THE LIMIT OF PROHIBITION.

Prohibition received a discouraging blow in the decision of the United States supreme court, which declares that a state cannot prevent liquors coming within its boundaries in the regular course of commerce and their delivery to the persons importing them.

It is sufficiently plain, as contended by the minority of the court, that if a state having prohibition cannot keep out liquors manufactured in other states, though it can regulate or prohibit their sale after they become the property of its citizens, the result must be to impair the effectiveness of the state's policy.

The increased development of the mineral resources of the country is strikingly shown in the annual report of the director of the mint. While the total gold product decreased two hundred thousand dollars last year compared with the previous year, the silver product increased nearly four millions.

THE BEE'S figures on the financial condition of South Omaha can be readily verified by an examination of the books. The denials of the opponents of annexation cannot alter the fact that the salvation of the city depends on union.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. If the strike of the Chicago packers continues for any length of time the Armour, Swift and other packers will do their packing at Omaha and Kansas City.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings. An Oddfellows lodge is to be organized at Birwell. The Broken Bow cornet band will be reorganized.

Mr. Hawley of Pierce has returned from Oregon with 11,000 sheep, which he will feed at Knox county, and K. A. Tawney of the same place will feed 2,000 head.

THE extension of the electric railway over the Farnam street line to a connection with the Walnut Hill line at Love avenue is at last assured. Work on the motor will soon begin and the horse car on our principal thoroughfares will soon be a reminiscence.

DON'T BELIEVE IN DANCING.

The State Oratorical Association Objects to the Masq. UNIVERSITY DELEGATES PROTEST.

A lively row in progress—Another Playwright Discovers—State House Jottings—Supreme Court Matters—The City in Brief.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 29.—[Special to THE BEE].—Ferguson's plagiarized oration is not only the cause that causes the State Oratorical association to object to the masq. It appears that this is a general rule in a masq. The original program for the interstate contest, which takes place at Funk's opera house Thursday evening, provided for a banquet and ball for the evening following.

It appears, also, that Ferguson is not the only plagiarizer. Knox college will enter a protest against the appearance of A. C. Ferguson, a member of the interstate contest of the Galesburg institution, to assert that he cribbed his oration and even more blameable than the Westland A. M. E. church, which has promised to be a lively affair.

The following orators compete for the honor of H. N. Wilson of Boulder, Colo.: S. W. Taylor of Washington, D. C.; H. Lyon of Iowa City, Ia.; B. H. Timberlake of Minneapolis, Minn.; W. B. Miller of Beloit, Wis.; Benjamin H. Mumford, Ill.; R. H. Tucker of Akron, O.

Disbarment proceedings were commenced in the supreme court today against Beckenridge & Beckenridge, a law firm of Omaha, by Halstead A. Musick of Hamilton county. He alleges that as lawyers Beckenridge & Beckenridge have made false affidavits in the supreme court.

It appears that Beckenridge & Beckenridge represent Burmah, Tuells & Co. of Iowa, in the federal courts, and have been their practice as lawyers to take their foreclosures, commencing suit in the state courts and having them removed to the federal courts.

A local reporter for THE BEE saw Mr. R. W. Beckenridge with respect to the above disbarment proceedings. He stated that nothing about the matter beyond the first intimation made in the dispatch, and the first intimation he or his firm had of any such proceeding was conveyed to him by Mr. Schomp who happened to be present in the supreme court when the matter was presented to the federal court.

The facts are simple. The G. firm are the attorneys for the mortgage brokers, Burmah, Tuells & Co., for many years located in Omaha. The G. firm are now in Hamilton county, Nebraska, in Lincoln, W. Tuells, as trustee for a non-resident holder of a mortgage on the land mortgaged to Burmah, Tuells & Co. was made a party defendant, and the case was on the order of Judge Dundy, removed from the district court to the federal court.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. If the strike of the Chicago packers continues for any length of time the Armour, Swift and other packers will do their packing at Omaha and Kansas City.

Representative Christie of Edgar is in the city. He says he has no aspirations to succeed himself to the state legislature. Mrs. Editor Johnson of Sutton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Stephenson. Joe Johnson, a well-known legislator, accompanied his wife to the city. It is reported that Dan Nettleton is the coming man for congress in the Second congressional district.

THEY DENOUNCE HIM. The Farmers' alliance in Sutton county has passed resolutions concerning one James Sanford, who is traveling through the state claiming to represent a Farmers' alliance insurance company, and also claiming to be employed by the state alliance to address the subordinate alliances. They allege that the insurance company which he represents is not connected with the alliance in any way or form, and that he is acting without the authority of the alliance. The School Union alliance denounces Sanford as a fraud and an injury to the cause.

Consent that the resolutions passed by that body, the Sutton Advertiser says: There is great indignation throughout the country where this man has been operating in such a fraudulent manner. In this section, Mr. Sanford struck this country about a month ago. His first debut into public notoriety was at Geneva, where he laterportantly speaking, and insulted the governor in a loud and impudent manner. He has since then spent his time among different lodges in this section, speaking at night in the school houses and working his insurance racket in the day time, and all the while living on fat and eggs and other substantial food furnished free by his misguided admirers.

His harangues at the school houses consist always in furious and windy assailing all lines of business and all conditions of society outside of farmers and the farming business; and the Farmer's alliance, according to his statements, is a mere name. He pictures all business as in direct opposition to the farmer, and his doctrine is wild and unreasoning. A number of his victims got together in working the situation for all it is worth, and in comparing notes discovered that for the same amount of insurance he had charged them all the way from $12 to $30. He pronounced by the way as a fraud of the first water, and farmers everywhere are warned against his designing schemes, which are funny situations, and which will stand until it is exposed and then skip to new fields. It is a shame that just at this time, when the farmer's movement is under the auspices of our state governor, a man should come in with such a record as this, when the farmer's movement is under the auspices of our state governor, and is kicked out of the confidence of the farmers, whose confidence he has abused.
