Black Hawk of the Winnebago tribe and Crandall of the Iowa's attracted considerable attention at the St. Paul depot yesterday. They are just returning from a visit to relatives at the Pine Ridge reservation and are bound for Oklahoma. Black Hawk is a son of the noted chief of the same name and is a very intelligent Indian.

Peter Larsen, the man who filed a petition in the district court for an injunction restraining the Chicago of the city from appropriating a part of his land for public use, has sworn out a complaint before Justice Anderson for the arrest of Michael Daily, the marshal of Florence, for tearing down his fences, and for the arrest of Thomas H. Daily, the marshal of Florence, for tearing down his fences, and for the arrest of Thomas H. Daily, the marshal of Florence, for tearing down his fences.

Funeral of Johnny Timm.

The funeral exercises over the remains of Johnny Timm, the boy crushed to death in the elevator at the Murray, occurred at the home of his parents on Harvey near Seventeenth at 2 p. m. Rev. Mr. Frazier officiated, conducting the exercises in German. A number of friends and neighbors were in attendance. The body was taken to South Omaha, where it was interred.

Prospect Hill Cemetery.

Judge C. A. Balthus reports that the lot owners in Prospect Hill cemetery have responded very liberally to the demand for cash needed for immediate improvement of the property. The contract has been awarded for the construction of a fence around the property, and will be put at work at once clearing up the lots and placing them in presentable shape.

Baldridge Officially Notified.

There was also received a document directed to Mr. Patrick notifying him of his dismissal from the service. Mr. Patrick's removal was not mentioned.

Sentenced to Death.

A dog with a collar the tick around his neck, carefully guarded by a man named Peterson, was sentenced to death in the police court yesterday. The canine had bitten the daughter of Mrs. Jackson and the latter swore out an information against Peterson, charging him with keeping a vicious dog. The court gave Peterson the choice of having the dog being killed or having his quadruped killed. He accepted the latter proposition and the death sentence was pronounced on the dog.

The final tussle will be between Garbage-master Bennett and Poundmaster Putnik.

Everybody Called Him "Archie."

"John Doe No. 1," called out Judge Hickey, but no answer. The demand was repeated, and was again ignored. Finally court officer Keyser sorted out a man with whiskers, who said his name was "Archie." He didn't know whether there was a handle or extension to his cognomen, but every person called him Archie. "Where do you live?" asked the court. "No where, yet," responded the prisoner. "What do you mean by yet?" "I've only been in Omaha a few months and haven't caught on."

"Do you want to work?" "That depends on the sort of a snap I catch on to."

Doctors Took the Body.

It has been ascertained beyond a particle of a doubt that the body of Harry Adams, who died at St. Joseph's hospital in this city on February 18, was several days ago given to a medical institution here in Omaha for the purpose of dissection. The medical folks, who are so good at good authority, secured possession of the remains under a clause of the statutes providing that when a body is unclaimed by its next of kin, it is to be given to the medical institution for the purpose mentioned. This body, the statute says, must be filed with the county clerk. When a reporter asked County Clerk O'Malley if Adams' body had been given away and a bond filed, that official made evasive answers, made a show of finding "the papers concerning some case," as he expressed it. After searching about the office a minute or two Mr. O'Malley remarked: "I don't care to do anything more about this until I see a certain party, who will be in this afternoon."

A Necessity of Health.

It is a prime necessity of health that the action of the bowels should be kept regular. But the way to overcome a temporary constipation, or to remedy chronic constipation, is not to deplete the stomach and drain the bowels with purgatives of violent and painful action. The happy medium between an ineffective and violent cathartic is Hostetter's stomach bitters, which acts just sufficiently upon the bowels to relax them, without pain, and which being a wholesome tonic, as well as aperient, has the effect of strengthening both them and the stomach, and promoting the free action of the whole internal economy. The removal of bile from the blood, increased activity of the liver, usually dormant in cases of constipation, and sound digestion follows the use of this beneficial medicine, as there is cure and health in its effects as it is safe and gentle in composition. Rheumatism, fever and ague, kidney troubles and debility are also remedied by it.

FAILED TO PUT UP.

Why the Billiard Palace Does Not Open Its Doors.

About sixty days since Messrs. G. B. Hengen and Harry T. Warner leased from the McCormick estate the property known as the Neila Kine homestead on Capitol avenue near Sixteenth street, and with visions of great profits contracted to have it converted into a gorgeous bar and billiard room with quiet and four guests might be pitted against one another with the greater part of the pot to go to the backer of the masculine phalax.

The cost of making the transformation was estimated at from $6,000 to $7,000. Mr. Hengen, who is the capitalist of the concern, agreed in the articles of co-partnership to put up the money to the amount of $10,000, and the carpenters, bricklayers, painters and plasterers and the job was left.

As the work progressed a number of alterations known to mechanics as "extras" were necessary and these "extras" made the cost of repairs reach the sum of $10,000. Then Mr. Hengen weakened and having paid out $6,000 to $8,000 on account, decided to put up and abandon the work and perceiving that he, as a joint partner, would be left in the hole, decided upon aggressive measures and began attacking the contractors. He offered a contract, claiming $12,000. The contractors will probably also go to the courts for relief and file suits to secure their money. A Warner is making an effort to secure other capital to pay the claims and open the place which was intended to be magnificent in its appointments and equipment. It is fitting to exceed in display any similar place west of New York, but the outcome is still uncertain.

Thin and impure blood is made rich and healthful by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, all blood disorders.

Don't be a Claim.

Robert P. Porter, superintendent of census of the United States, has forwarded to the county officers of every county in the country schedules to be filled in with the amount of wealth, debt and taxation of the county for the purpose of covering the past ten years, for the purpose of census investigation.

In order that the returns of the eleventh census may be complete and practically useful, the statistics called for are absolutely necessary. Much painstaking clerical labor will be required to be performed in order to collect and enter the facts and figures required.

As servants of the county residents, the county officers will, by making a special effort now in behalf of the census office, gain for Douglas county a creditable showing, as it deserves. If they neglect the opportunity or place obstacles in the way, the record will, as a matter of course, be imperfect and contrast unfavorably with that of other counties.

If the needed statistics are not forthcoming, that fact must be inserted opposite the name of the county in the census returns, thus making a most unfavorable showing, as compared with other similar divisions whose accounts have been readily and cheerfully submitted without delay and without obstruction.

The present inquiry was started on the assumption that those who were to be benefited by a complete and correct census would make unusual efforts to aid in the investigations, so far, it would seem from information coming from the census office, that Douglas county is still delinquent.

It is reported that at least nine-tenths of the counties in every state and territory have sent in excellent reports.

Resolutions of Condolence.

The directors of the Young Men's Christian association has, through a committee, taken the following action concerning the death of the late P. C. Hinchbaugh, one of the most liberal patrons of the association:

God in His wisdom has seen it fitting to call to his heavenly home our brother, P. C. Hinchbaugh, to his eternal home. It seems to us particularly called for in this time of our association of a noble and useful life that we who have been near to him and have enjoyed the appreciation of such one should testify to his worth.

We have, as a Young Men's Christian association, the greatest reason to acknowledge having found in him a firm, unflinching and true friend in his life and in his death. He is a noble and faithful and untiringly, even to a fault, for the welfare of our association and for the young men of our city.

Among particularly conspicuous qualities in him were these: That he was an intelligent, systematic, cheerful, and liberal giver, and that in business he observed God's law in not being in direct conflict with gain, counting it a pleasure to bear pecuniary loss rather than lower the high ethical standard of his life. His common testimony outside of his Christian association is that he lived an upright, honest life, a supporter of every good work in no way straightened or hindered.

We desire to acknowledge in heartfelt and long time his noble life in the erection of the new building now owned and occupied by our association. We feel it would not be in existence but for his effort and faithful prosecution. We extend our sympathy to his bereaved ones in the loss of a loving husband and father and pray that they may bless them for their brother's sake.

WILLIAM FLEMING, Chairman.
J. C. Goss, Secretary.

A Good Report.

Owing to the exaggerated newspaper reports, some persons have the idea that real estate in Pierce, S. D., has become too high for a conservative investment. It is a great mistake. The increase in values since last August has been over, on an average, 20 per cent. I don't care to do anything more about this until I see a certain party, who will be in this afternoon.

RAILROAD MAGNATES.

They Quarter the Union Pacific Headquarters for Business.

R. R. Cable, president of the Rock Island road; Roswell Miller, president and general manager of the Milwaukee, accompanied by several other officials, reached this city yesterday morning. Thomas T. Withrow, M. A. Low and T. L. Kimball were with Cable, while Miller has with him his general superintendent, A. J. Easting. The real object of their visit is not announced, though Mr. Cable has been expected for several days to consult Vice President Holcomb regarding an agreement for joint track privileges and the road and the Union Pacific. He has been out on a tour of inspection and came in Monday night from Denver, by way of Burlington and Lincoln, presumably to inform himself about the right of way.

terminal facilities, etc., for the proposed cut-off through which the main line now terminating at Council Bluffs is to be connected with the Denver system either at Beatrice or Fairbury.

As heretofore reported exclusively in THE BEE, Mr. Cable can save several million dollars for his corporation by entering into an alliance with the Union Pacific whereby its trains will have clear use of the track of the latter from Council Bluffs across the bridge through this city, South Omaha and to Lincoln.

Mr. Cable was seen at the Millard and said that he was here looking the situation over, but could not tell how his company would commence operations.

He confirmed the report of an agreement between the Rock Island and Union Pacific for joint use of tracks from Omaha to Lincoln. "I am satisfied the people of this city will be glad to see us come across the river and it is our intention to come. However, we should decide to bring his road across the river. He also had a conference with Union Pacific and B. & M. officials relative to coming into the union depot when the latter is completed.

He had been in the city in town, but knew of no prearranged agreement for them to be here at the same time.

Mr. Miller was closeted with parties who are negotiating for the building of another bridge and who want his road to use it; also looking into the matter of terminal facilities here and should decide to bring his road across the river. He also had a conference with Union Pacific and B. & M. officials relative to coming into the union depot when the latter is completed.

Want More Crews.

Nebraska and Wyoming division conductors of the Union Pacific are again petitioning management officials for more crews, less mileage and better pay. They have been granted a hearing, which will take place next Thursday, at which time the matter will be laid before Vice President Holcomb. Three or four weeks ago the grievance committee called on Mr. Holcomb and their conference resulted in his ordering one extra crew on the Nebraska division and two on the Wyoming division. Some parties out in that country own a right-of-way they wanted to take off their hands, but we have not positively decided to do so.

Only a Right-of-Way.

A dispatch from Cheyenne says that the Union Pacific has obtained control by purchase of the Tacoma & Lake City road, but a denial that any such deal was ever consummated is made by the officials at headquarters. Mr. Holcomb says there is no such road in existence except on paper.

"Some parties out in that country own a right-of-way they wanted to take off their hands, but we have not positively decided to do so."

On a Tour of Inspection.

Division Superintendent Jaynes of the St. Paul road left Monday for Sioux City where he will meet Mr. Scott, the general superintendent of the road. The two gentlemen go to Norfolk on a tour of inspection and return to Omaha tonight.

If you suffer pining pains on moving the eyes, or cannot bear bright light and find your sight weak and failing, you should promptly use Dr. J. H. McLeod's strengthening Eye Salve. 25 cents a box.

SPRING FEVER.

Real Estate is Selling and Dealers Don't Attend the Exchange.

"Somebody or something ought to stir the boys up in a way that would remind them that they're sadly neglecting the best and most valuable segment of the day," said a dealer at the real estate exchange yesterday. "That's just right," remarked another of the members, "and it wouldn't be a bad idea to give the boys a stir or two. The daily call hasn't been changed since the 10th. Such neglect shows up in bad shape to visitors. It makes them think we've all gone home."

"President Chris. Hartman hasn't attended a meeting for a week, and Mark Upton, the first vice president, has not been seen on the floor for three or four days."

This latter talker was a gentleman who hasn't missed but one meeting since the exchange started. After this sort of kicking had been going on for twenty minutes Second Vice President Perrine flew in and rapping the table to order called upon the secretary to proceed. The latter read the following sales:

Lot 5, block 1, Bedford place, to G. T. Payne, by Mead investment company; $500.

Lot 11, block 12, South Omaha.

Lot 12, block 15, South Omaha.

The following listings were read:

Lot 13, block 7, Kirby place, 50x125; $1,100.

Lot 8, block 8, Kirby place, 50x125; $1,100.

Lot 5, block 1, city, 50x65; $3,300.

Lot 2, block 2, First addition to South Omaha, 60x150; $1,300.

Lot 2, block 1, Park place, 35 feet front; $1,675.

Adjusting the Loss.

Captain Wilcox, manager of Browning, King & Co.'s establishment, is busy with the insurance adjusters fixing the loss occasioned by the fire of Monday morning.

The work will continue several days. Only a very small portion of the stock can be used and the loss will exceed the full amount of the insurance.

Mr. C. E. Woodruff of Chicago, a member of the firm, arrived in the city yesterday and is engaged with the insurance adjusters. He says the firm will continue in business here and will occupy temporary quarters in one, having already secured the refusal of a store on Farnam street near Thirteenth.

Adjusters are also settling with the other sufferers from the fire.
