REMEDIES FOR DEPRESSION. The vigorous expressions of discontent which have come from the farmers of the country, fully warranted by the general agricultural depression, have had the effect to arouse congress to a earnest study of the situation and a thoughtful consideration of remedies.

casual examination of the map of the territory for which Omaha is a distributing point, will show the great advantages which this city enjoys in point of position over most of the competing cities, and of the benefits of these advantages.

such notice to be given so as to expire on the first day of each year. A central or trade council was also agreed to, composed of equal numbers of workmen and employers, to whom all future disputes should be submitted, and by which a friendly interchange of views may be had.

Lesson from the East. When the public affairs of a town are surrendered to political hostilities a total wreck is only a question of time.

What Worries 'Em. The democrats of the republican party has no policy. It has the office, however, and that is what is bothering the democrats most.

Stands Well with the People. Eric Johnson of the Holdrege Progress, at present a member of the lower branch of the legislature, is talked of as a possible successor of George W. Burton of Orleans in the state senate.

THE BEE ON THE TRAINS. There is no excuse for a failure to get the Bee on the trains. All newspapers have been notified to carry a full supply.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, ss. County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of The Daily Bee for the week ending March 22, 1890, was as follows:

TESTIMONY FOR HIGH LICENSE. At the last meeting of the Law and Order society of Philadelphia some very interesting facts were presented, showing the effect of high and restrictive license in reducing drunkenness in that city.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES. Give Chicago a Show! We protest against the proposition reported from Washington, as a part of the world's fair bill for Chicago, that the fair would be located at the foot of Farnam street every body who proposed the hotel scheme was suspended until that matter could be settled.

Iniquities of the Trusts. Their great profits do not come, for the most part, from economy of production, but from pernicious interference with the market price of commodities.

HERE AND THERE. Two or three years ago a party of enterprising gentlemen, headed by George A. Joslyn, were ambitious to build a modern ten-story hotel at the corner of Farnam and Tenth streets.

GERMAN AFFAIRS. With the resignation of Prince Bismarck as chancellor of the German empire commences a new chapter in the history of that country.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 23rd day of March, A. D. 1890. Notary Public.

Such is the unhappy condition of that large body of our people whose industry contributes vastly more than that of any other element to the material prosperity and progress of the country, and every consideration of national interest, sound policy and patriotism demands that something practical be done to alleviate it.

The records show that under the old license system the commitments for intoxication during nine months, from June, 1887, to March, 1888, numbered over thirteen thousand, while for like periods in the next two years the total of commitments was very little over four thousand.

Our Relations Toward Russia. The United States have a tradition of friendliness towards Russia, but it is not proof against such savagery as that which Mr. George Kennan has lifted the veil from.

Only a Step. The proposition of Senator Plumb to hold executive sessions of the senate with closed doors is at present, but to give the results to the press at the end of the meeting, is a step in the right direction.

Half a dozen Omaha men, speculatively inclined upon a silver mine away down in the southwestern part of Old Mexico. The provisions for their miners are largely purchased and shipped from here.

While William I. was and always remained the finder and creator of his great chancellor he grew in certain historical proportion with him—and even over him—he always remained his emperor and master.

But the more serious of the evils and abuses may be reached by legislation, and there are reforms and remedies that are within the authority and duty of the government.

The testimony of the police magistrates and judges is uniformly that there has been a marked change for the better, and this is the judgment of all who have carefully observed the difference between the convivial customs of the community under present and former conditions.

The Slouch Law is good law and there is every reason for believing that, should high license carry, this law will continue in force.

Always to the Fore. The Bee takes the lead of Nebraska journalism and keeps it.

How different was the case with his followers? They overcame by inheritance, this ready-made Congress, and the leading statesman and arbitrator of German and European destinies, but ready also to overshadow them as a power behind the throne, and as an historical figure, at every step.
