OMAHA'S CHANCES.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There is every likelihood that the American League will carry off the splendid silk banner offered for camp discipline.

In this afternoon's drilling in the class of the Omaha's there was nothing done to compare with the work of the guards.

Yesterday there was a case of insubordination that came near resulting disastrously. At 8 o'clock the Omaha's were drilling and it failed to appear and gave no reason for not entering.

The devotion exercises, led by Rev. Baker of York, opened the afternoon session. This was followed by an interesting essay, "Character and Habit," by Rev. John Gallagher, Ph. D. of Tecumseh.

A. Nash, state secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, then led in bible reading. Mrs. Bailey of Sharon, Ia., addressed the convention on "Teachers' Session."

Prof. Carbe then spoke on "Singing in the Sunday School," and second-handedly asked for the state convention.

The chairman of the committee asked that the accounts of the secretary be read. He reported that his accounts were correct, the report was adopted.

E. B. Stevenson of Council Bluffs invited the workers to attend the Iowa association soon to be held in Council Bluffs.

Ten minutes were then employed by the delegates in telling what had been gained in coming to the convention. A general discussion on financial matters followed.

Mr. Knickerbocker stated that 233 delegates were enrolled. By motion of Brother Johnson all delegates to the convention are to be regarded as fraternal delegates.

GENEVA, N. Y., June 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. Charles K. Richardson of Bridgeport, N. Y., committed suicide here at 3 o'clock this morning by jumping from a fourth-story window.

The convention closed its afternoon session with prayer from Rev. H. A. Hill.

The evening devotional exercises were in charge of D. F. Merrill. During the business exercises it was ordered that the entire proceedings of the convention be printed in pamphlet form.

Mrs. Bailey made a brief but telling address, taking for her subject, "Christ, the Need of the World." The subject was treated in the lady's usual forcible and practical manner, emphasizing the need of every Christian worker.

The place of meeting for the coming year was left in charge of the executive committee. The party engaged the evening in a brief but touching manner by Dr. Johnson of Osceola, President E. A. Stevens, Secretary Heinberger and others.

The grand series of meetings closed by singing, "God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Census Work in the Second District.

FREMONT, Neb., June 6.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Supervisor Stouffer said today that work of counting the people and gathering other statistics in the second district of Nebraska is progressing satisfactorily, or at least as well as could be expected during the first week of the enumeration.

Some trouble has been occasioned by reason of an insufficient quantity of certain kinds of blanks having been sent from Washington for distribution among the enumerators.

For instance, only about half a dozen blank schedules relating to the census of the deaf and dumb were forwarded for the use of the whole district.

At the last moment an additional requisition for supplies had to be sent to Washington. Meanwhile Mr. Stouffer is getting dozens of
