CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, March 20,- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The wheat market was a thing of strength today. The price of May wheat at 10 o'clock was 79%c. The price at 13 o'clock was 805 c, at 12:30 80 c and at 1 o'clock 803cc. This action was partly the result of some bull news and more the result of the action of one or two local houses. The market opened with prices about 14c lower all around on worthless cables and excellent weather over the entire wheat belt. The advocates of 70c for wheat were hand to sell. Those who had it long were ready to unload and the bears were ready to sell it short. Before there was any sign of strength May sold at 79%c and off a fraction to 79%c. Edwards & Co. and Kammerer led the early selling. The latter sold out a line of long wheat. Many other bulls were sellers. Then the news began to improve. New York dispatches predicted large clearances. not materialize, and it These did was explained that a storm prevailed and that wheat was loaded and will clear tomorrow. White New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore cleared less than 10,000 bushels of wheat, New York and Baltimore together cleared 33,000 barrels and sacks of flour. St. Louis sent another batch of crop news, but the buying in that market indicated that the trade believes the fields have been damaged somewhat. The big feature here was the buying of Hutchinson. He bought early through two or three nouses for a disguise. Later he put his own brokers in the pit to take all they could get. Be-fore the price moved up 1c he had at the lowest estimate bought 1,000,000 bushels and kept on buying. Schwartz & Dupee bought nearly all day on a moderate scale and this was credited by some to Pardridge covering. but that gentleman was openly, at times, a seiler. Logan & Co. and the Lamsons soid seiler. Logan & Co. and the Lamsons sold freely at one time. There was realizing by many around 80% and May dropped to 80%, but the heavy buying went on, and at 1 o'clock May was up to 80%; June was up 3% to 80% and July % to 78%. There was a little easier feeling in wheat just at the close on realizing sales. May closed just 10 over the morning price at 80%; March closed at 80%, June sold at 80% and closed at 80%. June sold at 80% and closed at 80%. July closed at 78% (@78%).

July closed at 7814@7834c.

Action in corn was fair and the market was firm all day, closing at about the best prices at an advance of $14@34c all around. The warm wet weather, which will have a tendency of throwing a poorer grade of corn on the market singularity enough was one of on the market, singularly enough was one of the bullish influences. Everything else on the floor except provisions was strong and ad-floor except provisions was strong and advancing and corn went the same way. At the close March was quoted but a fraction up at 28½c. May sold at 29¾c and 30@30½c, closing at 30c. April closed at 29½c, June at 30½c, July at 31¼c/213½c, August at 32c and September at 32½c.

There was a decided increase in the trading in the oats market and during the most of the session an excited feeling existed and prices fluctuated sharply. The recent slowness in the market induced heavy "short" selling for May delivery and the market became oversold. Light arrivals and small stocks here created considerable uneasiness among here created considerable uneasiness among the "bears" and an attempt to cover resulted in a material increase in the volume of trad-ing and an alvance of %c in prices. There was no particular head to the buying, but several large traders were quite conspicuous. One prominent trader, who has been the largest seller for several days past, sold at the opening, but as prices started upward he the opening, but as prices started upward he did not follow. May received the most attention and sold at $114@2234c and closed at a net advance of %c. June and July were active and advanced %c, but outside figures were not maintained. The demand for car lots of No. 2 in store was small at $2134@2134c. No. 2 white for May advanced %c and sold at 2314@2334c and closed at 2314c. June soid at 232.

Very little business was transacted in the market for hog products and there were no very marked changes in prices. Speculative offerings were only fair and sales were made at slightly reduced prices. At the decline the inquiry improved slightly, especially as the grain markets were stronger and the packing at the principal points in the west for the week showed a further reduction, compared with last year's returns. Shorts purchased a few lots year's returns. Shorts purchased a few lots and some outside orders were provided for, which had the effect of advancing prices moderately. During the latter part of the session the feeling was quiet, and prices settled back to about medium figures and closed rather steady. Trading was chiefly in May and July deliveries. Offerings were credited chiefly to local manufacturers. Receipts of products were moderate and shipceipts of products were moderate and ship ments of all kinds were quite large. More products are moving to southern markets, though the bulk of them are still forwarded by eastern trunk lines. Inquiry on shipping secount was moderate and the offerings only fair. Sales were not very large, and the changes in prices were slight and rather inclined in favor of buyers.

There were about ten loads of Texans on the market, mostly common. Butcher stock was in good demand and steady. FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, March 20 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- STOCKS-The buil forces affected to be well pleased with the outlook after business hours last night. They traced the selling of yesterday to the bears, who were increasing the short interest without materially lowering prices. The fact that long stocks are firmly held is their chief assurance that prices must soon show an improvement. The talk about tight money loses force each day as the month wears away, with money easily obtainable in the street at 4 per cent or less. With the call for a meeting of the passenger agents of the warring roads at Chicago also comes evidence that the absorption of the Hurlington & Northern by the parent company does not do away with all obstacles. There are many complications to be settled. Then, too, there are many standard stocks in the railroad list not at all connected with any existing troubles, and they do not fare any better than the warring lines. The depression started yesterday by foreign in-fluences is not seriously considered. trade generally gives up the market for a slow and unimportant one for the next two weeks at least. This morning, after a steady opening at slight changes from last evening's prices, dull business and a feeple upward movement took place. There was the usual lack of feature in the general list, and only in Union Pacific, Sugar Refineries and Tennessee Coal was there any animation whatever. Tennessee Coal continued its upward movement begun yesterday and rose from 51 to 53% and was joined by Wheeling & Lake Eric pre-ferred, which advanced to 73% against 71 last evening. The movements in others were confined to the smallest fractions. Sugar Refineries was the weak point in the market, and after opening up 17 at 6934 it rose to 34, but later reacted to 68%. Late in the hour there was afdrooping tendency and prices in many stocks were carried back and the early gains lost. In the hour to noon Tennessee Coal went up to 54. Sugar, after touching 68%, recovered to 69%. Western stocks were irregular. Atchison and Burlington each showed slight net loss at noon, while Rock Island was up 1/4 per cent from the opening to 931/4 and Northwestern up % to 111%. Union Pacific was off 14 from the 11 o'clock price at 62%. The market was without force and entirely professional. The stock market was the lightest for some time. The total sales were but $8,000 shares. The bears made their usual effort to weaken the list in spots with little success. The Rock Island dividend set some tongues at rest and assured the trade regarding the earnings of the com pany. Sugar was firm on the prospect of favorable action by the court regarding its dividend. |Boston supported # Atchison

To the Traveling Public.

The great Rock Island route has proided every convenience and comfort for its passengers going east over its main line. Its solid vestibule express trains, which leave daily for Des Moines, Davenport, Rock Island and Chicago, are the finest in the world. They consist of new and elegant day coaches, dining cars, Pullman palace sleeping cars and free reclining chair cars, superbly appointed and fitted up with all the modern improve-ments that conduce to safe and luxurious travel. genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Shoes in the Street Car.

According to 'the Shoe and Leather Reporter there is no place where feet and footwear, in their quiescent state, can be better studied than in the street car. A little observation will convince one that, so far as their limited scope will permit, there is a great diversity of tastes in this part of dress as elsewhere. The triform in fastenings are all represented, with a close contest between button and congress, and a majority of lace in the heavier and coarser kinds of men's shoes. In men's the greater number consists of calf or its older kindred. In women's it would, perhaps, be both figuratively and literally impossible to separate the sheep from the goats. In fastenings, the fair sex still incline numerously to buttons. It is noticeable, also, that women are coming down gradually from high heels, and that many now have a broader base of support at this end of the foot. Slightly longer shoes are gaing ground, and that is an indication of good sense. It is not difficult to see when another's shoe is too short for the oot. A glance at the great toe joint, at the inside of the ball, and a mental measurement of the length of the shoe allowed in front of it, settled the point. In a foot, say, that wears comfortably a No. 6 shoe, there will be not less than 31 inches between this joint and the front end of the shoe; in a foot that rests easily in a No. 3 shoe there at least 21 inches of space. This applies, of course, to normal feet.
