Lieutenant Bonestell of the Twenty-first infantry stationed at Sidney, called at the department headquarters yesterday and incidentally looked through THE BEE editorial department.

Charles Davis, manager of the Emma Just Opera company, who was in the city yesterday, has a remarkable career as an adventurer. He was special correspondent for several London, New York and other newspapers during the Russo-Turkish war, the wars in Afghanistan, Egypt, the Transvaal and the South.

To Be Buried in Omaha. Rev. P. F. McCarthy, pastor of the St. Philomena's cathedral, said that he had received information which prepared him to hear at any moment of the death of Bishop O'Connor. He also stated that the bishop had expressed a strong desire to be buried in Omaha.

Wild Fowl. Fred Shafer, master in chancery, returned yesterday from Nuckolls county, whither he went to attend to the appraisal preliminary to foreclosure of a farm. While on this trip he sold at foreclosure sale another 100 acre farm in the same county for $3,000. Mr. Shafer reports that the "Platte river is full of geese and even within two or three miles of Omaha he saw this splendid wild fowl in multitudes.

Still Under Ice. The report current Monday that the Missouri river was rising is a mistake. The swift current is securely locked under thirteen inches of ice, and there is at present no likelihood of its breaking.

The United States signal officer looks after the rise and fall of the river from April 1 to October 1, but the remainder of the year United States Engineer Potter of the Missouri river commission is the sole public observer of the changes in the stream.

Announcements. Those famous artists, Saraso & D'Albert, will give a farewell concert at the Grand opera house Monday evening, March 17. The programme selected for their return includes some of the best known compositions and is an entire change from their last concert. Special trains will be run from Lincoln and Sioux City, and a crowded house is anticipated. The sale of seats begins Thursday morning, March 13, at 9 o'clock. Numbers will be given at 8 o'clock.

Seymour Blindfolded. A H. McKone Seymour, the mind reader who is playing an engagement at the Eden Musee, gave his driving test, which proved very successful. A committee of men, had a lead pencil in a safe at the old Canfield house then returned to the Musee where Seymour was waiting for them. They got into a hack. Seymour mounted the driver's seat and blindfolded drove direct to the place where the article was concealed. Before designating the spot in which the pencil was located he described to them the object they had hidden. A large crowd witnessed and applauded the performance.

Francis Murphy in Omaha. Francis Murphy, the eminent temperance orator, inspected THE BEE building yesterday. Mr. Murphy is suffering from a severe cold and sore throat, which is hampering him considerably in his work. He will appear in Grand Island at an early date, but engagements will prevent his addressing an Omaha audience. He spoke enthusiastically of the results of his efforts in Iowa. Many drunkards signed the pledge and are now wearing the blue ribbon.

Mr. Murphy has lost none of the magnetism and kindly presence which has always drawn to him men of every degree. The hair and moustache, which used to be jet black, have grown quite gray, and has but added dignity to his bearing.

BLACK HILLS MEN.

They Want Their Railroad Facilities Improved.

A delegation of bankers and business men from Rapid City, Dak., reached Omaha Monday night on business connected with their section and its development. R. C. Lake, H. S. Hall, V. T. McGillicuddy, formerly Red Cloud Indian agent; James U. Grider, secretary Rapid City board of trade; J. R. Brennan and O. F. Price compose the party.

While here they propose to consult wholesale merchants and officials of the Elkhorn road with a view to having their transportation and shipping facilities to and from the Black Hills improved; also to establish close commercial relations with Omaha.

That country, according to the statement of these gentlemen is rich in undeveloped products for which Omaha is the natural market and would be greatly benefited by could the railroads be induced to give the territory a fair show on rates and train service. They make proposals which would be equal to the famous St. Louis, article, have sandstone, marble, terra cotta, glazed draining tile, salt and plaster of Paris in great quantities, which if developed would be the source of great industry and give employment to large numbers of men.

Elkhorn and Burlington roads have shown a friendly disposition towards the Black Hills region, but the situation demands still larger and better facilities.

LIFE INSURANCE MEN.

A State Association—Nearly Thirty Millions Carried in Nebraska.

The managers of the various regular life insurance companies, authorized to do business in Nebraska, are rejoicing over the fact that they have perfected a state underwriters' association, the object of which is to advance and protect the interests of life insurance and also promote a friendly business relationship among the various representatives. The managers of the leading companies who were present were: Messrs. M. L. Rooder & Bro., National Life; W. J. Fisher, New England; H. D. Snow, Equitable; E. H. Jeffrey, Massachusetts Mutual; John Steel, Northwestern Mutual; W. J. Crowell, Home; H. A. Lyman, Pennsylvania Mutual; C. W. Johnson, Mutual Benefit; O. H. P. Hale, Equitable; W. L. Hawks, Travelers; Mayhew & Sherwood, Pacific Mutual; C. L. Josselyn, of Lincoln, National.

Nearly thirty millions of life insurance was carried, it is said, in Nebraska in 1888, and the companies here, during the last decade, assisted Nebraska with nearly ten million dollars. The aim of the association is to protect the confidence between the policy holders and the companies; to enlarge its fields of investments; promote more friendly competition between agents and protect the public against unworthy companies and dishonest agents.

The following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year: W. J. Fisher, president; D. E. Foley, first vice president; O. H. Jeffrey, second vice president; E. H. Mahew, secretary; M. L. Rooder, treasurer; executive committee, John Steel, W. J. Fisher, E. H. Johnson, O. H. P. Hale, M. L. Rooder, chairman; press committee, H. O. Lyman, W. J. Crowell, N. Sherwood, A. B. Rooder, chairman.

COUNCIL BLUFFS' DEPT.

The Attempt of that City to Secure a Large One.

A strong delegation of the leading business men from Council Bluffs, who are working to have the railroads build a fine union depot in their town was at Union Pacific headquarters yesterday on business having reference to the subject of consolidation. Among them were W. C. James, W. B. M. Pusey, Samuel Hines, T. Evans, Horace Everett, N. P. Dodge, John Churchill, G. F. White, and William Moore. Representatives of some of the various corporations who would probably be interested in the erection of such a building were also present.

The Buccaneers of Old

Flaunted the skull and cross-bones, their ensign, defiantly at the masthead. Your modern pirate, not on the high seas, but upon the high reputation of standard remedies, skulls under various disguises. His nose and corner traffic has never to any degree affected. However, stomach ailments, although that standard invigorant and corrective has long been the shining mark which his shafts have been directed. Then local factors, composed of dry, unstimulating stimulants, with an infusion, or extract possibly, of some tonic bark, are still sometimes recommended. It is a fact, similar to, or possessing virtues kindred to those of America's chosen family medicine. These perish speedily, while the great sub-urban and preventive disease, malaria, dysentery, nervousness, kidney troubles, constipation and rheumatic ailments, not only do this, but on most continents.

FARNAM STREET PAVEMENT.

Mr. Squires Says There is a Movement to Change It. C. E. Squires, agent for the Harbor Park company, was seen yesterday, and in reply to a question by the reporter said: "Yes, I have heard of a proposed change of the pavement material of Farnam street from granite to asphaltum, in fact it is no new thing. For several years the leading property holders and tenants along that street, such men as Dr. George L. Miller, Kitchan Bros., Paxton hotel, Milton Rogers & Sons, B. F. Smith, A. L. Straub, Dewey Stone, Max Meyer and Mrs. A. Lytle, Charles Beindorf, S. P. Morse, A. Orchard and others have realized that the rough granite pavement was a detriment to their business. Dr. Miller has predicted time and again that the pavement would be changed to asphaltum, and Mr. Morse, though not owning a lease on his building, has twice offered to pay all the expense of paving opposite his building and would get his money back for it. It is only necessary to walk down the street to see how it is going down. Thompson & Heilen have taken the old Blue store, which will have a lease below Fifteenth without a single dry goods store, whereas a few years ago all the business was done there.

"In regard to bogus certificates and petitions I have this to say: Some ten days ago Max Meyer came to me stating that he and Paxton were moving in the matter of changing Farnam street to asphaltum, and asking for a proposition from our company as to the cost of making the change. I gave them my figures and they must have been satisfied since the petition is now in circulation and has the signatures of some of the leading property holders on the street.

"As to the talk about the cost of Sixteenth street, which was paved with asphaltum in 1888, it is claimed in THE BEE that the street has been repaved, in whole or in part three times. This is how that happened: In the original work, by consent of city officials, the stone totting along the street cut several inches thick, and the asphaltum in lacking the support gave way. Then we put in a strip along the tracks of asphaltum several inches thick, at the suggestion of the board of public works, as a substitute, that was one experiment. This also failed and we put in the blocks, that was the second trial, and the third time was when we thoroughly repaved the street just before our guarantee expired.

"In conclusion I would like to call attention to the fact that the traffic of the street since our pavement has been used has increased from almost nothing to 7,000 vehicles a day, while Farnam from a traffic of 1,500 teams a day in 1882 has fallen off to 600 or 700 only. That's what troubles the Farnam street people."

In another column of THE BEE is an item headed "Strong Language." It is an advertisement worth reading. Those who have spent $3 or $4 curing a cold and perhaps still feel the effects of it, or have been annoyed by one for two or three weeks will appreciate what ex-Mayor Loughran has to say. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which it speaks, has made many friends in Omaha during the past few months.

A BAD SPELL.

A merchant's clerk wrote a check for forty dollars, and spelled the numerical adjective "40-0-0-0-0-0." His employer directed his attention to the error, with the remark, "You seem to have had a bad spell this morning." To which the clerk replied, "Sure enough; I've left out the 'g-h.' Let us hope the clerk will still further amend his orthography, meanwhile, if anybody is suffering from a 'bad spell' of headache, superinduced by condensation, over-eating or other indiscretion, let that person ask his druggist for Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They are entirely vegetable in composition, and are prompt and effective in action. They are specific in all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. They are strongly cathartic or mildly laxative according to size of dose. Unequaled as a Liver Pill. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One tiny, Sugar-coated Pellet a dose.

WHAT AILS YOU?

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirited, lifeless, and indifferently miserable, both physically and mentally; experience a sense of oppression or bloating after eating, or of "giveness," or emptiness of stomach in the morning, tongue coated, bitter or bad taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent headaches, blurred eyesight, "floating specks" before the eyes, nervous prostration or exhaustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sensations, sharp, biting, transient pains here and there, cold feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity? If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies—Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to directions for a reasonable length of time. One or two of Dr. Pierce's Pills taken daily with the "Discovery" will add to its efficacy in case the liver is very torpid and the bowels constipated. "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine of its class guaranteed to do all it is represented to accomplish, or money paid for it will be refunded. Dr. J. C. WOOD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, PROPRIETORS, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
