ARBOR DAY.

How the Day of Trees Was Observed in This City.

There was no great amount of tree planting done in Omaha today but in the minds of most people there must have lingered thoughts of trees.

SOME QUESTIONS A TAXPAYER WANTS TREASURER HOCTOR TO ANSWER.

Where Mayor Sloane Sets a Trap and Springs it on Himself—A Strike not Thought of on May 1.

South Omaha, April 21.—To the Editor of The Bee: I read with much interest and considerable amusement the interview printed in Sunday morning's World-Herald with City Treasurer Hoctor, in which he stated his reasons for opposing annexation.

After the meeting was over a prominent member of the union, in conversation with a Bee reporter, said: "I should like to see Hoctor at a large place before the middle of June, as we desire to give the contractors every opportunity, and do not wish to force them to quit the city."

THE LOYAL LEGION REUNION.
