At this time James Bowie was in Texas prospecting for gold and silver in the mountains west and northwest of San Antonio, and often had desperate en-counters with the hostile Indians who infested those regions, says the Galveston News. In one of these conflicts Bowie stabbed an Indian, and the knife blade glancing against a rib Bowie's hand slipped forward, inflicting a wound upon himself in the hand. This accident, I have been told, suggested the idea of a guard to keep the hand from slipping forward upon the blade in mak-lng a hard thrust. There were a great many cypress trees along the margin of the Guadaiupe river, and the pioneers in the colonies often established shingle

> The largest grain elevator in the world was built at Minneapolis Junction in 1886, says the St. Louis Republic The building is 336 feet long, 92 feet wide and 175 feet high. It has storing capacity for 2,000,000 bushels of grain within its walls. During its construction the carpenters and joiners used over 6,500,000 feet of lumber of all kinds, besides thirty-two car loads of nails, which, if packed, would make the enormous amount of 10,000 common kegs; the best calculators say that the actual number of nails used in the mighty building will fall but few, if any, under 20,000,000. The engine used is capable of handling 175,000 to 250,000 bushels of grain per day, or enough during the year to equal the combined productions of the state of Minnesota and the two Dakotas. Two hundred and fifty cars have often been loaded at this elevator in ten hours.

THE FAREWELL KISS. Insanity, Caused by Fright, Ended in Mrs. Killeen's Suicide.
Insanity, caused by fright, ended in elf-destruction. Such was the pitiable fate that befell Mrs. Mary Ada Killeen,

Mrs. Killeen was the wife of John 'H. W. Killeen, a well-known real estate agent, whose office is at No. 303 Third avence. The family formerly lived at No. 321 East Nineteenth street. Last January the house caught fire and the inmates barely escaped with their lives. Mrs. Killeen reached the street carrying her youngest child in her arms. After the fire the family rented a flat on the second floor of No. 174 East Ninety-sixth street. Mrs. Killeen never recovered from the effects of her fright and soon developed symptoms of melancholia. A female attendant was procured for her, and she was tenderly nursed and watched. Recently her condition seemed to be improved greatly, and the vigilance of her husband and nurse was relaxed. Yesterday afternoon she seemed to be in the best of spirits, and when her husband went out for a walk, taking with him the children, two boys and a girl, aged respectively ten, seven and five years, she kissed them all affectionately and hoped they would enjoy themselves and return early. The nurse had already gone out and Mrs. Killeen was left alone in the house. When Mr. Killeen returned with the children he was surprised not to find his wife, but supposed that she too had gone out, until his attention was attracted by the sound of running water in the bath room. On entering the room to ascertain the cause, he stumbled against the lifeless form of his wife, swaying by a rope knotted around her neck and secured to a hook on the wall.

On one occasion, as Bowie and his men were returning from a trip, they stopped at one of these shingle camps to rest and Bowle whittled from a shingle a pattern of the knife now in question. It is amus-ing at this day and time to see some of the things now called Bowie knives. On arriving at Gonzales he went to my worked, and asked him if he could make one like it out of steel. The blacksmith at once went to work and soon produced an exact counterpart of the pattern, which was in every way satisfactory to Colonel Bowie. On presenting the inite
