Denver 12, Omaha 0.

DENVER, Colo., April 19.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The third game of the series between Denver and Omaha resulted in a shut out for the visiters. It was the first time since Denver has been a member of the Western association that her club has achieved such success. The visitors, on account of two previous defeats, went in to win today and played Clark in the box, but for once that usually fine pitcher was at the mercy of the Denver nine, and they hit the ball whenever they needed. Darabrough, Denver's favorite, pitched for the home nine, and a finer game was never pitched. His support was certainly the finest ever given a pitcher on the home grounds. Three times did the visitors have two men on bases, and only one out, but a neat double play once and two flys to Dalrymple the other time spoiled the chances for the visitors of saving themselves from a shut-out. Cleveland was a trifle off on throwing to third, but the heavy hitting of the home nine won the game. The score:

The Players Had the Best of It.

CHICAGO, April 19.—The season of the Players' league and National league of baseball clubs opened today. The Brotherhood and league clubs were in competition at three different points, and if the ratio of attendance at the games may be taken as an indication, the majority of public patronage seems to be with the Brotherhood. At Pittsburg 7,000 people attended the Brotherhood game, and were enthusiastic in their applause on the appearance of the players. At the league game 1,000 people were present and witnessed a close and interesting contest. At Boston 9,500 people attended the Players' league game and 4,000 the National league. At New York both teams paraded the streets with bands before the contests, and much enthusiasm was manifested. The Brotherhood had the best of attendance again, 1,300 people going to their grounds as against 5,000 at those of the league.

The International Regatta.

DULUTH, Minn., April 19.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The big international regatta to be held here the last week in July is a sure thing. Twenty thousand dollars in cash prizes has been raised, and five thousand dollars' worth of trophies will be added. All the prominent oarsmen in Europe, Australia and America have promised to enter. The president and a portion of the cabinet are expected to be present. The course is on the coast of St. Louis bay.

Goals made during the season—Continentals, 70; Ramblers, 83; O. W. C., 69; Morses, 47; Council Bluffs, 45.

The Continentals and Ramblers divide first money.

The Gun and Rod.

The gunners have been busy on marsh, lake and stream during the past several days, and they all bring in reports of plenty of game and grand sport.

Frank Fogg was at Big lake, Ia., yesterday. He shot twenty-seven fine pickerel, running from one pound up to four; twelve jacksnipe and seven blue wing teal.

William Preston and George Powell spent Friday at Missouri Valley, bagging seventy-eight Wilson snipe—the bag of the season.

On the same day J. K. Cristie and Billy Townsend knocked down fifty-two of the luckless little gallinagols at Waterloo.

Today John Dunmire is after snipe at Ashland; Billy Townsend at Valley; Pete Simpson on the Elkhorn; E. "Musselman at Bancroft, and L. D. Cabanne at Missouri Valley. The feathers will have to fly.

Gunners say the geese have returned and are to be seen along the bars of the Platte in countless thousands, while all the ponds and sloughs are literally alive with blue and green wing teal.

Bass fishing has begun at Cut-off lake in earnest, and fine baskets are being landed daily.

It was won by Lord Rodney's five-year-old bay horse, Danby Dale, Sir James Mackenzie's three-year-old bay colt. The Imp, second, and Mr. W. Smith's five-year-old bay horse, Bullion, third. The Soldiers' Challenge Accepted.

To the Sporting Editor of THE BEE: As there has been so much talk regarding Mr. Reading's ability to beat me and my not accepting his challenge to defend my title as champion of America in a six-day bicycle race, either eight or twelve hours a day, I hereby accept Mr. Reading's challenge, and will meet him or his representatives at THE BEE office at any time during the week he may designate to sign articles of agreement. I have today deposited $100 with the sporting editor of THE OMAHA BEE to accept and bind Mr. Reading's challenge to race him for the championship of America and $1,000 a side. As Mr. Reading's representatives have done so much talking about his abilities to beat me in this kind of a race I have finally made up my mind to defend my title, and I now await their speedy acceptance. Respectfully,

JOHN S. PRINCE,
Champion of America.

"Macon" on the Staff.

NEBRASKA LAND OFFICERS.

The Delegation Agrees Upon Those for Broken Bow and Alliance.

FREMONT'S PUBLIC BUILDING BILL.

Conferees Appointed by the House and Senate to Consider it—Mining People Have a Hearing—Miscellaneous.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE,
513 FOURTEENTH STREET,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.

A definite and unanimous agreement was reached after a few minutes of consultation this afternoon by the two senators from Nebraska and the three congressmen upon the question of who shall fill the Alliance and Broken Bow land offices. F. M. Derrington of Chadron will be made register at Alliance and Judge John Reese of Broken Bow will be receiver. For the registership at Broken Bow, James H. Dansken of Hemmingford has been selected and James Whitehead of Redfern will be receiver. The recommendation will go to the secretary of the interior in a formal and definite form on Monday, and there is no doubt that the appointments will readily follow. The delegation is very much pleased over the selections. Mr. Rublee of Broken Bow had very strong backing for one of the offices in his city, but the delegation concluded it would not be just right to award one county two offices, and therefore selected Mr. Whitehead, who is a representative farmer and was strongly recommended by the leading farmers of his community. The position now occupied by Mr. Whitehead—that of deputy collector of internal revenue—will be filled by the appointment of another farmer, who has already been agreed upon, but the delegation does not want to make known tonight the name of the fortunate man.

FREMONT'S PUBLIC BUILDING BILL.

Speaker Reed today appointed Messrs. Milliken of Maine, Post of Illinois and Bankhead of Alabama as conferees on the part of the house to consider the disagreement between the two houses upon the bill providing for a public building for Fremont, Neb. The senate has appointed as conferees Senators Spooner of Wisconsin, Morrill of Vermont and Vest of Missouri. The principal point of disagreement between the two houses is whether the bill shall make an appropriation of the amount provided in the bill or whether it shall pass the limit and leave the appropriation to one of the regular appropriation bills, the house contending for the latter and the senate the former position.

ADVOCATES OF FREE SUGAR.

General Browne writes THE BEE correspondent from his home at Winchester, Ind., that he hopes to be in Washington when the tariff bill is taken up and to do what he can to hold firm. It will be remembered that General Browne has for many years advocated free sugar and a bounty of 2 cents a pound as an encouragement to the domestic sugar industry. He made a very elaborate and convincing argument in favor of free imported sugar and a bounty for the domestic product in the last congress, and just before the convening of the present congress was interviewed by THE BEE correspondent on the subject, when he announced that the action upon the sugar question should be just what this bill provides. In other words, he foreshadowed the action of the committee on ways and means before that body was organized. The general's health is improved somewhat and he hopes to be able to take part in the debate. His ripe experience and his widespread influence in congress will make him effective in his work.

Another advocate of free sugar and a bounty for the American product is found in Representative O'Donnell of Michigan. Colonel O'Donnell made a strong argument in favor of this proposition on March 20, 1886, and was probably one of the very first men in congress to advocate a bounty. He is one of the brightest newspaper editors in the country and is widely read and his great fund of information on this subject was shown in his argument. He pointed out with great clearness the feasibility of the beet sugar industry in this country and was probably one of the very first men to foresee the possibilities in that direction. He took up the history of the beet sugar industry in Germany, France and other countries and by a comparison of the soil of these countries with those to be found in the United States predicted that sugar beets could be produced here with signal success. Colonel O'Donnell will be one of those who will take an active part in the debate on the sugar section of the tariff bill and will make a strong appeal for the retention of the provision which places imported sugar on the free list and gives encouragement to our own industry in the way of a bounty. He contends that a bounty was the basis of the encouragment of the beet sugar product in all of the great sugar producing countries of the world, and says that although it is opposed in many directions here, the opposition is due to the fact that the proposition is misunderstood. There is very little doubt that the sugar section of the tariff bill will stand as it is tonight.

NEBRASKA MILITARY RESERVATIONS.

In the senate this afternoon Mr. Paddock called up and secured the passage of the bill which he introduced in January and reported from the committee on public lands in March last, providing for the disposal of Fort Hartshuff, Fort Sheridan and Fort McPherson, military reservations in Nebraska, to actual settlers under the homestead law. The bill provides that the lands embraced in these reservations, having been surveyed according to law, shall, from and after the passage of this act, be subject to disposal to actual settlers thereon as lands held at the minimum price according to the provisions of the homestead law only, and the lands embraced in the former military reservation of Fort McPherson which have been ordered surveyed shall as soon as such survey is completed be subject to like disposal, provided, that any person who prior to the passage of this act may have become an actual resident upon any of said reservations and may have erected permanent improvements thereon, may, if living, enter one quarter section of said land to include his residence and improvements under the provisions of the homestead law, notwithstanding he may have previously exhausted his rights thereunder, and notwithstanding the inhibition contained in section 2,298 of the revised statutes, or if deceased his heirs may enter such quarter section and may perfect title thereto in like manner as if the land had been entered by the deceased settler during his life time.

A SNUG SUM FOR NEBRASKA.

The senate has passed the bill which grants to the states of Nebraska, Kansas, Nevada, Colorado, Minnesota and Oregan 5 per cent of the value of the present Indian reservations in these states as well as 5 per cent of the money derived from the sale of public lands, and the commissioner of the general land office is required to give an account between the United States and each of the states named, estimating all such lands and reservations at $1.25 an acre, and to certify them to the secretary of the treasury for settlement. To Mr. E. Ham, private secretary to Senator Manderson, is due the credit for digging up this question. Several months ago he set to work to ascertain if there could not be turned into the treasury of Nebraska a considerable sum of money on this account, knowing that the Indian reservations were in point of fact and in the spirit if not the letter of the law a part of the public domain. He ascertained by inquiry at the land office as late as January 30, 1888, that there were in Nebraska 1,070,743 acres of Indian reservations, and under the provisions of the bill which has just passed the senate, which he suggested, the state of Nebraska will be entitled to 853,535. This, in addition to the sum recently given to the state by the act of congress which appropriated 5 per cent of the sales of lands in the public domain gives Nebraska quite a snug pile of pin money.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The house committee on mines and mining today heard an argument by John G. Merrill, representing the mineral land association of Montana, in support of Mr. Carter's bill providing for the examination and classification of certain mineral lands and other purposes. The bill directs the secretary of the interior to have examined and classified by competent persons with special reference to its mineral or non-mineral character all lands in Montana and Idaho within fifty miles of the Northern Pacific railroad, and upon such examination or classification to reject, cancel and disallow any claims which may be made by or in behalf of the Northern Pacific company to any and all mineral lands within these limits, and the word "mineral" is interpreted to not include iron or coal, and the examination and classification is to be made without reference to any previous examination or classification. The senate today passed the bill which validates land entries made in Montana, North and South Dakota and Washington prior to the time when they were admitted into the union of statehood.

In the house today Mr. Dorsey called up during the morning hour the bill introduced by Mr. Struble, granting right of way to the Pacific Short Line, or Sioux City & Oregon railroad company to construct a bridge over the Missouri river at Sioux City. There was objection upon the democratic side to the consideration of the measure, but this was overcome by the persuasions of the gentleman from the Third district. There have been many petitions sent here from Nebraska in favor of the bill, and it was twice taken up yesterday, but upon objection went over. The morning hour was exhausted today before a vote was called and the bill went over till Monday morning, when it will come up as unfinished business.

A large number of farmers, in their undivided capacity and as members of the Farmers' Alliance in Nebraska, are sending petitions and letters here in favor of the free coinage of silver and for the Butterworth anti-option bills. The large board of trade cities are fighting the Butterworth bill, and while the mails to the national capitol are crowded with matter relating to it, the south is jumping with both feet upon the Conger pure lard bill. The southern people claim that the Conger bill will ruin the cotton seed oil industry and deprive the poor people of one of the most wholesome as well as economical articles of food.

Senator Manderson today secured the passage by the senate of his bill appropriating $60,000 for the construction of a military supply depot and corral at Omaha.

Joseph H. Millard, president of the Omaha National bank, is here with his wife.

Frank Murphy, president of the Merchants' National bank of Omaha, and George E. Pritchett, ex-United States attorney for Nebraska, are at the Ebbitt.

Captain R. O. Phillips intends starting for Lincoln tomorrow night.

Corporal Thomas M. Franc, Company A, Twenty-seventh infantry, who is with his company at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, is transferred as a private to Troop L, Third cavalry, and will be sent to that section of the troop at the post of San Antonio, Tex.

A. P. Chamberlain of Des Moines is at the National.

The photographers of Grand Island have sent a petition here through J. R. Moeller, and it has been presented in the house by Mr. Dorsey, protesting against the proposed increase of the duty upon photographers' album paper from 15 to 35 per cent ad valorem.

Representative Owen, who went to New York two weeks ago as one of the chairmen of the joint committee investigating the immigration problem, is in Boston, and will return to Washington about Wednesday of next week. Mrs. Owen was with her husband in New York for a few days, but is now in Washington and will receive with Mrs. Spinola of New York on Wednesday.

Among the Hoosiers who attended Postmaster General Rud Mrs. Wanamaker's reception last night were Mrs. Huston and Mrs. Sellers of Connerville, Mrs. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Halford and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKee.

Hon. R. C. Bell of Fort Wayne, who is here on business before the supreme court, will not leave for his home till Monday night, as he does not expect to complete his argument before the supreme court before Monday.

Dr. Frank T. King has been appointed a member of the pension examining board at Tipton. PERRY S. HEATH.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In the senate Mr. Manderson introduced two bills that were referred to the library committee—for the purchase of Matthew's portrait of Abraham Lincoln and to accept from the Grand Army of the Republic a statue of U. S. Grant and a pedestal to be placed in statuary hall of the capitol. In connection with the latter Mr. Vest stated that the committee on public buildings and grounds had this morning ordered the reporting of a bill for an equestrian statue of General Grant in Washington.

Messrs. Manderson and Paddock today presented petitions from members of the farmers' alliances of Nebraska relating to the financial policy of the government. The petitions request the senate not to pass the Windom silver bill or any similar measure, to restore silver to free and unlimited coinage on an equality with gold and supplement this money with United States legal tender notes until the volume of currency shall reach $50 per capita of the population, and that as soon as possible to discontinue the issue of any other kinds of money whatever.

The house was requested to return the senate bill for a public building at Ashland, Wis., an error in the printing office having made the amount $200,000 instead of $160,000.

Among the bills passed were the following: Senate bill ratifying the agreement with the Indians at Fort Berthold Agency, North Dakota, and appropriating $80,000; senate bill creating an additional land office for North Dakota; senate bill to provide for the disposal of Fort Hartsuff, Fort Sheridan and Fort McPherson military reservations in Nebraska to actual settlers under the homestead laws. The senate bill to pay Mrs. Cameron $10,000 for property taken by the army at Chattanooga during the war, created a lengthy discussion, which turned on court claims.

Mr. Harris gave notice that if the decrees of that court were not provided for he would bring in a bill for its abolition.

Mr. Spooner criticized the influences that prevailed in the court of claims and suggested that the cases there did not receive proper scrutiny. The bill went over.

The senate bill appropriating $100,000 for an equestrian statue of General Grant in Washington was passed. Adjourned.
