Ohio Club Banquet. The Ohioans met Tuesday night in the Paxton hotel to further arrange for the coming banquet to be held tonight. From present indications the number in attendance will be larger than anticipated, although the banquet is to be free to all members and those who may join this evening, yet there is no fear but that if the present funds in the treasury are not sufficient to defray expenses the deficit can be speedily satisfied among the liberal and generous Ohioans present at the banquet. The banquet will be informal. The object is to have a royal good social time such as people only can have living far from their native home. The list of members has been lost and the club is compelled to rely upon the indulgence of the newspapers to give information to them that otherwise might not be necessary. Tickets are sent to as many Ohioans as are known, but only members and those who intend to join on or before the date of banquet are expected to be present. A DARK CHAPTER. Jealousy Threatens the Unraveling of a Young Man's Past. There's a very lively and rapid working going on between a certain young couple employed in the hill-top temple of justice. As a result of this fact there's a third party, a bright young performer of clerical duties under the same roof, who is having a spirited tussle with the great-eyed monster. The more observing of their daily associates supposed until recently that the young gentleman last referred to had a clear and complete title to the inside circle, and indeed, that he would bring the young lady under the home wire a winning bride during the month of roses. Now, however, he seems to have been passed at the three-quarter post.

Everyone is holding his breath while the final stretch is being covered, and those dearest into the confidences of the two young hearts predict that if the one now in the lead succeeds in taking the race the one who is beaten proposes to spring a very sensational and exceedingly dark chapter in the past record of his rival, which the latter has succeeded in keeping from the ears of the fair prize up to the present time.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT.

B. R. Ball, the Real Estate Man, Charged with Misappropriation. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of B. R. Ball, the real estate man whose office is at No. 42 Barker block, on the charge of embezzlement.

The complaint is made by Willis Grant of Salt Lake City, who alleges that Ball on June 27, 1889, as agent for the complainant took in on the sale of a lot in Omaha $1,100, $800 of which he fraudulently converted to his own use. Ball, it is further said, sold the lot for cash and turned over to the complainant $300 in money and some other property and securities, explaining that the sale was a cash one. County Attorney Mahoney filed the complaint yesterday with the understanding that there was to be no compromise, but a prosecution to a finish.

Ogden's Great Opportunities.

Mr. Riell of Ernest Riell & Co., has just returned from a trip to Ogden and Salt Lake City, where he has been looking after the real estate interests. In conversation today, he said: "Ogden presents many great opportunities. They have thus far never had a 'boom' and I found prices about one-fifth of what they are in Salt Lake City. In the latter place the boom has flattened. Prices are as high, if not higher than in Omaha, and everyone is a seller and not enough buyers to go around. Just the reverse as to Ogden. People are not anxious to sell and there are plenty of buyers. I found G. E. Mayne hard at work and much of the success of Ogden is due to his efforts. He has thrown all his old vigor into his work and is rapidly laying the foundation for a great fortune."
