Benton, Cowdery and Steen Talk.
Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 8.—[Special to The Ben.]—The state board of transportation, or rather Auditor Benton, Secretary Cowdery and Commissioner Steen, who went to Chicago the other day for the purpose of a conference with Nebraska radicoad minnagers, relating to freight reductions on corn shipments from points in Nebraska to Chicago, make the following statement:

"We have for several months been carefully considering the question of the present reight rates in Nebraska, and the present rates upon the products of Nebraska to the sastern markets. We conclude after a thorough investigation of the question that the people of this state are much more interested in obtaining low rates upon the lord haul to eastern markets for the products of the state than in any reduction that has been suggested, or that it is possible to make been suggested, or that it is possible to make in rates on merchandisc or in rates within the limits of the state. The railroass of this state bave at different periods in the past if the many states and the limits of the state periods in the past if the many states and the state periods in the past in 1875 was state in 1875 was state on the state of the state of the state in 1875 was state under the reduction of 10 are rates would be 20% conts per hundred from Nebrasion we secure from the railroads the same rates for that portion of the state east of the 98th meridian as are in force in the western portions of lows. The rates upon the long faul from our state to eastern markets on corn have been and are considerable lower per ton per mile than from Illinos, lows, and other states nearer the markets. The interests of this state seem to differ from lows in this respect.

corn have been and are considerable lower per ton per mile than from Illinos, lowe, and other states nearer the markets. The interests of this state seem to differ from lown in this respect.

It is of vital importance that the low rate for long hauls upon products should gradually be reduced, while the question of local rate upon merchandise is of comparatively little significance.

Acting upon this conclusion, we passed a resolution January 23, recommending that the ratiroads of this state should make a material reduction in the rates upon corn to the eastern markets. Helieving it of great importance that this recommendation should be pushed and the conclusion reached at the oralization markets. STATE OF NEBLASKA, EXECTIVE DEPARTMENT, INKOIN, Noh, Feb. 7, 1890.—Mrs. Hielen M. Gougar, Lafhyette, Ind., Madane: Your communication of the 25th lut., saking me to convene the legislature to confer the right of suffrage upon women was only received two days ago. In answer thereto I am compelled by a sense of duty to say that I cannot comply with your request. In my judgment there is solving in the present condition of public affairs that requires or condition of public affairs. While the proper letter to the public at once and request all men and women in better to their governor expressing their wishes in this matter. Now, my good lady, I cannot be moved by any special feelings of gratitude toward you for causing to flow in upon me such an availanche of letters. My correspondence is already heavily burdened, incident to the remarkable growth of this state and the increase of its population. Very respectfully yours.

P. S.—The logislature if convened would have no power to extend the lanchise to women. That can only be done by that adoption of a constitutional amondment; such an amendment was submitted to the people in 18th and was defeated by an adverse vote of two to one. A. M. T.

THE NEBRASKA CENTRAL.

It Will Cross the Missouri at the Foot of California Street.

The Nebraska Central railread company has located the crossing site for its bridge at a point between the smelting works and Union Pacific shops, about the foot of California atreet. From there it is proposed to runs a curved track into a union depot that will be erected on the block bounded by Class, Fitnenth, California and Pourteenth atreets. This location for the bridge has been approved by Major Suter of the war department at Washington, and the only delay now is caused by a change of plans from a low to a high bridge. It is expected that the Milwakes, Rock Island, Wabsan, Missouri Pacific, Omaha and Elkhorn roads will use the dopet.

To Nebraska Salesmen.

Helieving that an organization of the traveling and city salesmen of Omnha wholesale houses would be of great benefit to noth them and all Nebraska salesmen, we earneally request all such to meet at the Hotel Casey Saturday, February 15, at Sp.m., and come prepared with some idea as to the best object of such an organization. If they are unable to be present we request them to write any of the underskiened what their ideas are, and those ideas will be brought before the meeting. Some of the leading wholesale increhents have promised their assistance in making our organization a success. There should be, and we hope there will be, a good and large attendance.

Must Do the Work Alone. At the regular session of the county com-nissioners yesterday afternoon Mr. Turner recupied the chair, Chairman Anderson being absent, wrestling with la grippe. The county attorney submitted a long communication which showed the amount of business transacted by himself and assistof Justices transacted by immeriand assist-ants during the year 1501, and also showed the expense of the office during the past year as compared with that of the preceding year. He recited the duties of the office and his inability to attend to all of the work him-his inability to attend to all of the work himself.

Mr. O'Keeffe offered a resolution to place the commelectation on file and the authoriza the county atterney to reappoint his three assistants. Mr. O'Keeffe explained his attitude by saying that when the board purchased the block on which the court house stands they paid $25,985 for it. Of this amount $8.500 was taken from the singular fund, which was contrary to law. Now, however, the block is worth over $300,000, which shows the wisdom of the move, although it was illegal. The office of the county attornay is one which requires the attorney to be present at all criminal prosecutions in person or by deputy, and to make out complaints against criminals in the police court. If the county attorney was required to do all this work alone the result would be that some of the prosecutions would go by default and the county would suffer. It was therefore just as necessary for the beard to authorize this expenditure as it had been to parchase the court house lot, and he, for one, was of the opinion that if the board could show the people that by sponding it hay could sayo $10 to was not afraid of the statutes.

Mr. Corrigan called up the matter of the bids for supplying the county with drugs. The board received seven bids from drug houses last Sectember, which were referred to the committee of the whole. The committee allowed the bids to sink into insecuous desuctade, and the drugs were purchased at retail prices. Mr. Corrigan moved that the bids be rejected and the county clerk be directed to readvertise.
