

I resident Gompers. After dinner a number of addresses were delivered...

Small Turnout in New York. New York, May 1.—The New York City end of the world-wide labor demonstration tonight was not a great success...

Refused to Work. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—A Brazil, Ind., special says that all the miners from all over Clay county...

Cool Heavers Win. WEST SCHEMUN, Wis., May 1.—The cool heavers won their strike for 50 cents an hour and leave to work...

Knocville Carpenters Out. KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 1.—All the carpenters in the city, both union and non-union, are out for the eight-hour day and ten hours pay...

No Disturbance in Berlin. BERLIN, May 1.—Quiet prevails throughout the entire city and the streets bear their normal appearance...

Many Men Wounded. PARIS, May 1.—All was tranquil in the provinces today. In the city large crowds gathered at various points...

Covered by the Police. LONDON, May 1.—Five hundred disorderly men gathered on the Thames embankment this morning, bent on making some kind of a demonstration...

All Traversed in France. PARIS, May 1.—Travel is quiet here at noon. Dispatches from Marseilles, Bordeaux, Nancy, Reims and Lille say no disturbances have occurred in any of those places...

Observed Quietly at Lisbon. LISBON, May 1.—The day is being observed with quietness by the workmen in this city. The strikers are all working...

At Ottawa. OTTAWA, May 1.—The bricklayers, stonecutters and masons numbering 1,500, were on a strike today for nine hours' work and ten hours' pay...

At Minneapolis. MINNEAPOLIS, May 1.—Labor day passed very quietly. There was a large mass meeting this evening in the interest of the eight-hour movement...

At Denver. DENVER, Col., May 1.—There was no labor demonstration here today. The carpenters have been working only eight hours for several months and a strike is not anticipated...

Printers Demand a Raise. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It is now a pretty well settled fact that the job printers of this city will make a formal demand for a reduction to nine hours per day with $16 per week...

IN THE FIELD OF SPORT. The Corn Huskers Go Down Before the Omaha on Their Own Grounds. IT WAS A WELL MERITED VICTORY.

Fights and Fighters—A Big Base Ball Wager—Corrigan Buys Helter-Skelter—Wizard Schneider—Local Sporting Gossip.

Played. Won. Lost. Per Cent. Denver, 10 6 4 .600 Chicago, 11 7 4 .559 Des Moines, 12 7 5 .563 Minneapolis, 11 6 5 .553

Base Hits and Pick-Ups. The Denver will be here next Tuesday. Joe Strauss has signed to catch for Sioux City.

Omaha 5, Sioux City 4. SIoux City, Ia., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It was a rattling game that ended today in the defeat of the home team by the Omaha visitors.

They Will Both Win. Both Jack Prince and Ned Reading are in vigorous training for their great race which begins on the 12th.

The Wizard Goes Through. Wizard Schneider, the champion billiard player of the world, together with Frank Ives, Chicago's wonderful young player, passed through Omaha last evening on route to Denver.

Australian Murphy's Def. NEW YORK, May 1.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Australian Billy Murphy issued a challenge today to fight any man in the world at 118 pounds for $2,500 a side and the championship.

Chapman Has His Nerve. ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 1.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Manager Jack Chapman of the Louisville team has wagered $5,000 with President Von Der Ahe that the Falls City team takes three out of a series of four games with the Browns.

Black Middle Weights Matched. CHICAGO, May 1.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Andy Mills and Bob Harper, colored middle weights, were matched today for a finish fight with two-ounce gloves, for $300 a side.

Elizabeth Races. ELIZABETH, N. J., May 1.—Summary of today's races: Five and one-half furlongs—Blue Rock won, Salisbury second, Centura third.

THE SPEED RACE. ELIZABETH, N. J., May 1.—Summary of today's races: Three-year-olds and upwards, one mile—Jacobson won, Mary J second, Royal third.

A Green Goods Dupe. SUPERIOR, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Elijah Beebe, the "green goods" dupe, is a young man aged about twenty or twenty-two years.

Indians Object to Census Taking. VALLENTINE, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Colonel Judkin, United States Indian inspector, who has been at Rosebud agency directing the taking of the census of the tribe and looking into the feasibility of removing the agency, passed through here on his way east last evening.

LAWLESS ELEMENTS MUST GO. Gamblers and Other Objectionable Characters Notified to Leave Fremont. THE BEST PEOPLE APPROVE OF IT.

A Nebraska City Saloonkeeper Shot at for Refusing to Produce the Drinks—Other News About the State.

Had a Leg Badly Mangled. BEATRICE, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—C. J. Cushman, an employe of the Dempster mill company, had one of his legs badly mangled while throwing the power belt on the water wheel this afternoon.

A Fifteen-Year-Old Suicide. BENEFICIAL, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Minnie Stone, a maid of fifteen summers, living some miles in the interior, committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart with a shotgun last Tuesday night.

A Verdict for the Plaintiff. GRANT, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—After being out twelve hours the jury in the Howland case, in which plaintiff sued the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy for $25,000 damages for alleged injuries received from the mayor, returned a verdict in a verdict for plaintiff for $466.66.

May Party at Fremont. FREMONT, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The social club closed its season of gaiety tonight by giving an elaborate party at Masonic hall.

Barn and Horses Burned. ALLAMONA, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A small barn and two horses belonging to F. M. Suedler were consumed by fire today, originating from a smoldering manure pile.

AMUSEMENTS. "A Tin Soldier" was the attraction at Boyd's opera house last night. This, like all of Hoyt's satirical comedies, still retains its popularity and makes people who played in it feel that they are doing something.

A Very Unsteady Shot. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., May 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Patsy Clifford, a local character, this morning shot at Joe Kopf, a saloonkeeper, because he refused him a drink of beer.

Louisville Items. LOUISVILLE, Neb., May 1.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The new town board met last night. The following officers were selected for the ensuing year: J. P. Ellis, chairman; W. A. Clough, clerk; W. B. Shroyok, treasurer; C. W. Spence, marshal and street commissioner.

"A Doll's House." Walter Besant's attempted sequel to Ibsen's "Doll's House" has been translated in Danish, and has naturally attracted a good deal of attention in Copenhagen.

He Had No Faith in Banks. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Charles Genapp, a farmer living near Ossian, Winnebago county, not having much confidence in banks as a safe place for his surplus funds, selected the top of his heating stove as a bank of deposit and deposited his pocketbook, containing $85.

Teachers' Convention. OTTAWA, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The county superintendents and teachers' convention of the twenty-nine boring counties closed its two days' session today. Excellent papers and timely topics and lively discussions marked the entire session.

Burned on Her Wedding Day. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—Miss Lizzy Warner, a pretty young lady of this city, was badly burned yesterday morning while preparing for her wedding. Miss Warner was emptying a trunk in which to pack her trousseau, and threw the rubbish contained in it into the fire.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE. MYSTERIOUS DEATH NEAR BAXTER. Citizens of Des Moines Making War on the Salvation Army—A Woman Fatally Burned—Other Iowa News.

ATLANTIC, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A five-story building, the city hall, caboose and engine house burned at Griswold last night. The losses are estimated as follows: City hall, $100,000; engine house, $10,000; caboose, $5,000; Frank Nichols, $1,000; Will Nichols, $500; city of Griswold, $1,000; John Korn, restaurant, $400; J. J. Keener, grocer, $1,500; Mrs. D. J. milliner, $800; S. O. Osborn, general store, $2,000; Gordon, grocer, $1,000. The insurance will cover about half of the loss.

Penitentiary Contract Extended. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council was in session this morning in consultation with Warden McMillan of the Fort Madison penitentiary in regard to the extension by the state of the contract with the firming implement company to the same date of expiration of the other company employing contract labor. The council, after discussing the matter to some length, extended the time of the contract one and one-half years.

Found Dead Beside the Track. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years a resident of this city, Mr. Tom Murray, a resident of this city, was killed by the cars near Baxter in a mysterious manner last night. He left on the Diagonal for Malvern, got off the train, appeared to be drunk, and walked around awhile. A little later he was found lying face down beside the tracks. His remains have been brought here for burial.

Salvations Arrested. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years the Salvation army have had free swing here, using the streets for their parades and meeting two or three times a day without interference. But the patience of those who live in the vicinity of their barracks has been exhausted, and complaint was made to the mayor today. An ordinance prohibits any brass-band from parading the streets without permission from the mayor, and the army have ignored it heretofore. But the city marshal warned them today that it would be enforced. They denied the city government, and started on their way. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard.

A Court on Wheels. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train having an important bearing on the future of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road arrived in this city this evening. The train was practically a court on wheels, carrying the judge of the Hennepin county, Minnesota, before whom foreclosure proceedings are pending on the road are now pending, together with the legal and other representatives of the old St. Louis company. The court is to ascertain whether it will be to the interest of the stockholders to have the foreclosure sale made or try and put the road on its feet. The court will examine the affairs of the company all along the line and make its decision when it returns to Minneapolis.

He Had No Faith in Banks. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Charles Genapp, a farmer living near Ossian, Winnebago county, not having much confidence in banks as a safe place for his surplus funds, selected the top of his heating stove as a bank of deposit and deposited his pocketbook, containing $85. Mrs. Genapp built a fire in the stove and when the pocketbook burst to size and spluttered the family were at a loss to know what the whole affair meant. They thought of the pocketbook, shoved back the top of the stove, and to her amazement found the book of mass of charred ashes. An examination showed that the book was full of money and pretty near both ends. Enough, however, remained to be sent to Washington for redemption.

Capitol Ground Improvements. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council today appointed General Ed Wright, having charge of the improvement of the capitol grounds. He was chosen chiefly because of his previous connection with the board that superintended the building of the capitol. The last legislature appropriated for the improvement of the capitol grounds $100,000. One-third is to be spent this year, one-third next year, and the balance the third year.

Teachers' Convention. OTTAWA, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The county superintendents and teachers' convention of the twenty-nine boring counties closed its two days' session today. Excellent papers and timely topics and lively discussions marked the entire session. A resolution was adopted to the effect that a uniform state course of four years county normal institutes should be adopted, and no certificates be granted without passing an examination in such course with an average of not less than 85 per cent.

Burned on Her Wedding Day. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—Miss Lizzy Warner, a pretty young lady of this city, was badly burned yesterday morning while preparing for her wedding. Miss Warner was emptying a trunk in which to pack her trousseau, and threw the rubbish contained in it into the fire. A package containing a pound of gunpowder went into the stove with the rest and exploded. The girls heard, arose and fled, but were unable to get out. Miss Warner was badly burned, and her injuries were very serious. She was taken to the hospital, but her condition is so serious that she is likely to prove fatal.

A Woman Fatally Burned. NEWTON, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. William Tocht, living near Horn, in this county, went to the woods for some hams. While there her dress caught fire and burned. It was extinguished, but she was badly burned, involving injuries which are likely to prove fatal.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE. MYSTERIOUS DEATH NEAR BAXTER. Citizens of Des Moines Making War on the Salvation Army—A Woman Fatally Burned—Other Iowa News.

ATLANTIC, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A five-story building, the city hall, caboose and engine house burned at Griswold last night. The losses are estimated as follows: City hall, $100,000; engine house, $10,000; caboose, $5,000; Frank Nichols, $1,000; Will Nichols, $500; city of Griswold, $1,000; John Korn, restaurant, $400; J. J. Keener, grocer, $1,500; Mrs. D. J. milliner, $800; S. O. Osborn, general store, $2,000; Gordon, grocer, $1,000. The insurance will cover about half of the loss.

Penitentiary Contract Extended. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council was in session this morning in consultation with Warden McMillan of the Fort Madison penitentiary in regard to the extension by the state of the contract with the firming implement company to the same date of expiration of the other company employing contract labor. The council, after discussing the matter to some length, extended the time of the contract one and one-half years.

Found Dead Beside the Track. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years a resident of this city, Mr. Tom Murray, a resident of this city, was killed by the cars near Baxter in a mysterious manner last night. He left on the Diagonal for Malvern, got off the train, appeared to be drunk, and walked around awhile. A little later he was found lying face down beside the tracks. His remains have been brought here for burial.

Salvations Arrested. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years the Salvation army have had free swing here, using the streets for their parades and meeting two or three times a day without interference. But the patience of those who live in the vicinity of their barracks has been exhausted, and complaint was made to the mayor today. An ordinance prohibits any brass-band from parading the streets without permission from the mayor, and the army have ignored it heretofore. But the city marshal warned them today that it would be enforced. They denied the city government, and started on their way. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard.

A Court on Wheels. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train having an important bearing on the future of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road arrived in this city this evening. The train was practically a court on wheels, carrying the judge of the Hennepin county, Minnesota, before whom foreclosure proceedings are pending on the road are now pending, together with the legal and other representatives of the old St. Louis company. The court is to ascertain whether it will be to the interest of the stockholders to have the foreclosure sale made or try and put the road on its feet. The court will examine the affairs of the company all along the line and make its decision when it returns to Minneapolis.

He Had No Faith in Banks. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Charles Genapp, a farmer living near Ossian, Winnebago county, not having much confidence in banks as a safe place for his surplus funds, selected the top of his heating stove as a bank of deposit and deposited his pocketbook, containing $85. Mrs. Genapp built a fire in the stove and when the pocketbook burst to size and spluttered the family were at a loss to know what the whole affair meant. They thought of the pocketbook, shoved back the top of the stove, and to her amazement found the book of mass of charred ashes. An examination showed that the book was full of money and pretty near both ends. Enough, however, remained to be sent to Washington for redemption.

Capitol Ground Improvements. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council today appointed General Ed Wright, having charge of the improvement of the capitol grounds. He was chosen chiefly because of his previous connection with the board that superintended the building of the capitol. The last legislature appropriated for the improvement of the capitol grounds $100,000. One-third is to be spent this year, one-third next year, and the balance the third year.

Teachers' Convention. OTTAWA, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The county superintendents and teachers' convention of the twenty-nine boring counties closed its two days' session today. Excellent papers and timely topics and lively discussions marked the entire session. A resolution was adopted to the effect that a uniform state course of four years county normal institutes should be adopted, and no certificates be granted without passing an examination in such course with an average of not less than 85 per cent.

Burned on Her Wedding Day. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—Miss Lizzy Warner, a pretty young lady of this city, was badly burned yesterday morning while preparing for her wedding. Miss Warner was emptying a trunk in which to pack her trousseau, and threw the rubbish contained in it into the fire. A package containing a pound of gunpowder went into the stove with the rest and exploded. The girls heard, arose and fled, but were unable to get out. Miss Warner was badly burned, and her injuries were very serious. She was taken to the hospital, but her condition is so serious that she is likely to prove fatal.

A Woman Fatally Burned. NEWTON, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. William Tocht, living near Horn, in this county, went to the woods for some hams. While there her dress caught fire and burned. It was extinguished, but she was badly burned, involving injuries which are likely to prove fatal.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE. MYSTERIOUS DEATH NEAR BAXTER. Citizens of Des Moines Making War on the Salvation Army—A Woman Fatally Burned—Other Iowa News.

ATLANTIC, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A five-story building, the city hall, caboose and engine house burned at Griswold last night. The losses are estimated as follows: City hall, $100,000; engine house, $10,000; caboose, $5,000; Frank Nichols, $1,000; Will Nichols, $500; city of Griswold, $1,000; John Korn, restaurant, $400; J. J. Keener, grocer, $1,500; Mrs. D. J. milliner, $800; S. O. Osborn, general store, $2,000; Gordon, grocer, $1,000. The insurance will cover about half of the loss.

Penitentiary Contract Extended. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council was in session this morning in consultation with Warden McMillan of the Fort Madison penitentiary in regard to the extension by the state of the contract with the firming implement company to the same date of expiration of the other company employing contract labor. The council, after discussing the matter to some length, extended the time of the contract one and one-half years.

Found Dead Beside the Track. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years a resident of this city, Mr. Tom Murray, a resident of this city, was killed by the cars near Baxter in a mysterious manner last night. He left on the Diagonal for Malvern, got off the train, appeared to be drunk, and walked around awhile. A little later he was found lying face down beside the tracks. His remains have been brought here for burial.

Salvations Arrested. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years the Salvation army have had free swing here, using the streets for their parades and meeting two or three times a day without interference. But the patience of those who live in the vicinity of their barracks has been exhausted, and complaint was made to the mayor today. An ordinance prohibits any brass-band from parading the streets without permission from the mayor, and the army have ignored it heretofore. But the city marshal warned them today that it would be enforced. They denied the city government, and started on their way. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard.

A Court on Wheels. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train having an important bearing on the future of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road arrived in this city this evening. The train was practically a court on wheels, carrying the judge of the Hennepin county, Minnesota, before whom foreclosure proceedings are pending on the road are now pending, together with the legal and other representatives of the old St. Louis company. The court is to ascertain whether it will be to the interest of the stockholders to have the foreclosure sale made or try and put the road on its feet. The court will examine the affairs of the company all along the line and make its decision when it returns to Minneapolis.

He Had No Faith in Banks. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Charles Genapp, a farmer living near Ossian, Winnebago county, not having much confidence in banks as a safe place for his surplus funds, selected the top of his heating stove as a bank of deposit and deposited his pocketbook, containing $85. Mrs. Genapp built a fire in the stove and when the pocketbook burst to size and spluttered the family were at a loss to know what the whole affair meant. They thought of the pocketbook, shoved back the top of the stove, and to her amazement found the book of mass of charred ashes. An examination showed that the book was full of money and pretty near both ends. Enough, however, remained to be sent to Washington for redemption.

Capitol Ground Improvements. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council today appointed General Ed Wright, having charge of the improvement of the capitol grounds. He was chosen chiefly because of his previous connection with the board that superintended the building of the capitol. The last legislature appropriated for the improvement of the capitol grounds $100,000. One-third is to be spent this year, one-third next year, and the balance the third year.

Teachers' Convention. OTTAWA, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The county superintendents and teachers' convention of the twenty-nine boring counties closed its two days' session today. Excellent papers and timely topics and lively discussions marked the entire session. A resolution was adopted to the effect that a uniform state course of four years county normal institutes should be adopted, and no certificates be granted without passing an examination in such course with an average of not less than 85 per cent.

Burned on Her Wedding Day. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—Miss Lizzy Warner, a pretty young lady of this city, was badly burned yesterday morning while preparing for her wedding. Miss Warner was emptying a trunk in which to pack her trousseau, and threw the rubbish contained in it into the fire. A package containing a pound of gunpowder went into the stove with the rest and exploded. The girls heard, arose and fled, but were unable to get out. Miss Warner was badly burned, and her injuries were very serious. She was taken to the hospital, but her condition is so serious that she is likely to prove fatal.

A Woman Fatally Burned. NEWTON, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. William Tocht, living near Horn, in this county, went to the woods for some hams. While there her dress caught fire and burned. It was extinguished, but she was badly burned, involving injuries which are likely to prove fatal.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE. MYSTERIOUS DEATH NEAR BAXTER. Citizens of Des Moines Making War on the Salvation Army—A Woman Fatally Burned—Other Iowa News.

ATLANTIC, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A five-story building, the city hall, caboose and engine house burned at Griswold last night. The losses are estimated as follows: City hall, $100,000; engine house, $10,000; caboose, $5,000; Frank Nichols, $1,000; Will Nichols, $500; city of Griswold, $1,000; John Korn, restaurant, $400; J. J. Keener, grocer, $1,500; Mrs. D. J. milliner, $800; S. O. Osborn, general store, $2,000; Gordon, grocer, $1,000. The insurance will cover about half of the loss.

Penitentiary Contract Extended. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council was in session this morning in consultation with Warden McMillan of the Fort Madison penitentiary in regard to the extension by the state of the contract with the firming implement company to the same date of expiration of the other company employing contract labor. The council, after discussing the matter to some length, extended the time of the contract one and one-half years.

Found Dead Beside the Track. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years a resident of this city, Mr. Tom Murray, a resident of this city, was killed by the cars near Baxter in a mysterious manner last night. He left on the Diagonal for Malvern, got off the train, appeared to be drunk, and walked around awhile. A little later he was found lying face down beside the tracks. His remains have been brought here for burial.

Salvations Arrested. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—For nearly four years the Salvation army have had free swing here, using the streets for their parades and meeting two or three times a day without interference. But the patience of those who live in the vicinity of their barracks has been exhausted, and complaint was made to the mayor today. An ordinance prohibits any brass-band from parading the streets without permission from the mayor, and the army have ignored it heretofore. But the city marshal warned them today that it would be enforced. They denied the city government, and started on their way. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard. The city marshal then sent a patrol of police to the barracks. They didn't blow their horns until the parade was nearly over; then a blast of brass-band music was heard.

A Court on Wheels. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train having an important bearing on the future of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road arrived in this city this evening. The train was practically a court on wheels, carrying the judge of the Hennepin county, Minnesota, before whom foreclosure proceedings are pending on the road are now pending, together with the legal and other representatives of the old St. Louis company. The court is to ascertain whether it will be to the interest of the stockholders to have the foreclosure sale made or try and put the road on its feet. The court will examine the affairs of the company all along the line and make its decision when it returns to Minneapolis.

He Had No Faith in Banks. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Charles Genapp, a farmer living near Ossian, Winnebago county, not having much confidence in banks as a safe place for his surplus funds, selected the top of his heating stove as a bank of deposit and deposited his pocketbook, containing $85. Mrs. Genapp built a fire in the stove and when the pocketbook burst to size and spluttered the family were at a loss to know what the whole affair meant. They thought of the pocketbook, shoved back the top of the stove, and to her amazement found the book of mass of charred ashes. An examination showed that the book was full of money and pretty near both ends. Enough, however, remained to be sent to Washington for redemption.

Capitol Ground Improvements. DES MOINES, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The executive council today appointed General Ed Wright, having charge of the improvement of the capitol grounds. He was chosen chiefly because of his previous connection with the board that superintended the building of the capitol. The last legislature appropriated for the improvement of the capitol grounds $100,000. One-third is to be spent this year, one-third next year, and the balance the third year.

Teachers' Convention. OTTAWA, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The county superintendents and teachers' convention of the twenty-nine boring counties closed its two days' session today. Excellent papers and timely topics and lively discussions marked the entire session. A resolution was adopted to the effect that a uniform state course of four years county normal institutes should be adopted, and no certificates be granted without passing an examination in such course with an average of not less than 85 per cent.

Burned on Her Wedding Day. FORT DONNE, Ia., April 30.—Miss Lizzy Warner, a pretty young lady of this city, was badly burned yesterday morning while preparing for her wedding. Miss Warner was emptying a trunk in which to pack her trousseau, and threw the rubbish contained in it into the fire. A package containing a pound of gunpowder went into the stove with the rest and exploded. The girls heard, arose and fled, but were unable to get out. Miss Warner was badly burned, and her injuries were very serious. She was taken to the hospital, but her condition is so serious that she is likely to prove fatal.

A Woman Fatally Burned. NEWTON, Ia., April 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. William Tocht, living near Horn, in this county, went to the woods for some hams. While there her dress caught fire and burned. It was extinguished, but she was badly burned, involving injuries which are likely to prove fatal.

Advertisement for Baking Powder, featuring an image of a woman and the text 'ROCKWELL'S BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.'