The coffin factory near the Belt line was the scene of wild excitement for a time yesterday afternoon. A flue in the back end of the boiler blew out, and for a time the employes thought an explosion would follow.

The clerks' assembly of this city has extended the hour and date for closing in its petition to 6:30 o'clock, commenc ing July 7 of this year. Many of the clothing dealers being willing and anxious to co-operate with them, it was decided to make the closing of a more general nature.

M. D. Vieno of Deadwood, S. D., was yesterday appointed as postal clerk on the Long Pine and Whitewood run, with instructions to at once report for duty. Vieno takes the position made vacant by the removal of S. D. Posner, who was caught in the act of stealing registered letters.

Mr. David Cathrow of Sixth and Pierce streets resents the imputation that he was arrested for cruelty to animals, compelling his horse to draw a wagon with a two-ton load up the hill The fact is there was no load in the wagon, notwithstanding the policeman's tale, and the horse was a young one which had just been shod and was endeavoring to break away from Mr. Cathrow when he was compelled to use means to bring him into subjection.

Have You an Idea?

The Bee's editorial upon Nebraska represcutation at the world's fair has excited con siderable interest. We have received a num ber of suggestions as to what the exhibit should be, and the opinion has been expressed that it is not too soon for an interchange of ideas as to the best plan to adopt. This is undoubtedly the correct view, for the reason that at this early day the state commissioners have been appointed preparatory to getting the work well in hand. The Bee will be pleased to publish the views of any one in this state who may have an original-idea to Judge Hopewell yesterday heard the case of C. A. Fish & Co. of New Orleans against of C. A. Fish & Co. of New Orleans against Peycke Brothers. The plaintiffs sued for $700.40 alleged to be due for a car load of banes shipped last April. The defendants set up that the bananas were spoiled when received and had been shipped when to ripe. Bananas were passed around among the jurymen to sample and determine for them-selves the difference between overripe and "cooked" bananas. The jurymen filled their pockets and kept some of them for future reference. A number of witnesses were called on both sides to testify on the defects of the banana trade.

If all the hours the pupils have spent in the op were added together, they would be uivalent to twenty four days of eight hours survalent to twenty-four days of eight hours such. When they began many of them did not know the names of the tools, but now hey are able to use them well and produce vork that any one might be proud of.

The system used is one that is followed in the St. Louis, Chicago, Toledo and the best namual training schools in the United States.

The steps are gradual, leading up from the simplest to finished pieces of work. A. M. Bumann is the professor in charge.

The display of the Long school is placed beside that of the pronder institution on Capitol hill. Here is an exhibit that tells of much satient toll upon the part of both pupils and eachers. The display of free hand drawing approaches very nearly the degree of excell-ence attained by the pupils of the high school. All the studies are from the object and some of them are really excellent. Noticeable among the latter are the following: Jenny Berry, a broken cup and saucer, pots and kettles and table and lounge; Nettle De Balt, piano, tub and boiler; John Newton, sewing machine, a particularly difficult study; Claude Foster, shoes; John Saville, bitcher and cruets; Charles McMinan, umorella, ualise and hat; Katie Swartzlander, oregetables; Margaret Lewis, pitcher and emons; Mabel Owens, packages; May Gra-nam, collars and cuffs. In a study of a work-ham, collars and cuits. In a study of a work-basket, Salome Erninger has distinguished herself by some very delicate shading.

There is another work in this school that is very highly commendable. The exhibits in paper folding and cut work is of a very superior order. Some draw-tings from clover leaves by Carl Lindb, Anna Anderson, Mamie McLean and Cliffor Armstrong attracted much attention Clifton Armstrong attracted much attention. In the sixth grade Ada Yule has done extra ordinarily well in a study of snowballs.

The exhibit of penmanship is of particular excellence. The comparative work in this

There is some work in carving, also, that is very meritorious. Claude Cunningham has in this department a chest of miniature tools that are very good. The work in paper-folding and cutting is in keeping with the excellence of the remainder of the display. The free-hand drawing exhibited by the pupils of this school is particularly praiseworthy. Flora Kosters has on exhibition a study in crayon that is of a higher order than any similar exhibit in the display. It is a study of a tea-set and is a work of extraordinary merit. POST ENCAMPMENTS.

They Will this Year Take the Place of the Department Maneuvers. There will be no department encampment

f United States troops this year. Word has been received at headquarters by General Brooke, commander of the departent of the Platte, that the expense has been too great, and that some less exacting expedient must be resorted to.

The expense of the last encampment of this department, which was held at Fort Robinson, has been variously estimated at from $11,000 to $18,000. This expense, when the magnitude of the undertak-ing is brought to mind, is considered most casonable. As there are eight other depart ments in the country it may easily be seen how the cost of the maneuvers could have reached a total which had not been antici

Sole Agts. for Omaha, 1814 Farnam St.

Is slow but its coming sure. We are prepared for it, we have made last / week the heaviest purchase of summer clothing ever made by any retail clothing house. Owing to the backward season manufacturers are overstocked, and we have closed a deal for a very large stock at prices far below the cost of manufacturing. We mean to sell the goods without any profit, just for the sake of making a big advertisement with them, as we find this the most effective way of advertising. Our customers will remember how we monopolized in former seasons the trade in summer clothing. We mean to do the same this year, and if it is possible to give greater values we will do so. We have prepared for a greater rush--more than half of our second floor is filled with summer coats and vests.--If you will look at our stock you will think we have enough of them to supply every man in this state, and such a variety has neverbeen seen in any retail clothing house in this country. The season will be short and we intend to make short work with the goods. We predict that this will be the most sensational sale in this city.

SUMMER NECKWEAR.

In connection with this coat and vest sale we commence to-day our annual sale of Summer Neckwear. Our patrons need not be told what this means. Thousands of dozens will be distributed at mere nominal prices. We say "dozens" purposely because the most of our Summer Ties are sold by the dozen for the same price as other houses charge you for one or two single ties of same quality. For instance, the Pique Tecks, which you see in our window marked 25c a dozen, can not be bought elsewhere for less than 12 1/2 or 18c apiece. They come in handsome new patterns and latest shapes. Other Summer Ties and Scarfs in proportion. We keep them in the finest grades. One of the prettiest novelties in summer neckwear this season is the new Ring Scarf, made of Washable material. This is the very latest. We have a large variety in handsome shades and patterns, guaranteed to stand washing. Our price for these is 35c each—other houses charge 75c for them.

SUMMER SHOES

Our assortment of men's low shoes is the largest in the city. What you can't find in our stock is not worth looking for, and our prices are by far the lowest. We sell you a good Oxford tie shoe with solid leather sole and counter, made next and shapely, for $1.15. You could not buy the same shoe elsewhere for less than $1.75. Russet low shoes, of a good quality which will stand service at $1,40, worth $2; and excellent Dongola southern ties, honest stock and well made, at $1.90, worth fully $2.50. Very fine calf. Oxford, and southern ties, very flexible and easy shoes, at $2:15 and $2.25. Shoe stores would charge at least $3 for such qualities. We can save you considerable money on your footwear.
