AMUSEMENTS.

There is a great show in progress at the Eden musee this week. Never before in the history of this popular family resort was a more entertaining or amusing attraction presented than Raffins' school of trained animals This school is the novel combination of the pigs and half a dozen monkeys. The tricks these animals perform are simply wonderful. one of the brute scholars can do anything but talk. They present some of the most ridiculous positious and feats ever seen in the animal. The old and young will find this enter-tainment one of exceptional interest. The stage shows are unusually good. Evans, the famous club swinger is a marvel in his line. Brumage and Peck are very clever in their plantation sketches. Aldridge and Kingsley do good work as a sketch team. The Halless are doing their usual good sketch work and the great colored singers, Hogan and Jones Bros. are winning many praises. Altogether it is one of the greatest shwos over given at the Eden musee.

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills.

WRONG-DOERS ARRAIGNED.

Judge Clarkson Hears the Pleas of Men Accused of Crime. It was a gang of particularly tough looking citizens that was arraigned before Judge Clarkson in the district court vesterday morning to enter pleas to the informations filed by the county attorney as a result of investigations made in the police tribunal.

There were nine of them altogether and in age they ranged from about twenty-one to thirty-five. All were men and all were white. But with one or two exceptions they all had bad, very bad looking countenances.

James Calkins, the youngest one in the crowd was the first asked asked to step up to crowd was the first asked asked to step up to the bar. He was charged with burglary and plead not guilty.

John J. McNamara, charged with trying to do up Lawyer Ritchie to the extent of a dia-mond stud, a gold watch and chain and $16 in money, came next and plead not guilty.

To two charges of bank-check forgery, Robert T. Neil responded not guilty.

John Laube broke the record by pleading

John Laube broke the record by pleading guilty to the charge of assault with intent to commit great bodily injury and was remanded for sentence.

C. Wommerlsdorf, against whom a number of forgeries have been as good as proven and whose only defense, as outlined at the time of his arrest, is that he was drunk at the time, pleaded not gulity, though it was expected that he would omit the "not." Mallen Drake, who carved up the tailor Roper in such a fearful manner a few months ago, came next. He had the hardest-looking face of all. His plea was not guilty. Allen McCiure pleaded guilty to the charge

Bert Brewer entered the same plea to the charge of stealing $45 from George P. Reed.
Taking $2 from Nellie L. Peterson was the charge responded to by George McFarland with the remark, "I guess I'm guilty."
"Do you want to be sentenced now," asked

"Guess so," replied McFarland, and the fourt gave him one year in the penitentiary. The next name was responded to by a very boyish looking young fellow who hobbled up to the bar on crutches. It was Richard Hail, who was shot in the ankle by Officer Savage in return for a builet he sent looking for the officer. The charge against him was shooting with intent to kill and murder. Hall plead not guilty.

George Brown plead not guilty to the theft

George Brown plead not guilty to the theft of a pocket book containing $1.50.

James Revnolds, charged with the murder of William Nistle, the faithful clerk was arraigned and plead not guilty. He is about twenty-four or twenty-six years old and not bad looking in any sense. He is slender in build, rather dark complexioned, and was well dressed. He told the court he had no counsel, and Messrs. Schomp and Andrews were appointed to defend him.

This closed the arraignment feature of the morning's proceedings, and Judge Clarkson and a jury immediately took up the case of Leon Harrington, a colored man charged with stealing Rosa Pattl's trunk containing $150 in as one might infer from her name, but simply a hard working colored woman.

County Attorney Mahoney said that Lawyer Munn, against whom information has been illed charging him with adultery, preferred not to be brought before the public with the general herd of criminals to enter his plea. Inasmuch as he was a member of the bar, he will be allowed a semi-private armicular ment tomorrow or next day. raignment tomorrow or next day.

IN THE HANDS OF SCALPERS. Chances Favor a Further Cut in Passenger Rates. Considerable excitement prevailed among the city passenger agents of Chicago roads today. By a miss-print the report of Monday's situation had made it appear that all lines were selling $3 Chicago-Omaha tickets except the Milwaukee, which evaded doing this by making a round trip rate of $6 and taking the $3 schedule for a basing rate one way, when the very opposite is the case. The Milwaukee is the only road that has now or ever had since the war commenced made a flat $3 rate. All the others evade meeting it, as they claim, to protect their local business by using the $3 for a basis and selling at $5

It was charged yesterday, however, that some of them are practicing an old anti-interstate commerce law trick, that of seeming to maintain full tariff rates and at the same time letting scalpers sell them at the cut rate. This accusation was made against the Rock Island accusation was made against the Rock Island though that road's representative says there is absolutely no foundation for it. The accuser though declares he saw two tickets purchased yesterday morning of Philbin. The matter came up through a refusal of the Burlington to let certain parties have a Chicago fare at less than $5. The applicant thereupon stated that he could go over the Burling of the Histone Washerston was the Rock Island. His assertion was questioned and he was informed that the corporation in question had raised its rate to $9.50 and was not making an effort to get any of the through business. In proof of his claim the man went out, got two Rock Island tickets for $3 each and came back with

There was consternation in Burlington circles at once. One official announced it as its opinion that this state of affairs would be the means of creating more bitter feeling than has herectofore existed and would send the rates still lower than they are at present.

The Report is Denied.

The report in a morning paper that two men had walked back from Crawford after being sent out there by an employment igency to get work and found none is denied There are two firms here authorized to hire laborers for John Fitzgerald and Kilpatrick Brothers, who have B & M. grading con tracts in Wyoming and the Black Hills, but they are not anywhere near Crawford and not a single man has ever been sent to that point. One of these agents showed a telegram from Flitzgerald yesterday morning asking for fifty men; also a pass signed by Chief Engineer Weeks of the B. & M. for that number, good from Omaha to Siding No. 2 a rount several miles be-No. 7, a point several miles beyond Crawford. The agents state that a great many loafers and tramps take this means of getting a free ride and drop off any place it suits them. They don't want work.

Some of the Changes.

The Union Pacific time-table that goes into effect next Sunday makes one quite important change in the arrival of passenger train No. 6, known as the Chicago-Denver express will come in ahead of the fast mail, at 4:05 o'clock p. m., instead of 4:30 as at present. The fast mail's time is not changed. The Denver train, No. 5, going out due to leave now at 10:10 a. m., will be booked to depart at 10:20. All other changes have reference to freight trains. to freight trains.

Is Going to Make a Dash. C. S. Jones of Ogalalla, has asked the Union Pacific company for a special car, and in his request he says: "I desire to make a dash up through the Rocky mountains and capture all the young animals I can find for our Garfield park at Salt Lake."

Preparing a New Time Table. The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley, also the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha officials are at work on a new time table to take effect next Sunday. It makes no very important changes except in the move ment of one or two freight trains.

Notes and Personals. General Manager Holdrege, of the B. & M., has gone to Chicago.

Assistant General Traffic Manager Munroe and Assistant General Passenger Agent Scott, of the Union Pacific, are in Chicago. President Adams and Vice President Holcomb were in Salt Lake yesterday. George L. Rhodes, assistant general pas-senger agent of the Rock Island, was in Omaha yesterday.

An Author's Eccentricities. To those who know Robert Louis Stevenson at all, it is no surprise that he has decided to live in far-distant Samoa and has bought himself several hundred neres of land, says the Philadelphia Times. In fact, I question whether Ste-venson could do anything to surprise his friends. The odd and unexpected have become synonyms with his name. I doubt whether there is a more eccentric au-thor today than Stevenson. He never seems to know his own mind from one day unto another, and were he tomorrow to turn up in New York his friends would merely arch their eyebrows. Said one of his closest friends to me yesterday: "Stevenson is just crammed full of oddities, and the most unreliable man who wields a pen. Let him promise to write you an essay, a story or a poem, and it positively amounts to nothing. The next day he has forgotten it, and before you know it he is in some heathenish part of the country, or off in the middle of some unreachable body of water which defies the mail or tele graph. He hates to write letters scarcely ever answers a single one he gets, while all the time you are just wild for 'copy' promised months ago. Eccentric? Decidedly so; he is more, he is aggravating almost beyond endurance, and if he were not such a paying 'card,' not an editor or publisher would put up with his oddities.
