The World of the latter place, speaking of Cook's arrest as also that of his alleged paramour, Miss Nickerson of Elkhorn in this state, says that Cook's wife arrived at Kingfisher a couple of weeks ago and stopped at the Monitor house, where she quietly awaited her guilty husband's ar-rival in town. Tuesday of last week when the drizzling rain was making everything dis-agreeable there came to the city the long looked for husband and with him the same Miss Nickerson that had cast the first shadow arross the sunshine of his once happy home. This was too much for the heart-broken wife to endure. She sware out a warrant for the arrest of her unfaithful Harry and his parathought had committed suicide in the Millard convention here and have done some thorough work. I find that the movement meets with very hearty support not only among the physicians of Nebraska but those of several adjacent states, particularly Iowa. There are but four or five who seem to doubt that the move will be a success. Such ones think that Omaha could not handle the crowds that would come. This is most completely answered, it seems to me, in the fact that Nashville, Tenn., only half as big as Omaha, is taking care of the convention this year. "The holding of the gathering here would

Iowa suspects, were arrested as suspicious characters, and on the 17th, after they had been incarcerated a day and a-half, the attornevs named were called into the case. The first step was the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus for the bodies of the prisoners. The officers got wind of this and DeGraves filed officers got wind of this and DeGraves filed an information against the suspects for resist-ing an officer. When the habcas corpus-came to be heard before Judge Clarkson County Attorney Mahoney told the court that Chief Seavey was in receipt of a telegram stating that a requisition from Iowa for the prisoners would be here on Sunday. Thus the resist-ance case was tried before Police Judge Hel-dey and dismissed without any cross-examinance case was tried before Police Judge Hel-sley and dismissed without any cross-examin-ation. The attorneys next got out anothers writ of habens corpus and shortly afterward the prisoners had filed against them an in-formation charging them with grand larceny in Chariton, ha, and they were held as fugi-tives from justice. It was necessary to serve the writ of habens corpus on some one and Deputy Sheriff Grebe undertook the task. He went to the city jail on Saturday night for that purpose, and waited, it is asserted, from 5.30 till 9:30 of clock, and during that time there was not to be found in the city building either chief, captain, sergeant or inflor.
