

PASTORS AND THEIR PEOPLE.

The Events of the Past Week in the Churches. OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONVENTION. A Big Camp Meeting Coming—The Bible Society's Plans—The Epworth League—Pulpit and Pew Notes.

The convention of "Our Young People" of the United Presbyterian church at Monmouth, Ill., was a memorable enjoyable event to those who were delegates from Omaha.

Miss Belle McCulloch was honored with a secretaryship. W. M. Lorimer gave an address on the "Organization and Management of Young People's Societies," which he handled in an interesting manner.

Bible Distribution. Omaha is to be thoroughly canvassed by representatives of the American Bible society for the purpose of enlisting the sympathies of the people in the bible missionary work.

The Methodist Conference. Bishop Newman of the Methodist church writes to the treasurer of the general conference that the meeting of the general conference of May, 1890, will be held in Omaha.

A Great Camp Meeting. The Methodist camp-meeting for the year 1890 will commence on July 24 and continue beyond that time as long as may be deemed necessary.

CHURCH NOTICES. Southwest Presbyterian church, Twentieth and Leavenworth streets. Preaching by Rev. N. W. Robinson of Omaha, and four presiding elders.

SEASON OF ROSES AND TULIPS.

Why Women Should Emulate the Hedgehog of Nature. DULLNESS IN THE SOCIAL WORLD. Activity Among the Fair Ones Making Ready to Appear Irresistible at Seaside, Park and Mountain Top.

Society has gone, is going, or planning to go, away for the summer and were to faithfully chronicle its doings for the past week there would be vexatious hours with the dressmakers.

Miss Lizzie Isaacs' Concert. Washington hall was completely filled Tuesday evening with an audience of music-loving people who testified by unostentatious applause to their appreciation of the popular and talented young benefactor in whose honor the concert was given.

RELIQUOUS. Methodism is shortly to celebrate its centennial at Boston. The subscription list for Dr. Talmage's new church grows slowly, it is said.

A Tally-Ho Party. On Thursday evening a party of young people moved by a desire for the joys of companionship and a leaning to break the silence with laughter and a challenge of wit, betook themselves in a coach to "Happy Hollow."

A Delightful Surprise. Friday evening Mrs. and Mr. Lyman Richardson were enjoying a four-foot-out fender talk they were surprised by the arrival of twenty friends with cards, prizes, supper, punch, and enough joviality for three times the number.

Fowls for Fruit Growers. Every person who grows apples, pears, plums or peaches should keep poultry. We do not believe that when the horns run at large over the ground occupied by a large orchard that they will be of much service for the reason that the hens will find plenty of work from the trees.

MAD MISS DURR'S MURKY TIDE.

How Confined it is by Artificial 'Rocks'—bound Shores.' HYDRAULICS IN THE ASCENDANT. The Extent and Method Employed in the Rippingraping under Government Authority on the Iowa Side.

In the spring of 1881 Omaha, experienced a rise in the Missouri river which had never seen equaled. The rise extended to Council Bluffs, the flats between this city and that town being submerged with water.

As a preventative, immediately after the work was commenced, immediately after the work was commenced, immediately after the work was commenced, immediately after the work was commenced.

Social Gossip. Miss G. C. Barton has gone to Denver. Mrs. Gray Smith of Cleveland is the guest of Mrs. Kilpatrick.

On Saturday evening a party of belles and beaux attended the bicycle race at the Coliseum. The proposed camp-meeting at Bellevue on Tuesday was postponed owing to the weepy skies.

A Pleasant Evening. On Friday evening Mr. Frank Polglase entertained a number of friends, very agreeably, at his home on Sherman avenue. Dancing, music and an attractively appointed supper served to make the time pass all too quickly.

An Evening's High Five. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bennett gave a high five party on Tuesday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler. Ten tables of interested players filled the charming drawing room.

PROHIBITION IS FARCE.

A Methodist Minister Gives His Opinion of the Law in Kansas. IT IS OBNOXIOUS TO THE PEOPLE. As Long as Public Sentiment is Against its Enforcement the City Will Have Saloons and Plenty of Them.

Leavenworth, Kan., May 24.—[Special to The Bee.]—If there is any gentleman in the city of Leavenworth who, during the progress of the fight against the prohibitory law, has given utterance to sentiments which have annoyed an audience throughout the state as well as the city, that gentleman is Rev. A. S. Embury, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city.

Rev. Embury is one of the brainiest young ministers, not only of his denomination in this city, but in the state at large. He has a keen eye for the farical. His opinion of the operation of the prohibitory law in this city is consequently decidedly keen and his expression of that opinion caused in the extreme.

Discouraging Bank Clearances—Claiming for more Railroads. SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—[Special to The Bee.]—In today's issue of the Report of this city appears an article in which the work has been mentioned.

Another thing which prevents the rapid settlement of this country is the enormous price asked for land. Just south of San Francisco is the beautiful Santa Clara valley, specially adapted for fruit raising.

THE ORIGINAL RISK JUBILEE SINGERS. Who have recently returned to America from Japan, having completed a six Year Tour of the world.

Boyd's Opera House. Boyd & Haynes, Managers. ONLY ONE WEEK, Thursday, May 28, to PERFORM HERE.