THE HOME TEAM IN THE LEAD.

Another Angry But Small Crowd in Attendance-Minneapolis Shuts Out Sioux City-Miscel-lancous Sporting.

A crowd of five or six hundred people assembled at the base ball park yesterday afternoon to witness the Black Sox wreak vengeance upon the Apostles for their defeat of Decoration day.

There was every indication, too, that they would have seen this vengeance wreaking operation performed most thoroughly had not that apology for an umpire, one Leech, interposed and saved his confederates from the Polar regions.

The weather was threatening all the afternoon, and while the local team was at the bat in the fourth inning it began to sprinkle, but not with sufficient vigor to drive the spectators from the bleachers, yet Leech called the game.

The Omahas had already scored five tallies to St. Paul's two, and the way the boys were lambasting Mr. Meekin the score was liable to have gone way up into double figures. Bulldozer Hawes, however, ably seconded by Murphy, Meekin and Farmer, got round Leech and despite the protests of Captain Andrews and the whole Omaha team, called the game.

The audience was again very wrathy, and it is quite probable had there been a large crowd on hand Mr. Leech would have been handled roughly.

The Omaha management should play no more games with this blockhead in the position of umpire. He is thoroughly incompotent and should be fired bodily before his ignorant work culminates in some dire calamity. THE BEE touched Mr. Leech mildly in yesterday's issue, simply from the fact that it was the writer's opinion that he was rattled by the din kept up by the spectators and that his mistakes were of the head and not the heart. It is but fair to give every man a chance. Leech has had his. Sic him.

It was one, two, three in the first for Omana yesterday. Canavan fouled out to Broughton, Walsh flied out to Murphy and Kearns was retired from short to first. For the Saints Walsh threw Murphy out at first, Burks flew out to Kearas who made a beautiful catch, but Daly got his base on balls. He stole second and went on to third on Urquahart's bad throw to eatch him. Hawes made a single and Daly scored, Hawes going out in an attempt to steal second. The second was also unproductive for the locals. Meekin threw Phalen out at first and Andrews sent a fly to Abbey. Willis then got his base on balls and stole second, but Cleveland's out to Murphy spoiled the prospects of a run. It was a goose egg for the Apostles in their

Kearns made another masterly catch of Phillips' almost line fly, Abbey was ex-tinguished by Canavan and old Colonel Broughton struck out.

In the third Omaha scored four runs, three of them earned. Urquahart led off with a fine two-sacker and crossed the plate on Fanning's grounder past third. Canavan fanned, Walsh then came along with a rattling drive for two bags and Fanning scored. Joe went to third on an error by Farmer, which also gave Kearns first. Tommy stole second and both runners came home on Phalen's hit. Andrews and Willis were both put out from Burke to Hawes. In their half the Saints secured another tally, a scratch home run by Farmer. Meekin then made a two-bagger, and Murphy got his base on an error by Walsh, but the next three men went out and Omaha came in for her fourth.

Carlisle Analyzes the Sub-Treasury Scheme and Disapproves.

IT IS OLEARLY CLASS LEGISLATION.

By the Provisions of the Projects the Wealthy Counties of the Country Would Reap Any Possible Benefits Arising.

WASHINGTON, May 31 .- Senator Carlisle has written a letter to B. F. Howard of Tuskegee, Ala., in response to a request for views upon the bill providing for a system of government warehouses for farm products, upon which products treasury notes may be issued. The senator says in beginning that the statement of Howard and associates that they are in "favor of equal justice to all and special favors to none," embodies sound democratic doctrine and that if it has been strictly adhered to ín congress for the past twenty-five years the evils of which the farmers and others justly complain would have been averted and the whole country would now be prosperous and contented. "The farmers have been taxed so long for the benefit of other classes and have seen so much legislation for the agrandizement of corporations and syndicates that their patience is exhausted and they are now demand ing that the very policy which they hav aeretofore denounced as unjust and ruinous shall be applied to them, or rather, a part of them—for no scheme yet suggested would operate alike upon all farmers. But no evil can be corrected by in-creasing its magnitude and extending the acope of its operations. There is but one effectual remedy for the evil which undoubtedly exists, and that is to reverse the policy which produced it," The senator, after rehearsing the features of the proposed sub-treasury plan and noting the fact that the farmers themselves will pay more than their fair share of the cost of erecting the warehouses and that the officers connected with them will be partisans of the administration in power, says that not more than one-third of the 2,800 counties in the United States, if that many, produce and sell annually more than $500,000 worth of agricultural products, and therefore under the bill not more than one third of them could avail themselves of this plan. "At the very outset, therefore, it is planned to compel the government to issue and distribute money for the benefit of people living in the rich and productive counties at the expense of the poorer ones. Moreover it is planned to enable unscrupulous specu lators to take advantage of the farm-ers' pecuniary necessities and to extort exorbitant prices for feed from the people. In the great majority of cases the farmer never will be able to redeem the deposited products, but will be forced to lose the remaining 20 per cent of value or to sell his warehouse receipts fo whatever he can get for them, which will be very little, for it must be remembered that after he gets his warehouse receipts he has a remaining interest of 20 per cent, less the charges for interest, storage, etc., and this is all he can dispose of. He will find the time rapidly approaching when he must have money to redeem his products, or sell his small remaining interest, or allow them to be sold at public auction by the government, and this will be the golden opportunity of the speculators, whose agents will swarm all over the country ready to take receipts from embarrassed owners for a merely nominal sum." Senator Carlisle argued at length to show that the plan proposed would produce an an-nual expansion and contraction of the curreney which would result in absolutely de stroying the market upon which the farmer must depend for the sale of his crops. "No such facilities as this project will afford for controlling the markets for purely specula tive purposes," says he, "have ever existed in this or any other country, and no more per fect system for the oppression of the poor could be devised."

could be devised." In conclusion Senator Carlisle says that even if it could be conclus-ively shown that this or any simi-lar scheme would be pecuniarily bene-ficial to any particular class of people he would still be unalterably opposed to it, be-cause in his opinion it would be another wide and dangerous departure from the prin-ciples more middle to the the senciples upon which our political institutions are founded. It would, in fact, be the longest step yet taken in time of peace toward the consolidation of power in the federal government and the subjection of the private affairs of the people to the control of a central and irresponsible authority."

DUN'S REVIEW OF THE WEEK. New Wheat Will Soon Begin to Fill the Channels of Commerce. NEW YORK, May 31.—[Special Telegram to Тив Вкв.]—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s Review of Trade says: "Another week has brought the distinct reaction in speculative markets which was only suspected a week ago. The reports from interior cities continue highly encour aging. An improvement is observed at Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and other points where the brighter wheat prospects have most effect, recent rains having justified larger estimates. In the south business is satisfactory for this season. The great industries have not materially changed in position. The iron and steel industry has not realized the decided improvement which dealers hoped was fore-shadowed by the firmer tone of last week, and buyers do not forget that the present production at the rate of $,000,000 tons yearly is more than the country has ever yet taken into consumption. In the speculative mar-kets wheat has had a sharp fall of 5½c on sales of 35,000,000 bushels here. With only a month more before new wheat will begin to fill the channels of commerce, it is certain that the country will have to carry over a large unsold surplus. Corn has been un-changed and oats half a cent lower. The oil speculation has also weakened 314 dairy and and the decline at this season in garden products has commenced. But cotton has been screwed another 14 of a cent by the manipulation, and coffee has been lifted as much.

much. The general level of prices are again more than 1 per cent lower than a week ago. The money markets of the interior have been amply supplied, and while money is stiffer at Boston, close at Cleveland and in brisk demand at Milwaukee, the demand is good at Kansas City, fair at Chicago and fair at most other western towns, but the market is stronger at St. Louis. The general tendency as been toward relaxation in the demand and return of currency to this point. The treas-ury has taken in $2,500,000 more than it has paid out during the week, and the decrease of 15 per cent for this month in exports from New York contrasts with the increase of 13 per cent in imports, indicating a large excess of imports for the month of May. The busi-ness failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 218, as compared with a total of 233 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 215.

Rice, arrested in California several weeks ago charged with the murder of Henry Johns, were discharged today by the order of the judge and their bondsmen released. The grand jury, which has been in session three weeks, made a most searching investigation and took four hundred pages of evidence without finding the murderers, and returned to the court this morning and reported no bill. The evidence was very contradictory, much of it savoring of a put-up job.

A great crowd will be out at the ball park this afternoon, with fair weather, to see the closing struggle of the present series between the local team and the St. Pauls. Despite all untoward circumstances and ill-luck the Omahas are putting up a really fine article of ball, and with a little good fortune will make rapid strides toward the top. They are 100 per cent stronger today than they have been at any time this season, and are improving with every game played. The management is striving sedulously to give their patrons the worth of their money, and with a little forbearance on the part of the latter, they will succeed. Following are the positions and batting order for this afternoon's game Omahas. Positions. Pauls Second. Janavan... Rurela ...Phil Daly Kearns. Right First Middle Abbe Andrews. eveland..... Pitcher Martin Signed.

The Omaha management signed Pitcher James Martin of the Galesburg, Ill., team yesterday, and he will report here tomorrow. Martin has been doing fine work for the Illinois state league and was highly recommended.

NEW YORK, May 31.-The meeting of the delegates of the Players' league last night to discuss the schedule and other matters de-cided to adhere to the arrangements of games made in March. The delegates while appre ciating the falling off in attendance look for an improvement in the near future.

The Coming Bench Show.

The Omaha dog show, which opens Tuesday the 10th, at 1509 Farnam street, promises to be the most interesting exhibition of thoroughbred dog flesh ever given west of last evening. A feature of the meeting was the absence of the prohibitionists dis tributing their tracts in the front of the house, The hymn "Coronation" opened the proceedings, and then Mr. Murphy shook hands with the clergy and laymen upon the stage, among whom were Revs. Savidge and Harsha, Prof.

Smith and Judge Reed. Then the hymn "Christ Receive the Sinful Men," was sung and "Christ Receive" was the subject of a brief but touching speech by Mr. Murphy. "I say unto you," he said, "love your enemy, oh! the sweet heart that said that Sometimes they say, 'What a good father he had,' and people say, 'Is that that boy's father?' Well, my stars, what a oad boy for such a good father, And that is the way with us and our Heavenly Father. There is a heap of old Adam about me. There are a whole lot of us who are ashamed of our poor rela-tions, but we can't get away from tions, but we can't get away from old Adam. God bless him, poor fel-low. Dr. Harsha then delivered an eloquent prayer, and "Blessed Be the Tie that Binds" Mr. Starr was called to the front and Mr.

Murphy called him his "Ben Hur." During the singing of the hymn Rev. Mr. Savidge was bodily pulled to the front of the stage by Mr. Murphy and made to speak. He told the yarn about the boy who had swallowed a quarter. The family physician was sent for and said: "I can't get the quarter and no other doctor can get it, but I know a Methodist minister who can get it," and then the ollectors were asked to extract the quarter from the audience. * Mr. Murphy then spoke in his usual mag-metic manner. He spoke of his mother's last words, who asked him to keep away from temptation. The man who wants to drink does not have to fight a barrel of run, but the one little first gives of here, and the but the one little first glass of beer, and the Lord has His anyils and hammers and wil

Senator Clark of Iowa was given many words of praise and was introduced. Mr. Clark is an unusually tall young man with a blonde moustache and overhanging locks of light hair, and was attired in a long freek coat. He told a funny story to the effect that it illustrated the fact that he like the Methodist minister the fact that he like the Methodist minister had not prepared his speech and the devil himself did not know what he was going to say. He said he belonged to Mr. Murphy's church. "I believe in all kinds of temper-ance work, if it is temperance work. I be-lieve in the women who have done for the world what nobody else can do. I was trying in Iowa to knock the fly off the head and like many others missed the fly and hit the head. I have been

Mr. Murphy thanked Mr. Clark for coming Rev. Harsha spoke of the tactfulness necssary to carry on religious and temperance work. The meeting wound up with the hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," and the signing of pledges was taken up. Senator T. E. Clarko of Clarinda, Ia., the father of the temperance movement in Iowa, will speak tomorrow morning and evening at Boyd's opera house. Senator Clarka is an Boyd's opera house. Senator Clarke is an ardent temperance man of the right sort, not a rabld prohibitionist. Mr. Murphy in going among the tables on the stage knocked over a vase of flowers and with the happy faculty of adapting himself to circumstances said that it was for the benefit of trade.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a great
