THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELER.

Something Special for Every Representative of the Grip.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR A CLUB.

Drummers Stage Theatricals—Flashes from Mormondom—Joking at Death's Door—An Epitaph—Rich Personalities.

That Traveling Men's Club. It was hoped that the commercial men's department in The Bee could start out this week with the publication of a call for a meeting of traveling men to be held in Omaha, the purpose of organizing the association of club members, which has been in the air during the past few months, and particularly within the last two weeks. The hope that such a notice would have been forthcoming was based upon statements made to a representative of THE BEE on last Thursday by Mr. C. D. Lobeck and a number of other prominent representatives of the interests of traveling men in this section of the country. There probably is some very good reason why the call was not forthcoming, and it is not the fact that the gentlemen most interested in the move were unable to get together last week, it having been learned yesterday that those traveling out of Omaha have seldom found themselves so far removed from each other as has happened to be the case during the past four days.

There seems to be no doubt whatever but that a meeting will be held within the next few days. According to the very plain and enthusiastic opinions gathered from a large number of traveling men, printed from time to time in THE BEE, an organization such as has been suggested and quite fully outlined would be of incalculable benefit in very many ways, and would meet with most hearty support when once started.

THE BEE solicits the opinion of those traveling men who have not yet been mentioned on the subject, and will be glad to print suggestions, and to receive men's club or association, with headquarters in Omaha, should be. Every gentleman traveling out of Omaha is urged to respond in this matter in time so that the organization may be published next Monday morning.

State Theatricals. The people of Springfield, Neb., were royally entertained by the following drummers one evening last week, when they presented Ed Hanna's novel burlesque, "LaGrand Go Zo," with this cast: Go Zo, the Outcast, E. Hanna; Dick, the Three Times, C. N. Price; and the Gongbeater, C. N. Price.

Ke Ko, the Gongbeater, J. E. McCracken; So So, the Gongbeater, D. B. Falter; Jimmy on the Spot, C. N. Smith; Troncher Bill, C. F. Turner; Mad as a Hatter, C. N. Price; Miss Susan Primm, C. S. DeCamp; Calamity Jane, C. N. Price; and Swamp Angel, J. R. Grath.

This very successful burlesque was produced in Omaha some time in May.

Gossip from Salt Lake. SALT LAKE, Jan. 29.—To the Editor of THE BEE: We seldom see anything in THE BEE from Salt Lake, yet this country is practically alive with traveling men of the most sociable class of boys on the road. This territory is so far away from Omaha that we feel somewhat isolated, as it were; yet we don't lose our cast or identity with Omaha when the monthly stipend is due or time for the annual round-up approaches. Commencing with 1890 the following gentlemen have thus far put in an appearance as representatives of Omaha boys on the road:

John Boaty, Jr., with Kirkendall, Jones & Co., has headquarters at Ogden.

C. H. O'Brien, with M. E. Smith & Co., headquarters at Ogden.

J. G. Clason, with Kirkpatrick-Koch Dry Goods Co., Salt Lake City.

C. S. Brown, with Omaha Hardware Co., at Ogden.

A. H. McMahon, with Rector, Wilhelmy & Co., Salt Lake City.

John E. Bay, with Parrotte & Co., Salt Lake City.

M. C. Jones, with Paxton & Gallagher at Ogden, and Ike Hill of the same firm at Salt Lake City. This is Hill's first season and experience in Mormondom.

Joe Scott, with the Consolidated code company, has had his territory extended so he takes in Utah this year. This puts "Old Hutch," the war horse of the Elkhorn, into the Black Hills territory that "Sober Hutch" occupies. There is one consolation for Hutch. He will have a chance to hold the ribbons on six-in-hand occasionally, besides travel in good society. Page, Helphrey, Brown, Hamilton and others, will be in the field.

J. F. Knapp, with THE OMAHA BEE, is in Salt Lake City helping boost the town, and says if business keeps up the way it is now a corner lot anywhere in Eden would take the boys in two years' time. He has his clutches on twenty acres between the city and the lake, and expects big returns within the next year or so.

Mr. Psycke of Psycke Brothers, Omaha, is in Salt Lake taking in the situation; don't know whether with a view to establishing a branch house here or that of investment. In either case he could not make a mistake.

Nat Brown of the Merchants, also in Salt Lake, says he has been spending a couple of days here and in Ogden. They left for Denver about Monday. Very respectfully yours, "ONE OF THE BOYS."

Helphrey on Roller. W. S. Helphrey, the Booth oyster man, has a great relish for practical jokes. One night last week he was in Nebraska City, and in the evening visited the roller-skating rink, where he procured a pair of skates, and started out. He stumbled about over the floor a little while, and then fell heavily to the floor, where he lay groaning and holding his right leg with both hands. The floor manager ran to his assistance and helped him to a chair, where Helphrey still continued to moan and hold his leg. The manager, thinking that Helphrey was seriously injured, dispatched a messenger for a physician. The messenger had hardly reached the door when Helphrey, without a word,
