Increasing the Assistant's Salary. United States District Attorney Baker says that the salary of his assistant, who ever he may be, is to be increased from $800 to $1,000 per annum. Mr. Baker is hopeful of procuring even a larger salary than this for the assistant, as the above increase was secured voluntarily by the Nebraska delegation.

A Hard Winter for Throat and Lung Diseases. The past winter has been an unusually severe one for throat and lung diseases. Coughs and colds seem to hang on with great persistency and fail to yield to the usual remedies. This is more noticeable the further east you go. Many remedies that had enjoyed the popular favor for years past were pronounced of no account, and to have no more effect than the water they were in. Others previously little known in the locality jumped into popular favor and received unstinted praise. An instance of this kind occurred at Allegheny City, Pa. Messrs. E. H. Eggers & Son, a popular drug firm who have three stores there, say a lady after having bought her fifth bottle of a certain medicine said: "This one will be the last. I have cured up my own family and did them so much good that I now want you to cure our children." The medicine referred to was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Messrs. Eggers & Son bought their first supply last November. They say at first the sales were slow, but now their sales are such that they exceed that of any other two medicines they handle, and that the greater part of their sales are from merit alone or through the recommendations of others. One retail druggist in Pittsburg, Pa., has reported the gross of this remedy for his individual retail trade during the past four months. This remedy is well known here and sold by nearly every druggist in the city.

Announcements. Hallen & Hart, the popular comedy artists, will begin their engagement in Donnelly's farce comedy, "Later On," at Boyd's opera house on next Monday evening. The piece has been greatly improved this season, and now contains many new features.

Evans & Hoey, the renowned comedians, who have made a world-wide reputation in the characters of McCorker and Old Boss in "The Parlor Match," will be at the Boyd on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

The appearance of the California opera company at the Grand opera house Sunday evening and all of next week is exciting considerable interest, inasmuch as this class scenic productions are rare in Omaha, the prices, viz., 25, 35 and 50 cents. This is an experiment by the management of the Grand, and the result will be a precedent every way, and includes some of the best known comic opera artists in the country. The repertoire will consist, as previously announced, of "Said Pasha," "Pinafore," and "Fra Diavolo."

The engagement of the Emma Juch Grand English opera company at the Boyd on Monday, March 31, will be one of the chief musical events of the present year. The opera of "Faust" will be the bill, and it will be staged and sung in a manner that has never been equaled in this city. The company comprises 125 artists.

For strengthening and clearing the voice, use "Hewson's Bronchial" lozenges. They have commended them to friends who were public speakers and they have proved extremely serviceable. Henry Ward Beecher.

Police Court Notes. John Hendricks, the "big stockman from Deadwood," was finally balloted out of jail yesterday afternoon in the sum of $100, his bondsman being C. C. Corbett.

John Jones was given twenty days for stealing a gold ring from a city jail inmate named Benson.

J. W. Hall, an ex convict, and John Cummings were jailed by Officer Dillon yesterday afternoon, having in their possession two pairs of trousers and a coat, stolen from Julius Meyer's rooms, Eleventh and Farnam.

Leon Kopold, Charles Dehn and W. K. Jacobs, charged with assaulting E. H. Dow, was a case of minor importance, but which occupied several hours before Judge Hotalay yesterday afternoon. It was a petty squabble among constables. It was finally continued to 11 o'clock today.

A number of Omaha ministers will define the creeds of their respective churches in THE SUNDAY BEE. This is a brilliant feature—entertaining and instructive. Don't fail to read it.

A STARTLING STAND.

The Union Pacific Creates Consternation Among Warring Roads.

A dispatch from Chicago says that the Union Pacific has cast an additional firebrand into the white-hot of western rate troubles. It seems that this company concluded not to be drawn into the war on any basis, and therefore gave its eastern connections notice that under no circumstances would it accept a less percentage of the division on through business than before the reduction of the Chicago-Missouri river rates from 75 to 60 cents first-class. This caused a general sensation. The Iowa lines naturally objected to paying any more than formerly, consequently serious trouble is threatened. The managers of the Iowa lines met a meeting yesterday and discussed the situation. Every Chicago road and some of the trans-Missouri lines were represented. They had formed their Union Pacific policy, and informed them that it did not propose to lose money through a fight in which it took no part, nor did it want any reduction of rates west of the Missouri river.

"We should be forced to accept a less per cent," said an official of the road yesterday, "simply because somebody else does it to reduce rates as a means of revenge for some controversy that cannot be adjusted. It is nonsense. I believe it is a good thing for the Union Pacific to be aggressive."

"But your contemporaries find occasion in the present difficulty to make capital out of the fact that the Northwestern has voted against the Union Pacific's position. They claim to see in this signs of disintegration in the Union Pacific's Northwestern traffic agreements," was suggested.

"That's all right. Let them see. If they can find any solution in the Northwestern's action, I am perfectly willing they shall have it. However, don't get alarmed over anything until it occurs. In the meantime keep an eye on the Union Pacific and see whether or not it sustains the position it has taken in this matter."

Building in Nebraska.

Unless the present state of affairs change at least one road, and that is the Burlington, proposes to defer all expenditure of money in building in Nebraska this year, except on the Omaha Union depot. President Perkins has written to General Manager Haddock informing him that while rates are so disturbed and demoralized they cannot think of incurring additional expense. These things, however, will have no effect on other corporations and the year promises to be an active one. Between the Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific at least a considerable amount of work is to be performed. A local company organized at Kearney in which the Union Pacific is interested will build the Wood River branch. The Rock Island has decided to construct the cut off from here to either Beatrice or Fairbury which will connect the main line and the Omaha line and it is confidentially understood that Mr. Gould's company intends to take up the Omaha-Yankton scheme. General Manager Clark is expected in Omaha some time next week, the object of his visit presumably being to discuss that proposition.

Trying to End the War.

A strong effort is being made to terminate the passenger rate war. General agents of all the western lines have received notice to attend a meeting in Chicago next week. Some of the lines have been discovered manipulating rates, to such an extent by the payment of commissions that the revenue has been reduced to less than the cost of printing tickets. For instance, the Rock Island is accused of selling fares from Denver to Chicago at $10 first class and $14 second class, with a $1 commission to brokers. Of course, it denies this charge and says that it has never bought a ticket at $16 and can prove what they say.

A New Traveling Agent.

Mr. J. Murdoch, traveling freight agent for the Union Pacific, has resigned, and a circular was issued yesterday appointing C. J. Lawrence to succeed him. Mr. Murdoch has been in stock agent. Henceforth he will attend to the duties of both positions. The appointment takes effect at once.

Wanted—A good appetite. You can have it easy enough by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It tones the digestion and cures sick headache.

"Carp," THE BEE'S inimitable Washington correspondent, contributes to THE SUNDAY BEE an interview with Uncle Jeremiah Rusk. It comprises choice little stories, fresh and breezy gossip, and is full of meat.

THE PRICES FOR ICE.

An Abundant Crop and Low Prices in Consequence.

J. H. Hungate of the Kimball Ice company was yesterday asked if the price of ice for the coming season had been decided upon.

"Yes," he said, "and it is lower than it was last year."

"What is the scale?" he was asked.

"It is about as follows: For families and others who have from two to twenty tons per day it will be 50 cents; from fifty to 100 pounds, 40 cents; from 100 pounds upwards, 30 cents; and from these upwards 25 cents. Saloons will be charged 25 cents straight."

How has the crop been this year, Mr. Hungate?

"Excellent. Ice is abundant and of very good quality, generally. All the ice for our country has been harvested from the reservoirs of the American waterworks at Florence and is as fine as I have ever seen, it is clear as crystal and of great thickness."

Colter, James Cotter and Elizabeth Cotter of Omaha, praying for the foreclosure of all equity of redemption or other interest in the following pieces of Omaha realty, which were given as security for four notes aggregating $5,500: Tax lot 10 section 10 township 15 S., commencing at a point on the east line of Elizabeth street north of the south line of section 10, being 63x132 feet; also the east half of the east half of lot 1, in block 92, being 35x90 feet.

Reducing Poor Supplies.

Superintendent of Poor Mahoney was distributing the usual grist yesterday, but announced that this would be the last week. There are a dozen or more families which receive support this year round, but the long procession, which visits the headquarters during the severe weather is cut off in the summer.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following parties by Judge Shields yesterday: Name and residence. Age.

Lucien E. Taylor, Omaha, 34; Minnie M. Clark, Cleveland, 17; Mallory H. Hazard, Omaha, 17; Nettie Erling, Oskaloosa, Ia., 18; August Erickson, Omaha, 38; Mary Swanson, Omaha, 22.

Grain Inspection.

A petition signed by the owners of 200 elevators in Nebraska has just been wired to Senator Handall, Annapolis, Md. It sets forth that Baltimore grain inspection has been satisfactory to farmers and dealers of the west, and the petitioners think any change will be detrimental to western interests.

ARRESTED FOR AN OLD OFFENSE.

An Auctioneer to Answer for Selling Snipe Jewelry. Daniel S. M. Fretwell, the proprietor of an auction house on Thirteenth street, between Harney and Howard, has been arrested by Deputy Sheriff Isaac A. Hill for an offense committed five years ago. At that time Fretwell was running a jewelry auction shop at Freeport, Ill., and it is alleged that he sold a brass watch to a lady in that place, who was told that it was solid gold. The lady discovered the fraud and caused his arrest. He was released on $500 bonds to appear for trial, but at the time set for his appearance he failed to appear and his bondsman failed to forfeit the money they put up for his appearance. Without consulting his bondsman first, Fretwell reported that he quietly bought a ticket to Omaha and his bondsman failed until within the last few days to locate him. He will be taken back to Freeport, where he will be arraigned on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

District Court. Nothing was done in Judge Clarkson's court yesterday morning. The prosecuting attorney was ready with the Quinan case for assaulting Louis Klopman with intent to kill, but the attorney for the defense wanted time and it was given them.

Ida M. Hough complains of an infectious marital experience. She was married to Willis P. Hough for seven months ago, and in three months after that time Willis was guilty of sundry indications in which some of his lady friends were concerned, and she wants her maiden name of Williams restored to her.

Yesterday afternoon, after hearing part of the testimony in the case of The O'Neil against the American Waterworks company for damages on account of injuries received while working in a trench, Judge Hopwood ordered the jury to return a verdict for the defendant on account of contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff.

County Court.

Augustus T. Thatcher of Chicago, by his agent, Henry A. Cox, obtained a judgment of $470 against the Pruyn Carriage and Coal company for coal sold and delivered. A. C. Houston has sued A. N. Meals and R. T. Wray for $500 on a note.

The early approach of the baseball season is the occasion of a splendid sporting department in THE SUNDAY BEE. No one interested in the affairs of the Western association will fail to read it with great interest.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Political States.

Here are two tickets outlined by a politician who ought to know what is going on: Republican—For mayor, Dan Condon; clerk, William Barrer; treasurer, Thomas Geary; police judge, P. J. King. Straight Democratic—For mayor, W. G. Sloan; clerk, John Ryan; treasurer, Thomas Geary; police judge, P. J. King.

There are indefinite and unreliable hints of a third ticket to be launched on the local political scene, but the men who are supposed to be responsible for it deny any knowledge of the movement.

In Judge King's Court.

John Connors and Charles Merril, vagrants, and William Gerky, a plain drunk, were dismissed. John Donaldson, drunk, was assessed $8 and costs, and Pat Costello, on the same charge, was sent to the county jail for ten days.

The bill dog whose teeth entered the leg of the Williams, the Fourth ward carrier boy for the Bee, Wednesday night, was in the police court Thursday afternoon. Ownership of the canine could not be established so he was sentenced to be shot. Master Fallon executed the animal last night.

Are You Registered?

The boards of registration will sit at the following places to-day: First Ward—Jerry Dees' store room, on Twenty-fifth street, between M and N streets. Second Ward—J. Levy's office, Twenty-sixth street, near N. Third Ward—J. Kilker's, on West O street. Fourth Ward—At Exchange building.

Thursday's Bee was in error when it stated that yesterday's tickets were the only days on which voters could register for the coming election. A closer reading of the law shows that the boards must set again on the Saturday preceding election.
