

FUTURE OF THE FATHERLAND

A Reorganization of Parties in the New Reichstag.

WINDTHORST ON THE OUTLOOK.

The Party of the Center Will Support the Kaiser in His Efforts for Reform.

The New Reichstag.

Copyright 1890 by James Gordon Bennett. Berlin, March 23.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to This Hear.]—The new Reichstag will contain three great political groups, two in deadly opposition to each other, the third holding a sort of a middle position between them.

The Old Policy.

LONDON, March 23.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent says it is reported that Bismarck is content with his present generalship, but has declined the dukedom and grant, stating it is not in harmony with his principles to accept a grant in view of the increasing burdens of the taxpayers.

More About Bismarck.

BERLIN, March 23.—Ordensfest was observed today with the usual ceremonies. The prince of Wales, Emperor Frederick and Chancellor von Caprivi were present at the services in the chapel and afterwards at the state banquet.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Thursday next will be field day for prohibition in the house.

A Soldier's Monument.

A good deal of feeling is being stirred up in the state over the talk of building a monument to the Iowa soldiers who died in the Grand Army posts very generally petitioned the legislature to begin such an undertaking.

An Interesting Point.

The Iowa railroad law is to be tested on a new point. It provides now that the commissioners may make rates on lines of road between any two points in the state.

A State Hand.

It seems quite probable that the legislature will be asked to take up the question of a state military band.

A Chinese Murder and Suicide.

DECATUR, La., March 23.—Sam Lee, a Chinese laundryman, was killed this afternoon by Frank Cook, his Chinese assistant, who shot him in the back.

Consolation for Burchell.
