HE WAS A SQUARE SPORT.

A Once Famous Winner of Fortunes Who is Dying Poor,

"Daddy" Reagan lies dying on a cot in the Ensworth hospital, says a St. Joseph dispatch to the New York World. Daddy, as he has been known for the past twenty years, was at one time one of the most famous and daring of Mississippi and Red river gamblers. He was born in Russellville, Ky., sixty-two years ago, and at an early age blossomed out as a sport. The story of his adventures would fill a book, and the sum total of his winnings is in the millions. In 1858 Daddy won from a Knoxville planter named Ross the sum of $18,000 in an hour's play. At another time during a trip on the Creole Belle a blackleg named Edgeton was caught in a dishonest act by Reagan, who shot a fifth ace from his hand and then put a bullet through each of the "crooked" sport's ears. Edgeton, maddened with pain, shot Rengan in the head, but the bullet glanced off. At St. Louis, in 1869, Daddy sat in the highest game of his life, and left the table a winner of over thirty-five thousand dollars in cash and checks, and about fourteen thousand dollars in promissory notes. In 1872 he was reputed to be worth $100,000, but bad luck claimed him, and he steadily lost his fortune. Today he is without enough money to buy a burial casket. Daddy was called a "square sport," and gave away over half of what he won. He is said to have sprung from one of the best

Kentucky families. Notwithstanding the very tiresome utiliza-tion of its name, "Eiffel Tower" colors and designs in trimming remain in fashionable

A Busy Preacher.

If there be any busier man in New York than Rev. Morgan Dix of Trinity corporation he would do well to step up and be identified, says a New York letter to Richmond Dispatch. Besides attending to the vast routine business of the Trinity corporation, with its $20,000,000 invested, preaching reguiarly, marrping people, visiting the sick and officiating over the dead, he is cailed upon by men and women of every walk in life for advice on all sorts of questions. No matter how early you go to his office in the morning you will find a dozen or twenty people ahoad of you. They all want to see the distinguished rector -of old Trinity in per son and explain to him their various schemes and troubles. The writer of this waited two hours in his office the the other day for an opportunity to get a word with him on a matter of private business. In personal appearance Dr. Dix is one of the most striking men in New York and he always attracts a great deal of attention. He is a strong preacher, a deep thinker, and his voice eas lost none of the charm that made him famous as a preacher. While not exactly the fashionable preacher, he is called upon by society to officiate at weddings that are unusually profitable. His personal income is enermous, and he has a comfortable fortune. He gives away a great deal of money, and has helped more young men to get on in the world than any preacher of the Popular male speakers declare that the hardest audience in the United States to face is the 400 to 500 girls who are attending Vassar college, says the New York Sun. There isn't a woman's face upturned toward the lonely masculine person addressing them but expresses 10,000 shafts of wit upon his bearing, gesture, voice, and upon what he says. Yet our own Chauncey, a few days ago, went up to Poughkeepsie and daringly and unflinchingly endured this ordeal. Mr. Depew was introduced to the Vassar girls by one of their number, a Miss Sanders, a pretty and bright woman. As she was escorting Mr. Depew up the aisle of the college hall she was observed to speak to the orator quietly, whereupon he almost laughed loudly, and, with his face overspread with merriment replied to what she had said There was a good deal of curiosity felt as to this chat, and finally one Vassar girl said to Miss Sanders: "What did you say to Mr. Depew when you were

'Whoa, whoa, you will break my train." "You didn't dare to say 'whoa, whoa,' to such a man as Mr. Depew?"
"I did—why not? And he said he would 'slow up' at once. Being a railroad man he knew what breaking trains meant."

"I was wearing my first train," said Miss Sanders, "and Mr. Depew went too fast for me, and so I said to him,
