The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maurer's little daughter Anna, who died Friday night, took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from their residence, 1216 Farnam street, and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful. Among them was a cross and crown, sent by young men in Mr. Maurer's employ, which had her name worked in immortelles on the base. After a brief funeral service at the house the remains were carried to Forest Lawn cemetery and there laid to rest.

Tailors and Their Trials. In response to what was stated in THE BEE recently in regard to the differences between the Custom Tailors' Independent union and the Custom Tailors' National union, a member of the local national union, No. 92, said: "The trouble in the original union was not due so much to the manage-men (as your paper stated), or to the conduct of our officers, as it was that these same men who described us endeavored to run the union, but were not allowed to do so. This was the stepping stone for what they call the independent union. In order to win the favor of the bosses, their first act was to cut prices, and naturally the proprietors fell in line with them in a hurry. These very men have cut the prices which they struck for less than one year ago. They published their scale of prices no doubt to obtain publie favor. The public, however, does not understand a scale of prices as does the tailor. There is a vast difference in classifying the goods, and through this method they have estensibly reduced the scale of prices, but not so much in the figures of prices. There is also a difference in the extras. The inde-pendents class their goods as follows: "Class A-Smooth-faced clothes, beavers, doeskin, tricots, piques, Venetians, crepes, velvet and silk.

"Class B-Fur, soft-faced beavers, Miltons, worsteds, ribs, diagonals, baskets, stripes, plaids, etc.

"Class C—Cheviots, suitiugs, cassimeres, tweed flannel, Scots, mixtures, etc. "The local nationals classify as follows: "Class A—Cloths, beavers, doeskins, tricots, piques, venetians, crepes, velvets and silks. "Class B—Soft-faced beavers, miltons, diagonals, all worsted faced goods, tricolings, slik mixed and fine cassimeres. "Class C-Cheviots, tweed, flannels, echotts and common cashmeres.

"The difference will be seen at a glance. Articles which one union has in class B the other has in class C, and vice versa. Both the unions, however, are in a healthy financial condition, and no immediate signs of dissolution are visible."

PROSPECT HILL ASSOCIATION.

Articles of Agreement Now Ready for Signatures.

The articles of agreement which were adopted at a meeting of the lot owners of Prospect Hill cemetery, held a week ago, were signed by a large number of the lot owners and will be at the store of Mr. Samuel Burns, on Farnam street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, until Wednesday next for the signatures of all lot owners and parties in interest who have not already signed, in order that the organization may be perfected at an early day. The follow-ing is the agreement and a full list of the signatures which have been attached to it up

Whereas, By reason of neglect and want of care and attention Prospect Hill come-tery, situated in Omaha, Douglas county, Nebraska, and the improvements thereon are being despoiled and descerated, and

Whereas, All financial support for its care and maintenance has been withdrawn, and Whereas, By virtue of the terms of the deed of conveyance from Byron Reed, Esq., to each lot-owner therein: "The said lots are conveyed subject to such rules and regulations for the control and regulation of said cemetery as may hereafter be lawfully prescribed by a majority of the parties in in-

Whereas, No organization or association of said lotowners or parties in interest has ever existed, and no organization or individual clothed with icral power or authority to establish rules or regulations in the premises does now exist, and

Whereas, In order to take any steps to care for, protect and control said grounds and the proper use and preservation of the same, for the purposes for which they were intended, it is necessary for a concert of action on the part of a majority of the persons so interested and that they should unite in giving expression to what they may desire to have done in regard thereto, Now therefore, in consideration of the foregoing, and for the purpose of maintaining, improving, beautifying and perpetuat-ing the said "Prospect Hill cemetery" forever, we, the undersigned lot owners in said cemetery and parties in interest therein, do hereby agree and promise each other, for and in consideration of the mutual benefits that will inure to each of us as such lot owner—that we will unite and do hereby stipulate and agree to form and enter into an association to be known as the "Prospect Hill Cemetery Association." And we further agree that when such a number of such lot owners or parties in interest therein as shall fairly represent a majority of such persons so interested in said cemetery shall subscribe hereto, that a public meeting shall be called of such lot owners and that a ma-jority of those present at such meeting shall be authorized and empowered to organize an association and to elect officers therefor, consisting of a president, secretary, treas-urer and board of directors, who shall cach perform the duties ordinarily performed by such officers; and such officers so elected shall prepare and publish rules and regula-tions for the care, use and preservation of said cometery which said rules and regula-tions when so, prepared shall be submitted for approval to a meeting of said lot owners and persons in interest called for that pur-pose. And if at such meeting such rules and regulations be approved by a majority of those present, then and in that case the rules and regulations so made shall be bind-ng upon us who have subscribed thereto. It is agreed and understood that in no event shall any steps or measures be taken or permitted to be taken that shall in any manner work or tend to work an abandonmanner work or tend to work an abandonment of these grounds for the purposes for which they were intended and are now being used, but on the contrary, the sole object and purpose of the proposed association is the preparation and peservation of said Prospect Hill cemetery.

And it is further agreed and understood that the said rules and regulations to be hereafter adopted by said association shall hereafter adopted by said association shall contain a clause limiting the personal lia-bility of each lot owner or representative thereof to a fixed sum per annum, which sum shall not exceed $10 per annum per lot.

JOHN P. ST. JOHN.

The Apostle of Prohibition Lectures

at Exposition Hall. Ex-Governor John P. St. John lectured on prohibition at Exposition hall last night under the auspices of the Gospel Temperanco union. This organization has secured the hall for headquarters and will continue to make that a central point during the coming campaign. The large hall was crowded last night.

The speaker of the evening opened his remarks by saying that he had often had men tell him they would vote for prohibition if it were made to include only alcoholic liquors, and not include wine and beer. He said this would not improve the situation in the least, but would have a tendency to make the evil more sweeping in its effects. In proof of this he cited instances which had come under his observation in California, where wine was almost the only drink in common use. In several of the smaller towns the churches were almost entirely without male members, which he attributed to the fact that the men were addicated to to the fact that the men were addicted to the excessive use of wine. In Sacramento, the capital of the state, he said there were the capital of the state, he said there were only eight churches, and only four of those were in active operation; but there were hundreds of saloons in full blast. The speaker scouted the idea that wine was a temperance drink, and asserted that wine and beer debauched more men than all the brandy and whisky ever made.

The governor then referred to the statement, often made, that prohibition would ment, often made, that prohibition would lower the market value of real estate. He denied this, and called attention to Wichita, Topeka and Kansas City as proof of his assertion that real estate values were increased rather than divisibled by the creased rather than diminished by the adoption of prohibition.

He compared the prohibitionists to Joshua

He said Joshua marched around and around the walls of Jericho until they crambled and feli, and the prohibitionists proposed to march around Omaha and all the cities in the state until they fall, as did the walls of

The governor said the prohibition party had come to stay, and proposed to stay until prohibition is a fixed fact, but they needed the sinews of war in the shape of money, and he appealed to some enthusiastic patriot to contribute $500 to the campaign fund, but the enthusiastic patriot had stepped out and the speaker came down to $300, when it was announced that W. T. Seaman would subscribe that amount. Applause and a large number of "Thank Gods" greeted this an-nouncement, and the appeal was continued until about $600 had been subscribed.

AMONG THE RAILROADS.

The Rate War. There is no indication that rates, either freight or passenger, will be restored very soon, "I am satisfied," said a prominent traffic man, "that they never will be put back, especially passenger rates, to what they were before this war commenced." It was thought that the absorption of the Burwas thought that the absorption of the Bot lington & Northern road by the "Q" would lead to a termination of these tariff difficul-ties, but it doesn't seem likely that ony change will follow. There are officials who have doubts about the favorable results of this deal. They seem to think that the "Soo," the Canadian Pacific, St. Paul & Omaha, in contraction with Lake Superior transports connection with Lake Superior transporta-tion companies, are responsible for this demoralization in rates. If such is the condi-tion of affairs, any attempt made by the "Q" to fix matters up would, it is claimed, divest all through traffic from Chicago and send it via the northern route.

According to reports, Jim Hill has finally gained an outlet for his Manitoba road to Sioux City from Sioux Falls, which enables him to enter into strong competition with the Omaha on Lake Superior traffic. As the Illinois Central and Milwaukee lines cannot afford to give up their Sioux City trade, this is liable to keep rates at low water mark for

Miller: Want Higher Rates. A delegation of Nebraska millers, headed by Mr. Jaeggi of Columbus, visited Union Pacific headquarters Friday to protest against the low rate on flour shipments be-tween Kansas City and Omaha. The price of wheat is so much less in Kansas than Nebraska that the millers down there, with only 10 cents a hundred as the freight rate, can send their product here and sell it chesper than the Nebraska millers can They asked that the tariff be raised to 15

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

The Expected Accident to a Boy on the Motor Line.

The expected came about yesterday afternoon and a small boy will hereafter remember that it wasn't safe to jump on and off fastly moving motor trains in South Omaha. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fourteen-year-old boy named Alfred Smith was thrown under the wheels of a moving train on Twenty-fourth street, near Germania hall. His right foot was crushed across the instep. It appears from the boy's statement and those of passengers that the njured tad used a nicket he had earned selling Bees in Omaha to pay for a ride to South Omaha. A short distance above Germania hall he jumped off the platform, and in run-ning to catch the train again he stumbled on the rough street and fell under the wheels with the result of a smashed foot that may require amputation.

He was taken to Dr. Evans' office and the injured member dressed. His home is in David City, Neb. About a week ago he ran away from home with some other boys after stealing $5 from his father. Officer Redmund had been on the lookout for him for the last few days. His parents were telegraph by Chief Maloney yesterday afternoon. His parents were telegraphed to

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsoparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was received."

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and re-ferred me to persons whom it had cured of catarth. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood." —Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.
