The Youngsters and the Stars. Many of the old western league and western association players occupy today as conspic-ous positions in the baseball world as any of the renowned old veterans of the National league or American association. Two years errans in discuss at the mention of the players of the minor orranizations. They belonged the adifferent bard and were not to be mentioned in the same week with the players of the older bodies. But what has come to pass in this brief lime' Long. Nickols, Hamilton, Beckley, Sowders, Coeney, Nagie, Crooks, Rielly, Holliday, Duryes, Earle, McAleser, Cody, Lowe, and a host of others will be depended on the coming season to pull victory for the olubs of these old bodies as much as any of the selves the sail of the profession. The first-outer a welvemonth or two for the synch of the whole matter is that it will only re-outer a welvemonth or two for the synch into perpetual obsencing all the old stars. Next Saturday's Shoot, Extensive preparations are being made for the trap shooting tournament to come off on the Gwin & Dunmire grounds across the river, next Saturday, Washington's birthday. There will be live bird matches and artificia contests galore, commencing at 9:30 in the concess galore, commencing at 9.50 in the morang and continuing as long as there is light enough to shoot by. All the well known shots in this part of the country have been invited, and with auspicates weather Mana-ger Dunnine is counting on a big attendance. There will be several special matches for stakes, and allogother the gunners will have a busy day.

The Omaha Gun Club. -The Omaha gun club, the oldest sports-mens orranuation in the city, will hold a special meeting at Gwin & Dhamire's store rooms, 1613 Douglas street, tomorrow eve-ning, for the purpose of weeding out all non-active members, and again putting the club on a solid foundation. For a year past scores of the members have interested thom-selves in no manner whatever in the weifare of the club, and those who have, are tirded of this indifference and are dotarmined to bring about a new order of things. All members not present tomorrow evening, or who do not furnish a good excise for ano-sence will be striken from the roster. HEMARK ALLES TIRE PUENTS try to do right. They can do right. They may come to the conclusion that they may come to the conclusion that the public schools do not sufficiently provide for moral and religious teach-ing and training, and also that, as cratures of the state, they cannot; and, therefore, they may think is to be their duty to provide schools in which their children may have the care of their souls provided, as well as the nurture of their minds. If they proceed to do their duty, why should any of us complain? If seems to be the conviction of the American poonle generally that, it is do-sirable to associate the children of all classes in the relations of school life. In this way it becomes certain that all alike receive the teach-ing and training needfail to enable them to be good citizens in a community which is democratic in spirit and re-publican in its organization. But aside from this the association of shildren ned youts togother tends to save them from narrow views and prejudices, and ou the other hand to cultivate generous sentiments, and nourish good feelings. Different classes and races are brought into sympathetic connection, and friendslips are formed, which will last into mature life, and in this way the people will be woven into one piece. The schols, in fine, tend to induce the unity, sympathy and harmony of a true community.
