

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

A Bright Financial and Commercial Outlook for Omaha.

NO NEW FEATURES IN LOCAL PRODUCE.

Strawberries Plentiful California Fruits Coming in Excellent Condition—Watermelons Forty to Fifty Dollars Per Hundred

The clearing for the week as reported by Mr. Hughes, manager of the clearing house for the Associated National banks of Omaha, foot $567,288.83, an increase of 8-1/2 per cent. Balances were $1,000,000, an increase of 10 per cent.

Collectors are easy though bankers and merchants say they are not. They are not so much in the way of their obligations and remit promptly for bills, asking few favors in the way of delay.

The shipping and commercial lists say the principal business of the week has been the receipt of the first crops of the season.

The visible supply of the world's all kinds of commodities is increasing. In June, 1899, the supply of Brazil coffee in the United States was 1,000,000 lbs. against 675,000 lbs. in June, 1898.

The local produce market presents no features of special interest. The market is fairly active and copper is strong in sympathy with the London market.

Estimated receipts of cattle 2,350, compared with 1,250 yesterday and 2,400 Saturday last week. The receipts during the week have been 15,000, an increase of 1,000.

Estimated receipts of hogs 7,200, compared with 3,200 yesterday and 8,000 Saturday last week. The receipts during the week have been 27,414 compared with 31,770 the previous week.

NOTABLE GAGS ON THE STAGE.

A Sally by Dickens Which Brought Down the House—Sporting Actors—Realistic Mr. Mansfield—Musical and Dramatic Notes

We wish once more to bear our testimony to the very high grade of acting in our theaters, writes W. D. Howells in Harper's Magazine.

Composer Gilbert a Boor. W. S. Gilbert, the composer, is one of the most successful dramatists of the day.

Musical and Dramatic. Langtry is coming over this summer. "A Trip to Chinatown" is Hoyt's latest.

Gauging on the Stage. A gag, according to Webster, is "a speech or phrase interpolated off-hand by an actor in his parts as acted, usually consisting of some reasonable or local allusion which challenges the attention of the audience."

Sporting Actors. The comparatively recent organization in New York city of the American actor's amateur athletic association.

Realistic Mr. Mansfield. Player-actors who do not fancy Mansfield's method, in common with his most ardent admirers, that is the powerful creations of his characters.

California Excursions. Pullman tourist sleeping car excursions to California and Pacific coast points leave Chicago every Thursday.

member of "The Prince and Pauper" company, once told me that she had never been associated on the boards with an actor whose conduct was so continuously and consistently realistic.

"More than once he has said to me at rehearsal when I displayed with a succession of shudders the nervousness over there was earth is the matter, Miss Craigie? You are trembling like a leaf."
