

THE HANDS OF THE ENEMY.

Prohibition Republicans Landing Iowa in the Democratic Camp.

BOURBONS SMILING AND WAITING.

They Expect a Landslide for Their Ticket - Corporation Agents "Rattle" the County Legislators.

Des Moines, Ia., April 6.—Saturday's legislative debate on prohibition practically settled the question as to the policy the republicans will adhere to in the premises. The bill under discussion was for the repeal of the prohibition law which has been in effect in Iowa since 1854. Its fate was sealed when a vote was taken on Luke's motion to indefinitely postpone which was carried by a vote of 51 to 49, every democrat opposing and all the republicans favoring it.

The democrats then desired an adjournment, but the republicans opposed and the motion was lost by a vote. The republicans insisted upon the adjournment on the part of the committee, but the speaker ruled that it must be treated as reports of other committees and could not be taken up out of order without a two-thirds vote.

THE LOBBYIST PLAGUE.

Corporation Emisseries Serving Their Masters' Will.

Des Moines, Ia., April 5.—[Special to The Bee.]—The effect of the corporation lobby and the appropriation combine in manipulating legislation is daily becoming more apparent. A sort of listless indifference seems to have settled down over both houses of the legislature, and many members who some time back were full of patriotic enthusiasm have fallen an easy prey to designing tricksters and seem only anxious to get through with the business of the day.

Early in the session two or three bills regarding the railroad were introduced as a measure introduced and referred at once to the committee on the subject of the service of Cherokee, who is chairman of this committee, was one of the most pronounced anti-monopolists in the last general assembly, but here he has been completely changed.
