Bishop Newman left the city yesterday and before his return he will spend several months in Japan, whither he will go directly from here, sailing on June 19.

An inquest was held yesterday over the remains of Mrs. Stapleton, the colored woman found dead in bed yesterday. The jury found that she had died of heart

The funeral of Hazel, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wal-worth, who died Sunday evening, will be held from the family residence Twenty-seventh and Caldwell streets, at 10 o'clock this morning.

George Rigor has a nose which keeps its place only by virtue of the bandages which cover it. Its disfigurement was caused by a pair of knuckles on the hands of Hank Pierson in the California restaurant Sunday night.

Last night was the regular meeting night of the board of trade, but the mind to shoulder the bulk of the responsibil-ity. "I'll tell you, gentlemen," continued Mr. Shinkle, "that there will be two periods of enjoyment to you in this general conference meeting, and that is when your guests come and when they go away. It will be a big task for Omaha, but I feel confident she can do it. We looked at the Grand opera house this morning, and with some repairs it will an-swer very well. Three thousand dollars would probably put this building in suitable presentation of Hamlet at Boyd's by an eminent Omaha jurist proved too much for the members and a quorum could not be secured.

The joint committee of the council, board of public works and county commissioners tried to hold a meeting vesterday afternoon but a quorum could not be secured and an adjournment was taken subject to the call of the chairman, Mr. Bechel,

Judge Shaw yesterday listened to the evidence in the case of John J. Golden vs Patrick Ford, and rendered a judgment for costs against the plaintiff. Golden sued the Third ward councilman for $58, but as prior to the time of commencing the suit Ford had made a tender of the amount of the claim, the plaintiff came out only second best.

Barry, Joseph Swain, Jones Valentine, Patrick McArdle, T. L. McNeil, J. C. Woods. Late vesterica affarman, Holtonstein's Bishop Newman announced from the chair that reports from the local pastors on the city's ability for accommodating the guests

L. McNeil, J. C. Woods. Late yesterday afternoon Helfenstein's attorney filed a motion for a continuance of all the cases until the next term, the affidavit accompanying the motion setting forth the fact that on account of newly discovered evidence and the absence of important wit-nesses, the interests of the plaintiff would be prejudicial if a trial was had at the present term of court. The motion will be argued today. would be in order. These reports showed that ample accommo-dation, at satisfactory rates, would be obtain-able and that no obstacles in this particular could be apprehended. able and that no obstacles in this particular could be apprehended. Mr. Amos Shinkle of Covington, Kv., one of the commission, ad-dressed the meeting, stating that he thought the general conference meeting if held in Omaha would be of great advantage to the city of Omaha, and was in favor of bringing it here. He notified the meeting that there would be about sixty colored min-isters to be entertained and that they would expect as good entertainment as their Caucas-ian brothren. Another thing, the blanching of two or three men in a bed always entailed trouble and dissatisfaction. Delegates want-ed and should have a bed to themselves. So it would be seen that a good round sum of money would have to be raised, and that the hotels would have to be extensively patron-ized. The aid received from Council Bluffs could not be counted on with any degree of certainty, and Omcha must make up her mind to shoulder the bulk of the responsibil-ity.

Judge Dundy, last evening in talking with Judge Dundy, last evening in talking with the attorneys in the cases, stated that if they were willing to try one case and let the decision settle all the others, he was ready to go ahead, but if they were to be tried sepa-rately, then they would all go over to the next term. The defendants are willing to take up one of the cases and test the issues, but Helfenstein is opposed to this course. Last night the lawyers held a conference and this morning will penort to Judge Dandy

Dear Sirs .--- My suit of clothes came last night in good shape. I thank you ever so much. I am more than satisfied with my bargain. They fit just as nice as if they had been made to order in this city. I will do what I can to advertise your house. I have shown two of my chums the suit, they were surprised and said they intended to write to you at once, Shall order my fall or winter suit and overcoat from your house. Thanking you for the fair treatment I have received at your hands and wishing you good success and prosperity, I remain, very respectfully,

THEODORE BLAND, Deadwood, S. D.

The above is a copy of a letter just received-it speaks for itself. We have dozens of them of a similar nature. They all come unsolicited. Our mail order department has assumed enormous proportions. We supply thousands of customers from a distance and have saved them considerable money. We send samples of cloth and measuring blanks. Our instructions for measuring are very simple, and in nine cases out of ten insure a good fit. Our goods are sent with privilege of examining and trying on, and if they are not in every way satisfactory, you need not take them, so you run no risk in ordering. We also fill orders for Hats, Shoes and other Furnishings.

Clearance Sale of Boys' Suits.

The season is nearing toward the end and we now commence to clear out our Boys' Suits. The finest must go first, and we announce heavy reductions to make them move fast. • Extra fine knee pant Suits of wider wale all worsted goods, in light and dark shades, formerly selling at $8.50 and $7.90, reduced to $5.50. These are of exquisite workmanship and no finer or better made suits are sold in this city.

Very fine knee pant Suits in beautiful mixtures of worsteds and cassimeres, formerly selling at $7.25 and $6.75, reduced to $4.75.

These are extraordinary values, and we would advise an early call while the sizes are yet complete, as they will not last long.

In lower priced Boys' Suits we still have an immense line. We have done this season an enormous business in our Boys' Department, and our buyer has been rather reckless in quantities. You are doing yourself an injustice if you buy a Boy's Suit outside of our house.

FINED A JUROR.

Judge Doane Intends to Have His Orders Obeyed.

Juror Duffy, a meek appearing man, had been summoned for service on several different days last week, but failed either to appear or to send a reason for his absence. A summons was accordingly issued for his appearance, not in the role of a juror-judge, but in that of a prisoner. In the latter capacity he was made to face Judge Doane at the opening of court yesterday moraing. "Why have you disobeyed the order of court calling you here in the capacity of a juror?" asked the judge sharply. "What-what's that," stammered the rror-stricken man at the bar. The question was repeated and Duffy said : "Did you know, judge, that my family was
