

LOVELAND STORM SWEPT.

An Iowa Village Almost Wiped Out by a Cloudburst.

SEVERAL LOSE THEIR LIVES

Scarcely a Building Escaped the Awful Force of the Deluge—One Family Rescued From a Tree Top.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., June 2.—A special from Missouri Valley, Ia., tells of the almost total destruction of the village of Loveland yesterday by a cloudburst or water spout.

Loveland is located in the Boyer valley. A terrific storm passed over the valley and near the upper end the cloudburst occurred, the water sweeping down upon the ill-fated village, leaving hardly a house intact and destroying several lives. Among the bodies identified so far are those of Mrs. Stays and son.

One family passed all night in a tree top and were rescued this morning. Several persons are missing and it is supposed have been carried down to Valley by the water.

INNOCENT MEN TORTURED.

Italians Refuse to Others the Rights They Claim for Themselves.

TANGIER, June 2.—[Special Cablegram to THE BEE.]—Three men from Drea, who were five months in prison at Tangier without trial, on suspicion of connection with the robbery at the house of the Italian charge d'affaires last autumn, and who were severely bastinadoed to induce them to confess to appease the demands of Italy for satisfaction, are still unable to obtain compensation, though the real author of the crime has confessed and is in prison. The way in which the truth came out is interesting. A robbery was recently committed at the house of one of the chief magistrates of Tangier and next morning a slave was found in the street suffering from an injury to his ankle, which prevented his reaching his master's house. It was afterwards ascertained that he was the thief who had hurt himself in jumping from a roof. He and his master were forthwith taken off to prison, the latter being placed in the stocks only.

Several other slaves were found to have been robbed, and among them confessed to that of the Italian's house, which was carried out with the assistance of the Italian consul. The consequence is now lying in prison in jail and his master has paid $3,000 damages to the parties robbed. It will be remembered that it was the Italian consul who was arrested daily in every city in Europe, which gave occasion for such alarming telegrams to be sent all over the world about the insecurity of life and property here, and caused the Italian government to rave about iron clads and reparation.

Carpenters Strike at Rock Island.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., June 2.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—One hundred union carpenters, in the employ of various contractors, struck this morning for a nine-hour day at ten hours' pay. The strike has been threatened for some time, but it was not until this morning that any of the employers who have stood out showed disposition to yield to the demand. W. A. Guthrie, employing about twenty men, was the first to make concessions, and the strikers at once gathered at his place, over which they held a meeting. Numerous speeches were made, during which several non-union men working on a building near by joined the union. Many of the other contractors are weakening.

CHICAGO, June 2.—George R. Davis, county treasurer and a well known politician, was today agreed upon by the attorneys and appointed by Judge Collins as receiver of the Chicago gas trust company, now the Chicago gas company, in bonds of $300,000. Agreement as to the terms of the decree was difficult and it took the lawyers an hour to arrange the details of the receivership. Reports say that he did not grant Charles his request that a receiver be authorized to vote the stock of the four companies. At the meeting of the trust's directors Judge Collins said he would have to look into that before entering such an order.

THE GOOD WORK GOES ON.

Consensus Takers at St. Paul Proceed Without Interruption.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 2.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—One hundred and twenty enumerators, under the supervision of Theophilus Smith, began counting the people of St. Paul at 8 o'clock this morning. The work proceeded without serious hindrance in all the uptown wards, there being very few refusals to answer questions as to mortgages and chronic diseases. Enumerators for the "Bohemian" flats and Swede hollow, occupied mostly by foreigners, got along very slowly, the impression among the denizens of these localities being that the information obtained would be used to oust them from their homes, as they are simply squatters and do not own the land on which they reside.

Supervisor Havongort of Minneapolis had 145 men at work. The day was rainy and the count proceeded slowly. In three or four instances persons refused peremptorily to answer questions and ejected the enumerators. Supervisor Smith, at St. Paul, who is a directory publisher, says there has been a heavy influx of population since last May and says the census will be about 200,000. Local newspapers place the population of Minneapolis at 240,000.

DINED ON THE DEADLY POISONS.

A Whole Family Poisoned by Wild Parsnips in Ontario.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 2.—Dead in bed with a dying sister on each side of him lay little A. Campau of Lake George when a Canadian came in, attracted by feeble cries of "help, help." Another child was rolling in death agony upon the floor near by. Gasping and helpless lay the mother and aged grandfather, the latter relapsing into insensibility.

Mrs. Campau managed to say that they had been poisoned and the village physician was called. When he arrived one child was dead and the other nearly so. The mother, grandfather and two little girls and an infant but three months old, were in desperate condition. Emetics were administered and before he left the physician was successful in saving the lives of three of the poisoned patients, although the others, it is feared, are too far gone to rally.

Wednesday old man Campau went into the woods to dig roots to make medicine for the children. He had a basket full of various kinds, including some which tasted sweet and of which all the members of the family partook. In a few minutes all were taken with feverish pains and vomiting. The neighbor woman found them. The eldest boy, about nine years of age, was dead, the second boy has since died and the doctor says the other man and infant are likely to follow. It will be a close call with the other three. The roots which the old man had given them were "wild parsnips," a deadly poison.

GREASERS AGAINST CENTRAIS.

Mexicans Scared Over the Present Great Influx of Chinese.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 2.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The influx of Chinese into the frontier states of the republic is producing marked alarm among the laboring classes, more especially among the gold and silver miners resident in the districts invaded. The negroes of those localities have already taken up cudgels in defense of their Mexican patrons, stating that if there is no restriction passed on the yellow pests the same scenes that have occurred in the United States will be repeated in Mexico. The Chinese, it is claimed, are driving the Mexican miners and other laborers from the country and will work cheaper than whites. Many believe that the Chinese are landing in the frontier states of Mexico in great numbers, making their way across the frontier line into the United States. The general opinion is that the Mexicans are likely to take the place of natives. If the Chinese continue to arrive in such numbers as they have arrived recently the result will be to benefit the United States and to injure the Mexican miners and other laborers from the country and will work cheaper than whites.

The third franchise asked for is to light Rapid City with gas. The Harney Peak line company has offered to make donations on the property today, paying out a large amount of money.

AN EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

The Hot Weather Making Congressional Duties Irksome.

EIGHT HUNDRED MILLIONS PROTEST.

Boston Capitalists Dissatisfied With the Tariff Bill—A Washington Scandal—The Irrigation Survey.

WASHINGTON BUREAU THE OMAHA BEE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—This was really the first rest day of the season and it had its effect on the members of congress. In the house there was barely a quorum and business dragged along in a monotonous sort of way. Warm weather is a thing which tells very quickly on congressmen. Already, though we have only had a taste of heat, they have commenced to talk in earnest about an early adjournment. A day or two more of this kind of weather and rumors about congress being compelled to sit until September or October. Today senators as well as representatives talked about their ability to pass a tariff bill early next month and adjourn before August at any rate.

The caucus tonight showed the effect of the warm weather. There was an evident desire to shape matters for legislation, so that very little will be done except on lines of general importance. This will be arranged so as to take the slightest possible time. If the weather continues hot for the next two or three days, the bills of congress will be daily without a quorum and congress will almost die of inanition. The mercury today went down to the eighties, but the sun's rays nipped his great round face he said the house would be ready to adjourn by the fourth of July, but he did not think the senate would be through by that time.

MILLIONS REBID THEM.

A party of importers and merchants from Boston, New York and Philadelphia, who are alleged to represent a capital of $200,000,000, are on their way to Washington on a special train, to protest before the committee on finance against the increased duties upon certain imported goods, particularly wheat and sugar. These gentlemen, coming as they do, representing the enormous interests that have been put into the wheat and sugar business, even if they do not succeed in their protest, there is a disposition on the part of Messrs. Aldrich, Allison, Hiseock and Jones, who have the bill under consideration, to possibly be done without impairing the protection of American labor and capital.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

Representative Burrows said this afternoon that he believed the senate would pass the river and harbor bill because of the opposition and considerably to the several items of the appropriations. The committee on commerce has not yet taken up the bill for commerce and navigation, a resignation by an engineer and making a compilation of the condition of each public improvement that there is an appropriation for, so that the bill will be ready for the senate by the end of the month.

THE IRRIGATION SURVEY.

The act of October 2, 1888, making appropriations for the irrigation survey required that the sites for reservoirs, canals and other works be located and lands made susceptible of irrigation by such works should be reserved from the time of the passage of the act. The irrigable lands were reserved from the time of the passage of the act, but the survey has not yet been completed and the pre-emption act, but it can be acquired as homesteads by actual settlers only. The reservoir and canal sites have been reserved from the time of the passage of the act, but the survey has not yet been completed and the pre-emption act, but it can be acquired as homesteads by actual settlers only.

A Row Arises in the Settlement of the Rate War.

MORE TROUBLE YET TO COME.

The Central Traffic Lines Break Loose With a Slash in Tonnage Rates—Resignations and Appointments.

CHICAGO, June 2.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A row has arisen in the settlement of the western passenger rate war. The agreement was to go back to the basis in effect December 3, which allowed no street commission and a commission to ticket agents of a ticket. The Washah over its Niagara Falls route, however, pays street commissions from St. Louis, as do all eastern lines. This affects business between St. Louis and Chicago, and the Alton claims the right of paying the same commission as the Washah.
