratic Paper Says He Will Resign. REED'S CHARACTER CHART. "K" Means "Kicker," "H. K." is "Hard Kicker," and "H. H. K." appears After some Name—Mrs. Harrison Quite Handshaking.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BECK. Today's Washington Herald (dem.) gives prominence to a half-column statement to the effect that Secretary Blaine intends to resign. The Herald goes into the details of the alleged dissatisfaction of Secretary Blaine and attempts to show that the relations between him and the president have never been very close or pleasant and that the points of sympathy between the two men are few. It says that if Mr. Blaine were younger and he had further political honors in view he might continue to bear the burdens of office despite the disappointments and annoyance to which he has been subjected. It affects to think that the death of his son Walker will furnish additional and strong reasons for Mr. Blaine to quit the position at the state department. This statement will doubtless be sent broadcast by representatives of the democratic press and will be given to it by the press of the other side.

ENGLAND AND PORTUGAL. Talk About Submitting Their Differences to Arbitration. [Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—It seems to be taken for granted in this country that the Portuguese difficulty is at an end, but there are many reasons for doubting this view which are given in our London correspondence and they intend to press their demands for arbitration. The Official Journal of St. Petersburg comes forward with an opportunity for them to enforce this demand. "The English are bound," says this authority, "to submit the case to arbitrators." If this attitude be seriously persisted in by the English, not only at the beginning of the complications arising out of the African dispute, Arbitration means that England will be ruled as in the wrong, and not only that, but she will probably come out of court with fewer votes in Africa than she had when she went into it. There was never any other result from arbitration where England was concerned. Russia well knows that and may press her claims with confidence and very reason. The issue of the affair all depends upon one thing: are the great powers or some of them looking around for an excuse to break the present truce of Europe? If they are, a quarrel between England and Portugal will afford them the desired opportunity and nothing that we can now do will prevent it.

SEVERE STORM IN GREAT BRITAIN. [Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—The storm which the Herald weather bureau in New York predicted for Friday, due warning being printed in the London edition's cable dispatches, has reached this coast with all promptness. Severe gales were experienced and much damage is reported. Twenty cross-channel steamers were driven to shore. Two days ago a gale blew from the north-west and our coast was struck by a south-west, causing a very rapid fall of the barometer in those regions and easterly to westerly gales in all parts of the kingdom. The gales were much more severe over the northern and northern-western parts of the islands than they were in the south. At London at 3 p. m. today the barometer was 29.8 at Cromlech, 30.0 at the London S. E., and 30.2 at the continent. There were disturbances accompanied by thunder and lightning over all the northern and western parts of the kingdom and a fall of rain. Throughout Great Britain and a greater part of France hail fell in a few places. The storm in Ireland was particularly severe. In the morning steamers report tremendous seas. The Hothia and Wisconsin were much delayed.

THE MEYER TRAGEDY. [Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] VIENNA, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—An extraordinary and very sensational version of the Meyer tragedy has been published in the Vienna papers, but is, however, not credited in court circles at Houbourg. It is that Archduke Rudolf and the young Baroness St. Barbe were betrothed, and it is whispered that Emperor Francis Joseph made love to Baroness St. Barbe and the heroine of the Meyer tragedy was born to them; that when the facts were told to Archduke Rudolf he was so affected by the revelation of the horrible secret that he suicided. The only basis for the story seems to be the report that when Count Hoyos brought the news to the emperor he exclaimed: "My son, my daughter." The story has recurred and renewed such gossip.

THE BANQUET TO STANLEY. [Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] CAIRO, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—Great preparations have been made for the banquet to Stanley tomorrow night to be given by the Egyptian government. His Excellency will be present. Last night the whole party dined with Sir Evelyn Baring. Stanley, though quite well, will not go to Europe for some time, but will remain in Egypt for a short time to rest. Great telegrams from Stanley's progress towards recovery slow but sure.

INFLUENZA DISSEMINATING IN FRANCE. [Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett.] PARIS, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—The influenza is going almost every where. Returns for the past few days show that the mortality in Paris is fast falling to its normal rate. Telegrams from the provinces fall like a gladsome tale except in Lille, Marseille, Limoges and St. Etienne.

A FATAL SALOON ROW. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—A saloon row between Thomas Carey, in the latter's saloon, followed Kinney home, asked him out and renewed the quarrel. Kinney stabbed Carey in the hip and he himself received a bullet in the hand.

THE CLEARANCE RECORD.

FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS OF THE COUNTRY FOR THE PAST WEEK.

Table showing clearance records for various cities including Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, New Orleans, St. Paul, etc., with columns for amount cleared and percentage change.

THE FIELD AGAINST CHICAGO.

It will be a very warm and exciting fight from now on till the question of locating the world's fair is settled. Chicago, He is said to be the special committee to consider the subject. The name of Mr. Buchanan of New Jersey, a gentleman of high character and long and distinguished public life, is mentioned.

AN INNOVATION BY MRS. HARRISON.

Mrs. Harrison has quit the custom of handshaking at the white house receptions. She is said to have been the first woman who was greeted by the president in this manner. It is said that she was the first woman to be greeted by the president in this manner.

A MORMON DELEGATION.

In an interview which your correspondent had with Utah Commissioner James H. Orrison and which was published throughout the country, the aims and purposes of the Mormon church were thoroughly explained. It is said that the Mormon church is not a religious organization, but a political party. It is said that the Mormon church is not a religious organization, but a political party.

Packing House Coopers Restless.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—[It is possible that the coopers employed in the shops connected with the packing houses at the stock yards will strike tomorrow. Delegates from forty shops met privately this afternoon and so decided to suspend several of the delegates. The men are receiving 30 cents for barrels and 35 cents for hides. The cause of the proposed strike is the refusal of the employers to pay an increase of 5 cents per barrel and 10 cents per hundred for hides. The coopers are confident of success.

The Fire Record.

ALTON, Mo., Jan. 19.—[The business portion of the village of Prussia was destroyed by fire this morning. Several occupants of the hotel had narrow escapes. The losses will aggregate $60,000. KANSAS CITY, Jan. 19.—[The industrial losses were destroyed tonight by fire loss, $30,000.

THE WEATHER FORECAST.

For Omaha and vicinity: Fair weather, Nebraska—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature.

THE BOMBIERS CONFERENCE.

VIENNA, Jan. 19.—[The Bohemian conference today the delegates signed the protocol, which will be published on the 20th. Count von Taaffe, declaring the conference closed, thanked all the delegates and especially Prince Schoenberg. The Czech papers are not enthusiastic over the results of the conference. The Narodni Listy says: "The operation has been a complete success. The patient is dead."

A PROMINENT VICTIM.

Solicitor General Chapman Succumbs to La Grippe. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Solicitor General Orlow W. Chapman of New York died this morning at his residence in this city of pneumonia. His death following so closely after that of Walker Blaine has produced deep sorrow here. His end was peaceful and he passed away surrounded by his wife, Attorney General Miller, who has been with him almost constantly during his illness, Mrs. Miller and Dr. Johnson, the attending physician.

Mr. Chapman was first taken ill about three weeks ago with a gripple. He recovered from that illness and intended upon immediately resuming his duties at the office. His exposure resulted in a relapse, accompanied by serious complications in addition to the grippe, as a result of which he died. The funeral services will be held here tomorrow at the late residence of the deceased and will be attended by the president, members of the cabinet and the justices of the supreme court. His remains will be taken to his home in Hinghamton, N. Y., for interment.

Mr. Chapman was about sixty-four years of age and for a long time was a resident of Hinghamton, N. Y., where he bore an excellent reputation as a lawyer. He was appointed solicitor general last May after the adjournment of the supreme court, but in a comparatively short time since then he has devoted his entire attention to the duties of his office. He was a member of the bar in New York and in the state of New Jersey. He was a member of the New York bar and in the state of New Jersey. He was a member of the bar in New York and in the state of New Jersey.

THE BOHEMIAN CONFERENCE.

VIENNA, Jan. 19.—[The Bohemian conference today the delegates signed the protocol, which will be published on the 20th. Count von Taaffe, declaring the conference closed, thanked all the delegates and especially Prince Schoenberg. The Czech papers are not enthusiastic over the results of the conference. The Narodni Listy says: "The operation has been a complete success. The patient is dead."

A FATAL SALOON ROW.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—A saloon row between Thomas Carey, in the latter's saloon, followed Kinney home, asked him out and renewed the quarrel. Kinney stabbed Carey in the hip and he himself received a bullet in the hand.

INFLUENZA DISSEMINATING IN FRANCE.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—The influenza is going almost every where. Returns for the past few days show that the mortality in Paris is fast falling to its normal rate. Telegrams from the provinces fall like a gladsome tale except in Lille, Marseille, Limoges and St. Etienne.

THE BANQUET TO STANLEY.

CAIRO, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—Great preparations have been made for the banquet to Stanley tomorrow night to be given by the Egyptian government. His Excellency will be present. Last night the whole party dined with Sir Evelyn Baring. Stanley, though quite well, will not go to Europe for some time, but will remain in Egypt for a short time to rest. Great telegrams from Stanley's progress towards recovery slow but sure.

THE MEYER TRAGEDY.

VIENNA, Jan. 19.—[New York Herald Cable—Special to The Bee.]—An extraordinary and very sensational version of the Meyer tragedy has been published in the Vienna papers, but is, however, not credited in court circles at Houbourg. It is that Archduke Rudolf and the young Baroness St. Barbe were betrothed, and it is whispered that Emperor Francis Joseph made love to Baroness St. Barbe and the heroine of the Meyer tragedy was born to them; that when the facts were told to Archduke Rudolf he was so affected by the revelation of the horrible secret that he suicided. The only basis for the story seems to be the report that when Count Hoyos brought the news to the emperor he exclaimed: "My son, my daughter." The story has recurred and renewed such gossip.

THE FIRE RECORD.

ALTON, Mo., Jan. 19.—[The business portion of the village of Prussia was destroyed by fire this morning. Several occupants of the hotel had narrow escapes. The losses will aggregate $60,000.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 19.—[The industrial losses were destroyed tonight by fire loss, $30,000.

Ten Thousand Cars of Nebraska Corn.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 19.—Ten thousand cars of Nebraska corn for the eastern states have accumulated at Sault Ste. Marie, and passenger trains are also being delayed.

Steamship Arrivals.

At New York—The Britanic, from Liverpool. The Atlantic, from London. The Pacific, from San Francisco. The Indian, from Bombay. The African, from Cape Town. The American, from New Orleans. The Canadian, from Montreal. The Hawaiian, from Honolulu. The Mexican, from Vera Cruz. The Cuban, from Havana. The West Indian, from Port-au-Prince. The South American, from Valparaiso. The Antarctic, from Punta Arenas. The Arctic, from Umanak. The North Atlantic, from Boston. The South Atlantic, from Cape Town. The Indian Ocean, from Bombay. The Pacific Ocean, from San Francisco. The Atlantic Ocean, from London. The Indian Ocean, from Bombay. The Pacific Ocean, from San Francisco.

The Weather Forecast.

For Omaha and vicinity: Fair weather, Nebraska—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Iowa—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Missouri—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Kansas—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Nebraska—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Oklahoma—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Arkansas—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Louisiana—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Mississippi—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Alabama—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Georgia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Florida—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For North Carolina—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For South Carolina—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Virginia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For West Virginia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Kentucky—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Tennessee—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Mississippi—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Alabama—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Georgia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Florida—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature.

BLOCKADE OF THE BEAUTIFUL.

An immense Fall of Snow Along the Central Pacific.

FEARFUL LOSS OF LIVE STOCK. Engines and Snow Plows Stuck in the Drifts—Four Hundred Passengers Sidetracked on the Oregon Short Line.

Know Everywhere.

ORION, Utah, Jan. 19.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The snow blockade on all the roads in this part of the country continues. No train on the Central Pacific since Thursday and none on the Short Line for six days. Twenty-seven relief engines sent out from stations on the Central Pacific yesterday and today are stuck in drifts, as are also several other engines. The Central Pacific has ordered a snow plow from the east and even it is sidetracked at Sherman. Word comes tonight that there is no assurance of getting this plow through before June. A special from Reno says the storm ended there last night, and that half the cattle and sheep in the state will perish. Sparks & Tinsley, in southern Utah, have lost 3,000 head of cattle. Reports from the Quin river section of Idaho say all stock will die. A train that left here for San Francisco Friday went out to Reno and returned to this city tonight. The train report is that the snow in the canyon is from thirty to sixty feet deep. Stockmen in that country say four-fifths of the live stock in the state will be lost. It has been known since the first white man penetrated these mountains. George Grayson, a wealthy stockman of Nevada, is reported to have lost 10,000 head of cattle and all on the outside. Four hundred west-bound passengers are sidetracked at Baker City, Ore. The snow is from thirty to sixty feet deep. It is reported that a terrible snow slide occurred at Red Jacket, Saturday, destroying buildings and the trunways at the mines.

As a Sample of the Experience of the Railroads with the Storm it might be stated that at Truckee, Cal., thousands of snow shovellers are now working west of Truckee on the drifts. Five engines undertook to work their way to Reno, but were only able to go one mile, when they stopped for ten hours to clear the drifts. The snow out to help them out, but they were deemed to be too late. After shoveling snow for several days the engines were sent west to Truckee. West of Truckee it is even worse. Passengers are held in Blue Canyon. A snow plow pushed by five engines for several days has been unable to get west of Truckee. Provisions stuck in the drifts and out are being carried to them on snow shovellers. The snow has piled up against the rocks and is as deep as the hills. The snow is as deep as the hills. The snow is as deep as the hills.

It is reported that a terrible snow slide occurred at Red Jacket, Saturday, destroying buildings and the trunways at the mines.

As a sample of the experience of the railroads with the storm it might be stated that at Truckee, Cal., thousands of snow shovellers are now working west of Truckee on the drifts. Five engines undertook to work their way to Reno, but were only able to go one mile, when they stopped for ten hours to clear the drifts. The snow out to help them out, but they were deemed to be too late. After shoveling snow for several days the engines were sent west to Truckee. West of Truckee it is even worse. Passengers are held in Blue Canyon. A snow plow pushed by five engines for several days has been unable to get west of Truckee. Provisions stuck in the drifts and out are being carried to them on snow shovellers. The snow has piled up against the rocks and is as deep as the hills. The snow is as deep as the hills. The snow is as deep as the hills.

NOTED AS PERSONS.

James S. Margatch of Omaha has sent to Senator Manderson a very large and unique potato which the senator has had transplanted to Secretary Rusk through the agricultural commission of Oregon. It is a very curiously shaped vegetable and creates a good deal of amusement at the agricultural department. Colonel J. G. Tilford of the Ninth cavalry is in Washington. Today's Post says: Mrs. Henry P. Blount of Walling, Pa., died this morning. She was 82 years of age. She was a member of the First Baptist church of Walling, Pa. She was a member of the First Baptist church of Walling, Pa. She was a member of the First Baptist church of Walling, Pa.

THE CLEARANCE RECORD.

Table showing clearance records for various cities including Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, New Orleans, St. Paul, etc., with columns for amount cleared and percentage change.

FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS OF THE COUNTRY FOR THE PAST WEEK.

Table showing financial transactions for various cities including Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, New Orleans, St. Paul, etc., with columns for amount cleared and percentage change.

WYOMING WEATHER.

Its Severity Causing the Shipment of Laramie, Wyo., to Nebraska.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Jan. 19.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The continued severity of the weather in western Wyoming has caused a number of prominent owners of range cattle in Uinta county to form a pool for the purpose of rounding up their cattle and sheep and shipping them to Nebraska, where feed is plenty. A large gang of cow boys are now engaged in the round-up. It is expected that the range cattle in this Wyoming will be much less than anticipated. This is the first season since 1875 that the range cattle have been so much reduced. The two thousand Shoshone river cattlemen in Carbon county are reported to be in a starving condition.

NOT EDNA WILSON.

LARAMIE, Wyo., Jan. 19.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The female body recently alleged to have been the missing Edna Wilson. A portion of the dress found on the corpse and a description of the rings were sent to the girl's mother and she says they have no resemblance with her missing daughter. There is little doubt, however, that a murder has been committed and an attempt will be made to investigate the affair. The body was found in a small house in a ravine. The body was found in a small house in a ravine. The body was found in a small house in a ravine.

Pifer Endorses Wickersham's Protest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—[A letter has been written by Governor Pifer to the health department of Chicago practically endorsing the protest of Dr. Wickersham against the shipment of cattle and sheep with lunny jaw to Chicago under the direction of Major Hall. Mrs. Foster explained the object of the non-partisan Women's Christian Temperance union to be the promotion of temperance reform with no side issues. The recent political phase of the Women's Christian Temperance union work, she said, had driven many workers from the old order. The new order would profit by the mistake of the old and would wish all God-speed in the work of reform.

The Weather Forecasts.

For Omaha and vicinity: Fair weather, Nebraska—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Iowa—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Missouri—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Kansas—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Nebraska—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Oklahoma—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Arkansas—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Louisiana—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Mississippi—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Alabama—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Georgia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Florida—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For North Carolina—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For South Carolina—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Virginia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For West Virginia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Kentucky—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Tennessee—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Mississippi—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Alabama—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Georgia—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature. For Florida—Fair; northerly winds; slight rise in temperature.

Non-Partisan W. C. T. U.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 19.—Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of Iowa addressing two large audiences to-day, in the morning at the First M. E. church and in the evening at Music Hall. Mrs. Foster explained the object of the non-partisan Women's Christian Temperance union to be the promotion of temperance reform with no side issues. The recent political phase of the Women's Christian Temperance union work, she said, had driven many workers from the old order. The new order would profit by the mistake of the old and would wish all God-speed in the work of reform.

Thinker Fester is Dead.

HELIOS, Jan. 19.—Lieutenant Rust, who was a member of Peter's expedition, has arrived here. He appears convinced that Peter is dead.