Supreme Court Heard From.

A mandate has been received from the supreme court affirming the decision of the circuit court awarding $1,338 57 namages and $65 costs to Charles W. Walthers in his suit regulast the McCormick barvesting company. Mr. Walthers lives at Sutton, Neb., and i July, 1887, judgments amounting to $3,853 were obtained against him by the company in were obtained against him by the company in question, through its agent at that place. As a consequence Walthers' business was rulned. He sued for $10,000 damares and was awarded $1,338.57. The harvesting machine company carried the matter to the highest tribunal in the land with the above result. This decision will also wipe out the judgments of $1,853 obtained against Walthers in 1887.

It was a Fake.

There is no strike there that I know anything about, and who would hear of it quicker! I am afraid that the fact that THE BEE scooped that same paper a day ago on the fact that we had arranged for $5,000,000 worth of manufactories over on our land had something to do with the publication of that wild-eyed stuff about Graphically Detailed by an Observant Omaha Scientist One hardly realizes the extent of this country," said Mr. Andrew Rosewater, who has returned from an extended trip to the south. "It would be impossible to tell you of all the places I visited," said the gentleman, "but to begin with I first went to Peoria, Ill., a town that is noted for the manufacture of paying brick, and I am sorry to say the brick, when the question of durability is taken into consideration, is not what could be desired. The city being the home of this material, as a natural consequence the brick is used for street paving, and with one exception the streets show decided signs of wear, while the gutters, where the horses have stood, are the gutters, where the horses have stood, are all chopped to pieces, though in many places the brick were put down only two or three years ago. On Franklin street it is alto-gether different. This street was paved with brick manufactured at Ottawa, and, while they were laid three years ago, the street presents as smooth a surface as it did when the work was completed, showing no evi-dence of wear. These brick are 12 inches in length, 5 in thickness and 4 in width, and luding the sub-grading cost only $1.83 per uare yard.

"After leaving Peoria," said Mr. Rose.

"After leaving Peoria," said Mr. Rosewater, "I went to Knoxville, Tenn., where I consulted with the mayor and city council upon the subject of sewers and sewage.
At this point I found a southcern city that was enjoying a boom—one of immense proportions—brought about by northern men, northern enterprise and northern capital. Knoxville, during the last few years, has grown from a dilamidated last few years, has grown from a dilapidated little southern hamlet to a busy, bustling city of 50,000 inhabitants, and now stands third in the state. The people are actively engaged in manufacturing, and, with the coal and iron that has been found in the neighborhood, it ses to soon become one of the leading cities of the south, "I next journeyed to Atlanta, Ga., where I was again most agreeably surprised at the development, as on every hand one can see the velopment, as on every hand one can see the effect that northern money is having. The streets are being paved with Belgium block pavement, large business houses are being erected, and the whole country presents a far different appearance from what it did when Sherman passed through twenty-five years ago. The Kimball house, a seven-story building, is one of the finest hotels in the south, occupying a whole block of ground.

"One thing that must strike the traveler is the progress being made by the colored people. It has been stated that these men of color will not work, but at Atlanta, as well as in many other southern cities, I found them employed as carpenters, bricklayers, and, in employed as carpenters, bricklayers, and, in fact, in nearly everyother place where skilled workmen were needed. They seem to be thrifty and getting along as well as the white inhabitants. In the rolling mills, where a great number of men is employed, nearly are negroes. There are some features that are quite striking, as at the depots there are invariably two waiting rooms—one for the whites and one for the colored people. The same may be said of the schools and churches.

"The monuments about Atlanta are of in-

"The monuments about Atlanta are of interest, as there are buried many of the most noted confederates, and, in almost every instance a marble shaft, pointing heavenward, marks the spot, while neat white stones in the cemeteries indicates where those of less note have found a final resting place."

"Omaha might feel proud of the parks of this little southern city, as there are any number of them, all beatuiful and well cared for, while, scattered about the city are numerous public gardens, where tropical plants and sweet scented flowers bloom nearly the whole year round.

"The people court northern enterprise and Jacksonville, Fla., was the next southern city to which Mr. Rosewater paid a visit, and "there," he said, "I found the largest town in the state, a city well built, streets paved with cypress, cut from the swamps which abound in the interior; a good harber on St. John's river, where the largest vessels may be moored. Tropical fruit was for sale, and in large quantities was chean though in the in large quantities was cheap, though in the local market it was as expensive as upon the streets of Omaha.

"Right here I want to tell you that in Flor-la you do not eat the best fruit they raise." said Mr. Rosewater. "as it is shipped to New York, Chicago and Omaha, while the inferior qualities find a market at home.

"I next visited Tampa, Fla., said Mr. osewater, "where again I was most agreeably surprised, as that city has made most rapid strides, growing from a town of 500 to a city of 10,000 inhabitants during the past five years. The principal occupation of the people is that of manufacturing Havana ci-gars, and as a consequence the majority of the people are Cubans, who work in the large tobacco factories. They have a most peculiar method of informing the workmen of peculiar method of informing the workmen of the news of the day. The principal and central figure of the establishment is a reading clerk, who, upon a desk at his right, has the leading newspapers and periodicals of the country; and, while the men are busily en-gaged in sorting tobacco and rolling cigars, in a clear, land tone of volce the clear was the a clear, loud tone of voice, the clerk reads the papers or magazines, as suits his fancy.

"Another singular feature of the town is the new hotel which is being built at a cost of nearly $1,000,000 and will accommodate fully 500 guests. It seems that the owners are outdoing themselves, but the inhabitants of the city claim it will be profitable, as Tampa is bound to become a great winter resort for northern people, "Port Tampa, twelve miles south of the city, is another important point, as it is the shipping port to Cuba, South America and Mexico, and, in time, is destined to become a port that will largely control the trade of that portion of the coast. "Throughout Florida, and the southern portion more especially, the people are considerably stirred up over the proposed high tariff on tobacco, as they have had an idea it would drive the Cubans to manufacturing cigars at home instead of at Key West and Tampa, and as a result, several delegations were sent to Washington to protest against

The structure is owned by Mr. Flagler of the Standard oil company, and covers 10 acres of ground. It is built of stone, while its carving and statuary is of the highest idea of art. Gardens, parlors, baths, swings and everything for the convenience of the guests are found. It is patronized by guests from all parts of the world. In ized by guests from all parts of the world. In its construction, no expense was spared, and while it is not supposed it will pay a large rate of interest on the investment, it will remain a monument to the personal pride of its

"At this point, old Fort Morion, which was built by the Spanish in 1665, is an object of great interest to the sight-seer. FIGHTING FOR A FRANCHISE.

The Rock Island Wants the Inside Track at Lincoln-Rail Notes. The Burlington and Rock Island roads are etting into what promises to be a very bitter fight at Lincoln. It seems that the latter wants a right of way for its proposed new line through that town on Eighth street, and an ordinance granting its request has been prepared, but the Burlington people oppose it and are doing all they can to prevent such franchise being given. When a BEE reporter asked General Manager Holdrege what object his company had in making a war of this kind,

"We are not opposed to the Rock Island building all the roads it wants to in Ne-braska, but we do object to its occupying a street through Lincoln between our tracks and our depot and the town, and I don't believe the citizens of Lincoln are favorable to any such a scheme. We expect to still stay there and probably do some business ever after the Rock Island gets in and we there fore object to having the access to our depot made dangerous by the tracks of the corpor-tion being put down between us and the city.

On a Par With St. Paul.

Chairman Faithorn of the western traffic association has made a decision equalizing the rate on Montana traffic originating east of Chicago between Chicago and Omaha with the rate on similar business between Chicago and St. Paul. Heretofore the low basis by way of St. Paul to Montana points gave the Northern Pacific advantage over the Union Pacific in that business. The latter corporation therefore made complaint and insisted on an equalization of the rates by the two routes but at first the Chicago lines refused to reduce Missouri river rates to the St. Paul reduce Missouri river rates to the St. Paul basis. They thought, or rather held out as an excuse for their action, that to do this would involve them in a violation of the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce law. The Union Pacific people obligated themselves, however, to release the Chicago lines from any responsibilities on that score, consequently the Euthern care his desirious uently Mr. Faithern gave his decision in Decorated and with Prize Machinery and a Band Arrive This Afternoon.

At 3:35 o'clock this afternoon the immense special train laden with the goods of William Deering & Co.'s harvesting machinery manufactory, Chicago, will arrive at the foot of Eighth and Pacific streets.

The train consists of fifty cars, all highly decorated and accompanied by a fine band of

The goods are intended for the firm's immense new warehouse at the foot of Capitol avenue. The train is really two trains of twenty-five cars each, and at the end of each will be a display car attractively decorated, with a full line of the Deering machines set up and ready for the field. The whole train, how ever, is one big show and will doubtless attract a large assemblage of sightseers. On arrival here this train will be run into the passenger yards at Eighth and Pacific streets. A photographer will be on the scene and make a series of pictures from different points of the cars and their displays of machinery. The cars will be allowed to stand for public inspection until late in the evening, when they will be run into the Burlington yards at Fighth streat and Cauttel avenue, where Eighth street and Capitol avenue, where their new warehouse stands. Here they will remain on the tracks in solid trains until Saturday afternoon, when they will be unloaded and stored in the different departments of the warehouse. MILLIONS OF ANIMALS,

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE, FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1890.

You Can Not See Them but you May be Devoured by Them if You Are Not on Your Guard. Mal-aria-bad air. What is bad air? It is air loaded with millions of minute animals too small to be seen by the naked eye and every one of them poisonous. Look at a sunberm where it comes streaming through your window and notice the millions of atoms of clust that it contains. You do not see this clust except as it is made visible in a sunbeam. Then think how many thousands of millions of smaller animals there must be in every breath drawn into the lungs and not one of which can be seen! But they minst live and they do live upon that portion of the human body which they can get at. This is mainria. Is it any wonder that nearly every man and woman is troubled with it? Is it not rather a wonder that they are not troubled more? But what can be done? Kill the germs. How? Nothing so quickly and certainly does it as rune whiskey. Nothing so certainly injures, as impure whiskey, and no whiskey was ever known that is so absolutely pure in every respect as Duffy's Pure Mait. Professor Henry A. Mott of New York, declares it: Mr. Wm. T. Cutter, State Chemist of Connecticut, unlesstatingly asserts it; all prominent scientists, doctors, and professors who have investigated it, fully agree and are unqualified in their commendations.
